Online Societies Under Siege Exploring International:

Societies Under Siege Lee Jones, 2015-10-15 Today international economic sanctions are imposed in response to virtually every serious international crisis whether to promote regime change and democratisation punish armed aggression or check nuclear proliferation But how exactly is the economic pain inflicted by sanctions supposed to translate into political gain What are the mechanisms by which sanctions operate or fail to operate This is the first comparative study of this vital question Drawing on Gramscian state theory Societies Under Siege provides a novel analytical framework to study how sanctions are mediated through the domestic political economy and state society relations of target states and filter through into political outcomes whether those sought by the states imposing sanctions or as frequently occurs unintended and even highly perverse consequences Detailed case studies of sanctions aimed at regime change in three pivotal cases South Africa Iraq and Myanmar are used to explore how different types of sanctions function across time and space These case studies draw on extensive fieldwork interviews archival documents and leaked diplomatic cables to provide a unique insight into how undemocratic regimes targeted by sanctions survive or fall

Myanmar's Rohingya Genocide Ronan Lee, 2021-01-28 The genocide in Myanmar has drawn global attention as Nobel Peace Prize laureate Aung San Suu Kyi appears to be presiding over human rights violations forced migrations and extra judicial killings on an enormous scale This unique study draws on thousands of hours of interviews and testimony from the Rohingya themselves to assess and outline the full scale of the disaster Casting new light on Rohingya identity history and culture this will be an essential contribution to the study of the Rohingya people and to the study of the early stages of genocide This book adds convincingly to the body of evidence that the government of Myanmar has enabled a genocide in Rakhine State and the surrounding areas

The Burmese Labyrinth Carlos Sardiña Galache, 2020-03-10 In 2011 Myanmar embarked in a democratic transition from a brutal military rule that culminated four years later when the first free election in decades saw a landslide for the party of celebrated Nobel Prize winner Aung San Suu Kyi Yet even as the international community was celebrating a new dawn old wars were raging in the northern borderlands A crisis was emerging in western Arakan state where the regime intensified its oppression of the vulnerable Muslim Rohingya community By 2017 the conflict had escalated into a military onslaught against the Rohingya that provoked the most desperate refugee crisis of our times as over 750 000 of them fled their homes to neighbouring Bangladesh In The Burmese Labyrinth journalist Carlos Sardiña Galache gives the in depth story of the country Burma has always been an uneasy balance between multiple ethnic groups and religions He examines the deep roots behind the ethnic divisions that go back prior to the colonial period and so shockingly exploded in recent times This is a powerful portrait of a nation in perpetual conflict with itself

Accountability for Mass Starvation Bridget Conley, Alex De Waal, Catriona Murdoch, Wayne Jordash QC, 2022 This volume explores how famine and mass starvation in our lifetime are the result of man made policies and invariably occur during times of armed conflict It provides expert analysis on defining starvation early

□,2020-12-01 Exploring the Links between Social Connections, Care and Integration Marcia Vera Espinoza,Arek

Dakessian,Clayton Boeyink,2024-10-18 Integration has in recent decades emerged as the primary policy tool through which the nations of the global north and increasingly the global south shepherd their immigrants to achieve the same social and economic outcomes as natives taking into account their characteristics OECD 2018 Despite scholarship on the importance of social connections to facilitate feelings of belonging and settlement lack of consensus around what integration means has led to bustling critique of the notion as prescribing processes through which migrant others must work their way into acceptance in the body social Moreover scholars recognise that discourses and practices of integration are often used as means to justify accompanying policies of disintegration and exclusion Put differently there is a humanitarian hand that cares and a hand that strikes Frameworks for understanding migration and integration traverse the realms of theory policy and practice and are usually intertwined with discourses and regimes of care and connectedness This Research Topic aims to further unsettle debates around integration and care through an engagement with the value commitments that underlie integration projects and that drive everyday practice and service provision drawing upon perspectives beyond the global north The State of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe Ramona Coman,Luca Tomini,2017-10-02 The State of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe brings together scholars specialising in the study of Central and Eastern Europe and provides a comprehensive analysis of some of the major issues in the democratic make up of the EU s new member states The book covers the main dimensions of the state and contributors discuss questions about the development of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe over the past twenty years What is the present state of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe more than twenty years since the end of communist regimes What is the actual functioning of the political institutions of these countries How is political participation structured and what role do political parties play in these democracies What guarantees are provided to limit governmental powers and abuse What is the role of the judicial system and the relationship between justice and politics How can we evaluate the EU s influence regarding democratic consolidation What is the role of the public opinion This book was originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies Consociational

Power-Sharing in Northern Ireland Timofey Agarin,Rupert Taylor,2025-09-12 Consociational Power Sharing in Northern Ireland from leading scholars in the field explores the evolution and challenges of consociational power sharing in Northern Ireland for politics and societal relations Contributors to this book highlight that scholarship on consociational democracy anticipates political stability and continuous integration in post conflict societies However over 25 years on from the Good Friday Agreement concerns remain about the adequacy of consociational power sharing to ensure a fully functional form of government capable of providing stability and of addressing deeper political and social issues While violence is absent ethno national identities remain in a state of a fragile equilibrium and aspirations for significant progress on key issues like truth justice mutual respect and socio political inclusion have not been met The reasons as to why this is so and what can be done to rectify it are central to the arguments that animate this timely book Consociational Power Sharing in Northern Ireland will be of great interest to students and scholars in political science law and constitutionalism nationalism and ethnicity and those interested in related topics in sociology and criminology It will also appeal to practitioner communities related to power sharing political representation and constitutional politics Urban Ghana and Privacy in the Digital Age Elad Ben

Elul,2022-04-20 This book explores privacy practices and the role of digital technologies in the lives of urban Ghanaians considering how they use language materiality and culture to maintain sharp boundaries between the private and public Focusing on the harbour town of Tema it offers rich ethnographic portraits that cover topics such as nightlife domestic architecture religion and social media The volume demonstrates how transformations across Africa such as Pentecostal reformation neoliberal reforms and rapid digitisation all raise the need for privacy among middle class urbanites who use brand new and very traditional strategies to uphold an image of their economic or religious state Overall the book highlights how digital technologies intertwine with local cultures and histories and how digital anthropology enhances our understanding of the offline as much as the online It makes a valuable contribution to discourse about the right for privacy and surveillance in the digital age and will be of interest to scholars from anthropology and African studies International

Migration, Development and Human Wellbeing Katie Wright,2012-10-26 Katie Wright explores how human wellbeing is constructed and how it travels across spatial boundaries She draws on empirical research undertaken with Peruvian migrants based in London and Madrid and their Peru based relatives and close friends to explore how human wellbeing is constructed and how it travels transnationally Citizens of an Empty Nation Azra Hromadžić,Azra Hromadžić,2015-04-07 In the wake of devastating conflict in Bosnia Herzegovina the polarizing effects of everyday ethnic divisions combined with hardened allegiances to ethnic nationalism and the rigid arrangements imposed in international peace building agreements have produced what Azra Hromadžić calls an empty nation Hromadžić explores the void created by unresolved tensions between mandated reunification initiatives and the segregation institutionalized by power sharing democracy and how these conditions are experienced by youths who have come of age in postconflict Bosnia Herzegovina Building on long term ethnographic research at the first integrated school of Bosnia Herzegovina Citizens of an Empty Nation offers a ground level view of how the processes of reunification play out at the Mostar Gymnasium Hromadžić details the local effects of the tensions and contradictions inherent in the processes of postwar state making shedding light on the larger projects of humanitarian intervention social cohesion cross ethnic negotiations and citizenship In this careful ethnography the Mostar Gymnasium becomes a powerful symbol for the state's simultaneous segregation and integration as the school's shared halls bathrooms and computer labs foster dynamic spaces for a rich cross ethnic citizenship or else remain empty Terrorism and Developing Countries Syed Abdul Rehman Khan,Zhang Yu,2020-05-06 Bioterrorism is terrorism involving the intentional dissemination of biological agents As in biological warfare bioterrorism agents can be viruses fungi bacteria toxins insects or any other number of naturally occurring or synthetic agents Therefore it can be difficult for clinicians to discriminate between an act of terrorism and a naturally occurring outbreak Written by distinguished researchers in the field this book examines the effects of bioterrorism and terrorism on the socioeconomic sustainability of different countries around the globe

Suffer the Children Gary Scott Smith, Jane Marie Smith, 2017-01-31 We all say that we care about children We all know that millions of children around the world including in the United States are suffering physically materially and emotionally and are unable to reach their full potential Moreover their material deprivation and physical ills often prevent them from responding to the gospel Most of us conclude that we cannot do anything significant to help the impoverished children living in our own backyards let alone those living in the slums of Nairobi or the hinterlands of Haiti We can however do much to improve their lives materially and spiritually Through praying giving generously sponsoring children volunteering with aid organizations living more simply investing and shopping more prudently and advocating more zealously in the political arena we can make a difference We can prod politicians business executives and church leaders to prioritize aiding destitute children We can support one of the hundreds of organizations that are working effectively to help indigent children have better lives Suffer the Children describes the plight of poor children and provides many practical ways we can participate in one of the most important crusades to improve our world

Genocide, Ethnonationalism, and the United Nations Hannibal Travis, 2013-01-17 Genocide Ethnonationalism and the United Nations examines a series of related crises in human civilization growing out of conflicts between powerful states or empires and indigenous or stateless peoples This is the first book to attempt to explore the causes of genocide and other mass killing by a detailed exploration of UN archives covering the period spanning from 1945 through 2011 Hannibal Travis argues that large states and empires disproportionately committed or facilitated genocide and other mass killings between 1945 and 2011 His research incorporates data concerning factors linked to the scale of mass killing and recent findings in human rights political science and legal theory Turning to potential solutions he argues that the concept of genocide imagines a future system of global governance under which the nation state itself is made subject to law The United Nations however has deflected the possibility of such a cosmopolitical law It selectively condemns genocide and has established an institutional structure that denies most peoples subjected to genocide of a realistic possibility of global justice lacks a robust international criminal tribunal or UN army and even encourages security cooperation among states that have proven to be destructive of peoples in the past Questions raised include What have been the causes of mass killing during the period since the United Nations Charter entered into force in 1945 How does mass killing spread across international borders and what is the role of resource wealth the arms trade and external interference in this process Have the United Nations or the International Criminal Court faced up to the problem of genocide and other forms of mass killing as is their mandate

Mobile Learning Communities Patrick Alan Danaher, Beverley Moriarty, Geoff Danaher, 2009-06-01 Mobile Learning Communities explores the diverse ways in which traveling groups experience learning on the run This book provides empirical evidence that draws on the authors 17 years of continuing research with international occupational Travelers It engages with themes such as workplace learning globalization multiliteracies and emerging technologies which impinge on the ways mobile groups make sense of themselves as learning communities International in focus this book deals with an issue of increasing global significance and shows the complexities of the lives and learning experiences of such mobile cultures and their strategies for earning learning and living thus challenging simplistic and stereotypical images of traveling groups still found in mainstream media and popular culture Mobile Learning Communities brings together for the first time mobilities and learning communities into a single and comprehensive focus It provides a detailed analysis of how mobile groups position themselves and how they are positioned by others This text will appeal to scholars in the field of distance education and educational technology and to researchers in education cultural studies and sociology It will also be of interest to educational instructors policy makers and administrators as well as teacher educators and pre service teachers It paints a vivid picture of the experience of mobility through the words of the mobile learners themselves but also critiques existing notions of learning and suggests ways of creating new educational futures for all learners and educators
