An Introduction to the Study of Society Adhar Chandra Das, 1972 The present book is an attempt to analyse social concepts and trace their origin and development with particular reference to man as a member of his family caste group social institutions and organizations In presenting this analysis the author has followed the latest method of philosophers who interpret philosophy by the help of history including the study of society through all stages of its growth The study fully documented with the critical apparatus general index and foot notes is designed to meet a long felt need of the reader including the serious students of the subject at the Honours and post graduate levels

The Science of Meditation Rohit Mehta, 1995-05-31 Coming in the wake of his earlier books Yoga The Art of Integration and The Nameless Experience which dwelt on the philosophy and psychology of Meditation this work treats the subject from a purely practical standpoint The theme of Meditation is discussed in terms of the three main constituents namely the Brain the Habit mechanism and the Mind The revitalisation the modification and the transformation of the triad respectively would usher in the wholeness of spiritual life In passing the book discusses the way of spontaneous awakening of Kundalini the biological energy the human body contains which no longer the author avers requires any Hatha Yoga practice or the guidance of an expert It is sincerely hoped that a practical treatment of the subject of meditation will help man to lead a healthy and creative life amidst his baffling psychological life

Student's Course in Characterology Leander Hamilton McCormick, 1921

Shapes George Siede, 1992 Simple verses and colorful photographs show the shapes of many familiar objects

Light on the Path Osho, 2023-08-17 The first thing for a patient to go to the doctor you must make him realize that he is sick otherwise there is no need to go to the doctor So the people you want to encourage into meditation first you have to make them aware that they are frustrated perhaps for so long that they have forgotten that they are sad They cannot remember when they laughed from their very hearts They have become robots they do things because they have to be done but there is no joy in doing them

The Mind Club Daniel M. Wegner, Kurt Gray, 2017-03-21 Compelling and so beautifully written The Mind Club deftly brings the most up to date research about other minds to readers of all backgrounds It may cause you to think differently about crime and punishment about business transactions and health care and even about the upcoming elections Things might just start looking up The Wall Street Journal From dogs to gods the science of understanding mysterious minds including your own Nothing seems more real than the minds of other people When you consider what your boss is thinking or whether your spouse is happy you are admitting them into the mind club It's easy to assume other humans can think and feel but what about a cow a computer a corporation What kinds of mind do they have Daniel M Wegner and Kurt Gray are award winning psychologists who have discovered that minds while incredibly important are a matter of perception Their research opens a trove of new findings with insights into human behavior that are fascinating frightening and funny The Mind Club explains why we love some animals and eat others why people debate the existence of God so intensely how good people can be so cruel and why robots make such poor lovers By investigating the mind perception of extraordinary targets animals machines comatose people god Wegner and Gray explain what it means to have a mind and why it matters so much Fusing cutting edge research and personal anecdotes The Mind Club explores the moral dimensions of mind perception with wit and compassion revealing the surprisingly simple basis for what compels us to love and hate to harm and to protect
