Opening The Eye Of New Awareness:

Opening the Eye of New Awareness Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, 1999 An introduction to Buddhism written by the Dalai Lama himself provides an complete look at the Buddhist philosophies and ideals as well as the vitalecessity of treating others with kindness and compassion Reprint Opening the Eye of New Awareness Dalai Lama, 2012-06-25

Opening the Eye of New Awareness is a succinct thorough overview of the doctrines of Buddhism as they have been practiced for a thousand years in Tibet The Dalai Lama here discusses the need for religious practice and the importance of kindness and compassion Originally written for Tibetan lay people this was the Dalai Lama s first book on Buddhist philosophy to appear in English and Prof Lopez s new introduction places these teachings in their proper historical context This is an invaluable handbook for both personal use and academic study of the Buddhist path Written for both Tibetan and Western readers Opening the Eye of New Awareness is the Dalai Lama s first religious work It is not an edited transcript of public lectures but is His Holiness own summation of Buddhist doctrine and practice Completed in 1963 just four years after his escape from Tibet and four years after completing his religious education it is a work of consummate scholarship by a twenty seven year old geshe wise beyond his years Nowhere in his many subsequent works does one find a more clear and concise exposition of the essentials of Buddhist thought Indeed all of His Holinesss s many publications are in some sense commentaries on this first book

Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom A. Christian van Gorder, 2021-12-09 Buddhism and Christianity are ancient rich and multivalent wisdom spirituality traditions that often have insightful similarities as well as distinct perspectives from entirely different starting points Fragrant Rivers of Wisdom explores some of these paths and encourages readers to gain as far as is possible a participant s appreciation of another faith This book aims to help readers celebrate and enjoy the rich wisdom legacies of a teacher revealing a pure lotus blossoming from mud and the legacies of a peasant Jewish carpenter from Galilee revealing love on a cross Both teachers share the power of love the joys of healing encouragement and the creative resources of spirit filled living Their ancient words and their modern communities still following these paths are dynamically relevant for our modern context of confusion and challenge

Sacred Passage Margaret Coberly, Ph.D, RN, 2003-02-11 Working as an emergency room nurse Margaret Coberly came in contact with death on a daily basis However it wasn t until her own brother was diagnosed with terminal cancer that she realized she understood very little about the emotional and spiritual aspects of caring for the terminally ill To fill this gap she turned to the unique wisdom on death and dying found in Tibetan Buddhism In this book Coberly offers sound practical advice on meeting the essential needs of the dying integrating stories from her long career in nursing with useful insights from the Tibetan Buddhist teachings In the West death is viewed as a tragic and horrible event Coberly shows us how this view generates fear and denial which harm the dying by adding unnecessary loneliness confusion and mental anguish to the dying process Tibetan Buddhism focuses on the nature of death and how to face it with honesty openness and courage In this view death is not a failure but a natural part of life that if properly understood and appreciated can offer the dying and their loved ones an opportunity to gain valuable insight and wisdom Coberly argues that the Tibetan Buddhist outlook can be a useful antidote to the culture of fear and denial that surrounds death in the West and can help caregivers become more fully present fearless honest and compassionate Sacred Passage highlights two very practical teachings on death and dying from the Tibetan Buddhist tradition and presents them in clear nontechnical language Readers learn about the eight stages of dissolution leading to death a detailed roadmap of the dying process that describes the sequence of physical psychological and spiritual changes that occur as we die Coberly also presents the death meditation a contemplative exercise for developing a new relationship to death and life The book also includes a lengthy annotated list of recommended readings for added guidance and inspiration Topics include How the terminally ill can experience emotional and spiritual healing even when they can't be cured Why Western medicine's relentless focus on curing disease has led to inadequate care for the dying What to expect during the dying process How our fear and denial of death harm the dying Techniques to help caregivers promote a peaceful environment for the dying and their loved ones How to meet the changing physical and emotional needs of the dying Helpful advice on what to say and how to behave around the terminally ill

Perfecting Wisdom The Dalai Lama, 2019-07-16 Based on a lecture given by the Dalai Lama on the wisdom chapter of A Guide to the Bodhisattva Way of Life this book comments on Tibetan Buddhist philosophy in a clear and direct way Shantideva's A Guide to the Bodhisattva Way of Life is one of the most important texts in the Mahayana tradition of Buddhist practice Its ninth chapter the section on transcendent wisdom is known among Buddhist scholars as a challenging exposition of Madhyamika philosophy and difficult to understand without a commentary This extraordinarily clear discussion of the wisdom chapter is based on an oral teaching given by His Holiness the Dalai Lama before an audience of thousands of Tibetans and Westerners This invaluable volume with its precise explanation of core issues of Tibetan Buddhism stands as a key work in Buddhist literature This book was previously published under the title Transcendent Wisdom

The Wish-Fulfilling Golden Sun of the Mahayana Thought Training: Directing in the Short Cut Path to Enlightenment eBook Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2020-07-14 The Wish Fulfilling Golden Sun of the Mahayana Thought Training was used as textbook for the third October 1972 through seventh November 1974 Kopan meditation courses and contains Lama Zopa Rinpoche's summaries of and meditations on many important topics from the lam rim The textbook is currently recommended as part of FPMT Education Services Discovering Buddhism course From the original preface written by Lama Zopa Rinpoche This book has not been written because there is some new Dharma that was not shown by Guru Shakyamuni And because of my limited experience realizations in no way I have deserved to write such a book and there is scant hope that it can benefit others But in view of the remarkable fact that in this time already beyond the period of the five degenerations and an age in which there is the great danger of atomic explosion an increasing number of Westerners are finding the Buddhadharma as they seek like blind

News-Tibet, 1987 Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu, 2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly Examining this long overlooked ocular turn Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there

Praying with One Eye Open Mary Ella Engel,2019-07-15 In 1878 Elder Joseph Standing traveled into the Appalachian mountains of North Georgia seeking converts for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints Sixteen months later he was dead murdered by a group of twelve men The church refused to bury the missionary in Georgia soil instead he was laid to rest in Salt Lake City beneath a monument that declared There is no law in Georgia for the Mormons Most accounts of this event have linked Standing s murder to the virulent nineteenth century anti Mormonism that also took the life of prophet Joseph Smith and to an enduring southern tradition of extralegal violence In these writings the stories of the men who took Standing s life are largely ignored and they are treated as significant only as vigilantes who escaped justice Historian Mary Ella Engel adopts a different approach arguing that the mob violence against Standing was a local event best understood at the local level Her examination of Standing s murder carefully situates it in the disquiet created by missionaries successes in the North Georgia community As Georgia converts typically abandoned the state for Mormon colonies in the West a disquiet situated within a wider narrative of post Reconstruction Mormon outmigration to colonies in the West In this rich context the murder reveals the complex social relationships that linked North Georgians families kin neighbors and coreligionists and illuminates how mob violence attempted to resolve the psychological dissonance and gender anxieties created by Mormon missionaries In laying bare the bonds linking Georgia converts to the mob Engel reveals Standing s murder as more than simply mountain lawlessness or religious persecution Rather the murder responds to the challenges posed by the separation of converts from their loved ones especially the separation of women and their dependents from heads of households
