Parliament (1994- ). National Assembly,2002      Contingent Citizens Elizabeth Hull,2020-05-27 Contingent Citizens examines the ambiguous state of South Africa's public sector workers and the implications for contemporary understandings of citizenship It takes us inside an ethnography of the professional ethic of nurses in a rural hospital in KwaZulu Natal shaped by a deep history of mission medicine and changing forms of new public management Liberal democratic principles of transparency decentralization and rights though promising freedom from control often generate fear and insecurity instead But despite the pressures they face Elizabeth Hull shows that nurses draw on a range of practices from international migration to new religious movements to assert new forms of citizenship Focusing an anthropological lens on professionalism Hull explores the major fault lines of South Africa's fragmented social landscape class gender race and religion to make an important contribution to the study of class formation and citizenship This prize winning monograph will be of interest to scholars of anthropology development studies sociology and global public health      Resources in Education ,1999

Stories of the Liberation Struggles in South Africa Prof. Thabo Israel Pudi,2014-12-12 The Stories of the Liberation Struggles in South Africa Mpumalanga Province is a book about the struggles of the South African people black Indian and colored when they defied and resisted oppression and apartheid from the white South African government in the pre 1994 era To ensure dominance over other race groups and the entrenchment of oppression and apartheid the white South African government applied many tactics These included dividing people along racial lines such as securing separate living areas for whites black Coloureds and Indians The government further divided the black people into ethnic groups such as Zulu Xhosa and Pedi This was to ensure that the black people were confined to what was called homelands or Bantustans The apartheid government also promulgated laws that were aimed at discriminating and undermining the freedom and integrity of the black people such as The Group Areas Act and others There was also state of emergencies which were often declared to ensure that the iron fist of apartheid and oppression remained clenched During these state of emergencies many black people died were maimed or brutally injured and some also disappeared forever When the apartheid government went further to enforce that the Afrikaans language should be the official language at all schools then they found that they have committed the greatest error The students opposed it Violence erupted from the Soweto schools and it spread to all other township The stories in Part 1 and Part 2 of the books are about the liberation stories of the struggles in South Africa Mpumalanga province which touches amongst others on the toils the trials the troubles and the perils that the youths especially had to undergo during that time Many youths skipped the country to do military training in order to force the apartheid government to go to the negotiation table for freedom and democracy for all others waged battles within the country At many instances they fought against the might of the South African police armed with rubber bullet teargas and live ammunition whilst only armed with stones and dustbin lid as their shields Many were arrested Many died in detention Many died and there was funeral after funeral when the youths went out to bury their dead Sometimes when they return from the funerals they would suffer other casualties This was a vicious circle of funeral after funeral but the youths called the young lions never gave up There are of course other instances when the youth fought the establishment of homelands or the third force elements impimpis or askaris which worked with the system There are of course other cases of youths who also fought with local business people because these were perceived to be working with their enemies the white government Sad to say the stories herein also reveal some orgies of the youths fighting and killing people especially the elderly who were perceived to be witches All these stories are true experiences from the contributors South Africa Survey ,2009 SAMJ ,2007 A Framework for Transformation National Commission on Higher Education (South Africa),1996 The Journal of Multicultural Nursing & Health ,2002 Health Telematics Education John Mantas,1997 This volume focuses on the activities on Health Telematics Education In Europe coordinated activities in healthcare informatics education started in the late 1980 s with the establishment of European Courses in Health Teematics At the same time the European Commission foresaw the need for spreading the knowledge of IT in the Healthcare Sector Therefore the EC since then have supported the initiatives that aim to create awareness stimulate diffusion educate and train the users healthcare professionals in the application of Information Technology to the Healthcare Sector Such an initiative is the NIGHTENGAL project which is an essential project in the planning and implementation of strategy timing the Nursing profession in using and applying healthcare information systems as well as the IT EDUCTRA project which covers a more wide spectrum of the Health Telematics Education The objective of this book is to promote the appropriate use of the developed Telematics infrastructure across Europe by educating and training healthcare professionals in a harmonising way across Europe in the upcoming field of Health and Nursing Informatics For achieving this objective the European Commission established a series of European Conferences on Health Telematics Education and Workshops by experts users developers and policymakers In this book the Proceedings of the first European Conference in Health Telematics Education HTE 96 organised by the NIGHTINGALE project and supported by the IT EDUCTRA project are included as well as the minutes and the presentations of the NIGHTINGALE Workshops Coronavirus (COVID-19) Outbreaks, Vaccination, Politics and Society Rais Akhtar,2022-09-28 This books comprises of 24 chapters by experts from developed and developing countries The book cover Argentina Australia Bangladesh Brazil Canada Fiji France India Indonesia Italy Japan Malaysia Mexico Papua New Guinea South Africa Taiwan Thailand the UK and England USA West Africa and Zambia FOREWORD by David J Hunter Emeritus

National Council of Provinces,2001      All About South Africa Rob Marsh,2013-07-22 All About South Africa is a comprehensive reference book for all South African children with enquiring minds and a lively interest in the world around them Packed with colourful photographs and illustrations the simple and thematically presented text is both easy to read and to understand This fascinating introduction to our country looks at life in southern Africa long long ago and explores the culture of our land and the people who helped shape our unique South African community It provides an intriguing insight into the ever changing world of science and technology and our sometimes puzzling economy This valuable reference work also introduces young readers to our equally important natural heritage the coasts mountains and climate of the land and the country s rich variety of wildlife Now in it s 7th print edition and fully updated this well researched and visually stimulating volume offers all this information and much much more Complemented by lists of recommended place to see All About South Africa is an essential addition to the bookshelf of every South African child      Annual Report Centre for the Study of Violence and Reconciliation,1997      Women: Wise, Optimistic, Motivating, Empowering & Nurturing Letlhokwa George Mpedi,2024-08-05 Women s Day celebrated annually on the 9th of August commemorates the 1956 women s march against the discriminatory pass laws during the apartheid era It was on this day that women from across the nation were led by Helen Joseph Lillian Ngoyi Rahima Moosa and Sophia Williams De Bruyn to the Union Buildings to protest against the oppressive pass laws As SA History describes it The 1956 Women s March played a vital role in women becoming more visible participants in the anti apartheid struggle That is not to say that women were not already playing an instrumental role in the struggle But as history has long demonstrated this is often a forgotten aspect of our narrative This unfortunate omission underscores the importance of reclaiming and preserving these stories weaving them into the broader narrative of societal progress As we reflect on their fight and the impact of their war cry wathint abafazi wathint imbokodo uza kufa which translates to when you strike the women you strike a rock you will be crushed you will die we are given pause to reflect on the progress made in the fight for equality since then We now live in a democratic society where many of our aspirations have been realised Yet there is much we have not managed to achieve To say that South Africa has achieved equality would be a fallacy A grim reality is that in many aspects we have failed women Pay parity underrepresentation in industries unequal access to opportunities disturbing levels of violence sexism and misogyny persist unabated These issues cast a long shadow over our aspirations as a nation This book aims to shed light on these issues while honouring the progress made and highlighting the road ahead      South Africa Yearbook ,1999      Corruption and Development in Africa K. Hope,B. Chikulo,1999-08-18 Bringing together a distinguished cast of contributors the book provides an authoritative and definitive analysis of the theory practice and development impact of corruption in Africa Combating corruption is demonstrated to require greater priority in the quest for African development
