Maatschappij-Belangen ,1915 Jan Zoet, Amsterdammer 1609-1674 Rudolf Cordes,2008 Biografie van de 17e eeuwse schrijver dichter toneelspeler drukker en wereldverbeteraar The Bookshop of the World Andrew Pettegree,Arthur der Weduwen,2019-01-01 The untold story of how the Dutch conquered the European book market and became the world s greatest bibliophiles an instant classic on Dutch book history BMGN Low Countries Historical Review An excellent contribution to book history Robert Darnton New York Review of Books The Dutch Golden Age has long been seen as the age of Rembrandt and Vermeer whose paintings captured the public imagination and came to represent the marvel that was the Dutch Republic Yet there is another largely overlooked marvel in the Dutch world of the seventeenth century books In this fascinating account Andrew Pettegree and Arthur der Weduwen show how the Dutch produced many more books than pictures and bought and owned more books per capita than any other part of Europe Key innovations in marketing book auctions and newspaper advertising brought stability to a market where elsewhere publishers faced bankruptcy and created a population uniquely well informed and politically engaged This book tells for the first time the remarkable story of the Dutch conquest of the European book world and shows the true extent to which these pious prosperous quarrelsome and generous people were shaped by what they read The Devotion of Collecting Forrest C. Strickland,2023-01-16 The history of the Netherlands in the seventeenth century cannot be adequately told without considering ministers understanding of print and how they used print to encourage godliness and the nature of their personal libraries This study is built upon an examination of 234 auction catalogues of ministerial collections nearly all that are known to survive and the transcription of fifty five of these catalogues Libraries were possessions of central importance to the ministers who owned them Knowing the kinds of print with which ministers interacted provides us with valuable insights into the daily life of a minister and the culture of the era So what books did these central theological figures own and how did they use them De Vrije kunstenaar 1941-1945 ,1970 Het tijdschrift De vrije kunstenaar jaargangen 1941 1945 in boekvorm State Communication and Public Politics in the Dutch Golden Age Arthur der Weduwen,2024-07-19 State Communication and Public Politics in the Dutch Golden Age describes the political communication practices of the authorities in the early modern Netherlands Der Weduwen provides an in depth study of early modern state communication the manner in which government sought to inform its citizens publicise its laws and engage publicly in quarrels with political opponents These communication strategies including proclamations the use of town criers and the printing and affixing of hundreds of thousands of edicts underpinned the political stability of the seventeenth century Dutch Republic Based on systematic research in thirty two Dutch archives this book demonstrates for the first time how the wealthiest most literate and most politically participatory state of early modern Europe was shaped by the communication of political information It makes a decisive case for the importance of communication to the relationship between rulers and ruled and the extent to which early modern authorities relied on the active consent of their subjects to legitimise their government Hugo Grotius Henk J.M.
