Successful Online Learning Theresa Brosche, Michelle Feavel, 2011 Successful Online Learning Managing the Online Learning Environment Efficiently and Effectively is a neccessary resource for students who are new to the online learning environment or for students who are already in the online learning environment and are seeking additional strategies or tips to help them manage the online environment more effectively This handbook includes real life scenarios effective strategies tips for success and a checklist at the end of each chapter to assist students to function efficiently and effectively in the online learning environment Intermediaries in Commercial Law Paul S Davies, Tan Cheng-Han SC, 2022-09-08 This book is the first to examine intermediaries in a holistic and systematic manner The classical model of face to face contracting between two individuals is no longer dominant Instead deals frequently involve a number of parties often acting through intermediaries As a result it is important to understand the role and power of intermediaries Intermediaries tend to be considered within discrete silos of the law But by focussing upon a particular narrow area of law lessons are not learned from analogous situations This book takes a broader approach and looks across the traditional boundaries of private law in order to gain a proper assessment of the role played by intermediaries A wide range of jurisdictions and topical issues are discussed in order to illuminate the role intermediaries play in commercial law For example the continued growth of electronic commerce requires consideration of the role of websites and other platforms as intermediaries And developments in artificial intelligence raise the prospect of intermediaries being non human actors All these issues are subject to rigorous analysis by the expert contributors to this book Cross-cultural Communication Thomas Warren, 2017-03-02 Cross Cultural Communication is a collection of essays that examines how practitioners can improve the acceptance of their documentation when communicating to cultures other than their own. The essays begin by examining the cross cultural issues relating to quality in documentation. From there the essays look at examples of common documents analysing them from several perspectives. Specifically the author uses communication theories such as Bernstein's Elaborated and Restricted Code theory and Marwell and Schmidt's Compliance Gaining theory to show how documents used by readers who are not native speakers of English can be written and organized to increase their effectiveness. The principal assumption about how practitioners create their documents is that while large organizations can afford to write, translate and then localize, small to medium size organizations produce many documents that are used directly by people in other cultures often without translating and localizing. The advantage the writer gains from these essays is in understanding the strategies and knowing the kinds of strategies to apply in specific situations. In addition the essays can serve as a valuable resource for students and teachers alike as they determine ways to understand how cross cultural communication is different and why it makes a difference. Not only do students need to be aware of the various strategies they may apply when creating documents for cross cultural settings they also need to see how research can apply theories from different areas in the case of these essays: communication and rhetorical theories. Another value of the essays is to show the students the role standards play in cross cultural communication: standards are written by committees that follow style rules developed by the International Standardization Organization in Geneva. Thus both students and practitioners can find valuable cross cultural communication advice in these essays NJN Instructional Resource Manual, K-12, 1990 Translating Texts Brian Baer, Christopher Mellinger, 2019-11-22 Clear and accessible this textbook provides a step by step guide to textual analysis for beginning translators and translation students.
