Mincy, 1994 Examines mentoring programs aimed at helping young African American males The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis (Amsac) Joe L. Rempson, 2016-03-12 The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC cannot be solved by the school alone It is a race problem which can only be solved if we black males provide the leadership in tackling our three major demons which now mainly account for the problem IQ lag fatherless families crime AMSAC had its origin about 100 years ago when after the death of Washington DuBois gained ascendancy in our African American Garden of Eden and replaced Washingtons brains property and character gospel with a civil rights agenda That agenda has led to a civil rights fixation and our second bondage Victimology wherein being the victim has become part of our core identity and made us psychological slaves Rather than being proud and self reliant disproportionately we have come to see ourselves as victims who are entitled to system help and special treatment This bondage and it is a bondage vitiates our manhood and the energy and drive required to pursue the adaptation pathway paved by Washington but demonized by DuBois Return to that pathway and we can confront and conquer AMSAC and our three major demons Guided by history and the research evidence this book details how Its 20 chapters make for long reading but just by reading the first and last chapters you can get the message The motto of the proposed evidence based experimental program the African American Male Career Pathway Program AMCAP A special appeal is made to black athletes and entertainers to help propagate this motto and support the proposed high school student clubs Student AMCAPs in its implementation Social Work With African American Males Waldo E. Johnson Jr., 2010-05-26 This unique volume explicitly examines the contemporary status of African American males from adolescence to adulthood while implicitly challenging how normative masculine identity and historical marginalization complicate individual and familial engagement between social work social welfare and African American males Working With African American Males Larry E. Davis, 1999 The contributors to this book write from their varying perspectives as educators psychiatrists anthropologists sociologists psychologists and social workers to provide a broad interdisciplinary view of the possible solutions to the different problems facing African American Men Educating African American Males Olatokunbo S. Fashola, 2005-03-23 Bringing unique perspectives from the field this resource offers multiple perspectives on African American male achievement from top scholars in the field of urban education Black Males in Secondary and Postsecondary Education Erik M. Hines, Edward C. Fletcher Jr, 2023-12-13 Black Males in Secondary and Postsecondary Education contributes to the existing literature on this population with a focus on teaching mentoring advising and counseling Black boys and men from preschool to graduate professional school and beyond into their careers Without Justice For All Adolph Reed Jr., 2018-02-12 Without Justice for All The New Liberalism and Our Retreat from Racial Equality questions examines and explains the way a new orthodoxy of American leaders has contributed to the social stratification and inequality which plagues America today By looking at the history of our social policies since the New Deal as well as the status of specific policy arenas essayists show how political shifts over the past fifty years have moved us away from a more egalitarian politics Throughout the book responds critically to the now conventional argument that liberalism must be reconfigured in ways that retreat from immediate identification with the interests of labor minorities and the poor From a look at federal housing policy and the failure of New Deal social programs to an examination of long established public assistance programs and Affirmative Action Without Justice for All is a timely and important contribution to the dialogue on race in modern America

Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology James T. Murphy, Jr.,2012-08 An initial introduction to the study of Christian theology is both exciting and invigorating for students of its discipline One can become enameled in the classic perspectives of theology without any consideration of a possible alternative Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology is an exit from the classic conviction that trumpets the doctrine of soteriology attributing its substance to the posture of eternity while ignoring the importance of salvation in the existential Careful not to reject the question of eternal life but examining the nuances of the term salvation empowers this work to present the like manner essential that having salvation is just as much about now than it is in the here after

African American men living in urban areas to form healthy positive images of themselves as individuals and as part of a greater society in which they often face grave challenges The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon,1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100,000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology Resources in Education ,1995 Engaging Boys in Treatment Craig Haen,2011-03-07 Traditional therapy can often be an off putting experience for boys as it is in direct opposition to the ways they generally interact and connect with others This book explores a variety of creative approaches that professionals can use to enhance the clinical experience and better reach their young male clients Chapters discuss the theory behind and implementation of various creative approaches to therapy with boys such as play therapy including sports movement and gross motor activity animal assisted therapy the use of video games and computers the use of superheroes in role play metaphor and play therapy and art therapy Attention is also given to methods for working with several subgroups of boys that require specialized treatment approaches including gender variant and sexual minority boys and boys with ADHD The first book of its kind mental health professionals will find this a comprehensive and highly valuable text to help them understand help and support boys and their development Reimagining Equality Nancy E. Dowd,2018-06-26 2018 Outstanding Academic Title given by Choice Magazine A comprehensive examination of developmental inequality among children Developmental equality whether every child has an equal opportunity to reach their fullest potential is essential for children's future growth and access to opportunity In the United States however children of color are disproportionately affected by poverty poor educational outcomes and structural discrimination limiting their potential In Reimagining Equality Nancy E Dowd sets out to examine the roots of these inequalities by tracing the life course of black boys from birth to age 18 in an effort to create an affirmative system of rights and support for all children Drawing on interdisciplinary research the book demonstrates that black boys encounter challenges and barriers that funnel them toward failure rather than developmental success Their example exposes a broader reality of hierarchies among children linked to government policies practices structures and institutions Dowd argues for a new legal model of developmental equality grounded in the real challenges that children face on the basis of race gender and class Concluding with a New Deal for all children Reimagining

Equality provides a comprehensive set of policies that enables our political and legal systems to dismantle what harms and discriminates children and maximize their development

Queering Elementary Education William J. Letts IV, James T. Sears, 1999-10-27 Queering Elementary Education is not about teaching kids to be gay lesbian bisexual or straight It s not part of a sinister stratagem in the gay agenda Instead these provocative and thoughtful essays advocate the creation of classrooms that challenge categorical thinking promote interpersonal intelligence and foster critical consciousness Queer elementary classrooms are those where parents and educators care enough about their children to trust the human capacity for understanding and their educative abilities to foster insight into the human condition Those who teach queerly refuse to participate in the great sexual sorting machine called schooling where diminutive GI Joes and Barbies become star quarterbacks and prom queens while the Linuses and Tinky Winkies become wallflowers or human doormats Queeering education means bracketing our simplest classroom activities in which we routinely equate sexual identities with sexual acts privilege the heterosexual condition and presume sexual destinies Queer teachers are those who develop curriculum and pedagogy that afford every child dignity rooted in self worth and esteem for others In short queering education happens when we look at schooling upside down and view childhood from the inside out This groundbreaking volume demands we explore taken for granted assumptions about diversity identities childhood and prejudice

Eight Propositions Joe L. Rempson, 2020-11-19 Rempson takes issue with those who lay the plight of African Americans on racism not seeing it today as a major obstacle to black progress Rather he traces the origin back to what he terms the African American Garden of Eden In it W E B Dubois outlasted Booker T Washington and fathered a tradition which Rempson argues has produced a victim identity and an emphasis on the system rather than the self Only black males offer a way out he declares because it is entirely our black males who are keeping us down and curtailing our progress in contrast to black females who are doing OK They are plagued by what Rempson calls the African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC Their academic performance ranks at the bottom alone below black female students and below white Asian and Hispanic male students In large urban areas their high school dropout rate is 59 percent and nationally they lag behind in college attendance and graduation rates The outcome Rempson argues is dysfunctionality and the existence of hedonistic norms which hinder family and community stability But while black males are the problem Rempson contends it is nevertheless only they who can solve it because research and experience show that it takes males to bring up and change other males Though intended for everyone he therefore writes his book to his fellow advantaged black males and makes a passionate plea for them to step up and with the help of black females and of the nation take the lead As their guide he has formulated eight propositions Arrived at through an examination of impressively extensive data from numerous sources and disciplines they are a marked departure from the customary Most strikingly delicate matters such as those which pertain to intelligence quotient IQ and culture are openly confronted and dealt with But Rempson writes unless confronted we will not solve our problems Nor he continues can we solve them unless we cut the umbilical cord to white America We have no right to expect it to be our savior nor are we justified in perceiving it as our oppressor Forcefully and finely written Rempson s book is a singular and courageous contribution Alone his eight propositions make it a worthy read Men to Men Lee N. June, Matthew Parker, 1996 A powerful collection of essays by black male scholars written to black men on issues that concern them today Titles include Risk and Failure as Preludes to Achievements The Criminal Justice System A Message to Young Black Males Keys to Sound Financial Planning and more
