revolt in Palestine Children in the Muslim Middle East Elizabeth Warnock Fernea, 2014-05-02 Today nearly half of all people in the Middle East are under the age of fifteen Yet little is known about the new generation of boys and girls who are growing up in a world vastly different from that of their parents a generation who will be the leaders of tomorrow This groundbreaking anthology is an attempt to look at the current situation of children by presenting materials by both Middle Eastern and Western scholars Many of the works have been translated from Arabic Persian and French The forty one pieces are organized into sections on the history of childhood growing up health work education politics and war and play and the arts They are presented in many forms essays in history and social science poems proverbs lullabies games and short stories Countries represented are Egypt Jordan Morocco Tunisia Israel West Bank Kuwait Saudi Arabia Iran Iraq Syria Sudan Lebanon Turkey Yemen and Afghanistan This book complements Elizabeth Fernea s earlier works Women and the Family in the Middle East and Middle Eastern Muslim Women Speak coedited with Basima Bezirgan Like them it will be important reading for everyone interested in the Middle East and in women s and children s issues Decolonial Solidarity in Palestine-Israel Teodora Todorova, 2021-06-17 Recent years have seen the Israeli state become ever more extreme in its treatment of Palestinians manifested both in legislation stripping Palestinians of their rights and in the escalating scale and violence of the Israeli occupation But this hard line stance has in turn provoked a new spirit of dissent among a growing number of Israeli scholars and civil society activists As well as recognising Palestinian claims to justice and self determination this new dissent is characterised by calls for genuine decolonisation and an end to partition as opposed to the now discredited two state solution Through the analytical lens of settler colonial studies this book examines the impact of this new decolonial solidarity through case studies of three activist groups Zochrot Anarchists Against the Wall and the Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions ICAHD In doing so Todorova extends the framework of settler colonial studies beyond scholarly analysis and into the realm of activist practice She also looks at how decolonial solidarity has shaped and been influenced by the writings of both Palestinian and Israeli theorists The book shows that new forms of civil society activism bringing together Palestinian and Israeli activists can rejuvenate the resistance to occupation and the Israeli state s growing authoritarianism Disappearing Palestine Jonathan Cook, 2013-04-04 Palestine is fast disappearing Over many decades Israel has developed and refined policies to disperse imprison and impoverish the Palestinian people in a relentless effort to destroy them as a nation It has industrialized Palestinian despair through ever more sophisticated systems of curfews checkpoints walls permits and land grabs It has transformed the West Bank and Gaza into laboratories for testing the infrastructure of confinement creating a lucrative defence industry by pioneering the technologies needed for crowd control surveillance collective punishment and urban warfare In this insightful and authoritative new book leading journalist Jonathan Cook examines the many different guises in which these experiments on the Palestinians are being carried out Accessible and comprehensive this is a powerful analysis of one of the most enduring and entrenched conflicts in contemporary world politics Behind the Intifada Joost R. Hiltermann, 2021-04-13 Before the intifada began Joost Hiltermann had already looked at local organizations in the Israeli occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip and seen there the main elements that would eventually be used to mobilize the Palestinian masses In the first comprehensive study of these organizations Hiltermann shows how local organizers provided basic services unavailable under military rule while recruiting for the cause of Palestinian nationalism Islamic Family Law Chibli Mallat, Jane Frances Connors, 1990 Artikler om praktisering af islamisk familieret i Mellem sten Europa Syd og Syd stasien samt Kina Israel and South Africa Ilan Pappé, 2015-10-15 Within the already heavily polarised debate on the Israeli Palestinian conflict parallels between Israel and apartheid South Africa remain highly contentious A number of prominent academic and political commentators including former US president Jimmy Carter and UN Special Rapporteur John Dugard have argued that Israel's treatment of its Arab Israeli citizens and the people of the occupied territories amounts to a system of oppression no less brutal or inhumane than that of South Africa's white supremacists Similarly boycott and disinvestment campaigns comparable to those employed by anti apartheid activists have attracted growing support Yet while the apartheid question has become increasingly visible in this debate there has been little in the way of genuine scholarly analysis of the similarities or otherwise between the Zionist and apartheid regimes In Israel and South Africa Ilan Papp one of Israel's preeminent academics and a noted critic of the current government brings together lawyers journalists policy makers and historians of both countries to assess the implications of the apartheid analogy for international law activism and policy making With contributors including the distinguished anti apartheid activist Ronnie Kasrils Israel and South Africa offers a bold and incisive perspective on one of the defining moral questions of our age Dynamics of Self-Determination in Palestine Waart, 2021-10-11 The Arab Israeli conflict has become an example of total disregard for international law by all parties involved including the United Nations to the detriment of a regional and global lasting peace The conflict has contributed considerably to the erosion of the moral and legal authority of the United Nations while the international community has failed to take prompt advantage of the East West detente Peoples with statehood the Iraqis Somalis Yugoslavs and even more those without the Palestinians paid a high price for the international lack of decisiveness Dynamics of Self Determination in Palestine discusses the Palestinian conflict in the light of the protection of peoples under international law Chapter One treats the fact that the Arab states and the Palestinians have overlooked the element of negotiation in the keeping of international order Chapter Two discusses the International Bill of Rights in which the UN included self determination in order to protect peoples against oppression while Chapter Three expounds on the fact that in doing so it shaped the framework for the settlement of conflicting territorial claims to Palestine The final chapter sets forth the desired UN participation in the creation of Palestine Universities and Conflict Juliet Millican, 2017-11-08 This book uses a series of case studies to examine the roles played by universities during situations of conflict peacebuilding and resistance While a body of work dealing with the role of education in conflict does exist this is almost entirely concerned with compulsory education and schooling This book in contrast highlights and promotes the importance of higher education and universities in particular to situations of conflict peacebuilding and resistance Using case studies from Europe Africa Asia and the Middle East this volume considers institutional responses academic responses and student responses illustrating these in chapters written by those who have had direct experience of these issues Looking at a university's tripartite functions of research teaching and service in relation to the different phases or stages of conflict pre conflict violence post conflict and peacebuilding it draws together some of the key contributions a university might make to situations of instability resistance and recovery The book is organised in five sections that deal with conceptual issues institutional responses academic led or discipline specific responses teaching or curriculum led responses and student involvement Aimed at those working in universities or concerned with conflict recovery and peacebuilding it highlights ways in which universities can be a valuable if currently neglected resource This book will be of much interest to students of peace studies conflict resolution education studies and IR in general

The Palestinian Economy (RLE Economy of Middle East) George Abed, 2015-05-15 This volume brings together the results of the symposium on Economic Development under Prolonged Occupation held at Oxford University in January 1986 The basic aim of the symposium was to stimulate research and discussion on issues of economic development by a prolonged occupation It brought together a number of development economists representatives from development assistance organisations and other individuals engaged in one facet or another of social and economic development in the occupied areas The papers presented here reflect the wide range of thought on the issues surrounding the Palestinian Economy The 1949 Geneva Conventions Andrew Clapham, Paola Gaeta, Marco Sassòli, 2015-10-15 The four Geneva Conventions adopted in 1949 remain the fundamental basis of contemporary international humanitarian law. They protect the wounded and sick on the battlefield, those wounded, sick or shipwrecked at sea, prisoners of war and civilians in time of war. However, since they were adopted, warfare has changed considerably. In this groundbreaking commentary over sixty international law experts investigate the application of the Geneva Conventions and explain how they should be interpreted today. It places the Conventions in the light of the developing obligations imposed by international law on states, armed groups and individuals, most notably through international human rights law and international criminal law. The context in which the Conventions are to be applied and interpreted has changed considerably since they were first written. The borderline between international and non international armed conflicts is not as clear cut as was once thought and is complicated further by the use of armed force mandated by the United Nations and the complex mixed and transnational nature of certain non international armed conflicts. The influence of other developing branches of international law such as human rights law and refugee law has been considerable. The development of international criminal law has breathed new life into multiple provisions of the Geneva Conventions. This commentary adopts a thematic approach to provide detailed analysis of each key issue dealt with by the Conventions, taking into account both judicial decisions and state practice. Cross cutting chapters on issues such as transnational conflicts and the geographical scope of the Conventions also give readers a full understanding of the meaning of the Geneva Conventions in their contemporary context. Prepared under the auspices of the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights, this commentary on four of the most important treaties in international law is unmissable for anyone working in or studying situations of armed conflicts.
