From Jack Johnson to LeBron James Chris Lamb, 2016-01-01 A collection of essays about the intersection of sports race and the media in the 20th century and beyond Black Celebrity Emily Ruth Rutter, 2021-11-22 Black Celebrity examines representations of postbellum black athletes and artist entertainers by novelists Caryl Phillips and Jeffery Renard Allen and poets Kevin Young Frank X Walker Adrian Matejka and Tyehimba Jess Inhabiting the perspectives of boxer Jack Johnson and musicians Blind Tom Wiggins and Sissieretta Jones along with several others these writers retrain readers attention away from athletes and entertainers overdetermined bodies and toward their complex inner lives Phillips Allen Young Walker Matejka and Jess especially plumb the emotional archive of desire anxiety pain and defiance engendered by the racial hypervisibility and depersonalization that has long characterized black stardom In the process these novelists and poets and in turn the present book revise understandings of black celebrity history while evincing the through lines between the postbellum era and our own time Race in Sports Media Coverage Duchess Harris, Jill C. Wheeler, 2018-12-15 Race in Sports Media Coverage looks at how and why athletes of color are covered much differently than their white counterparts Breaking down stereotypes and creating opportunities for journalists of color are just two of the important topics discussed Features include a glossary references websites source notes and an index Aligned to Common Core Standards and correlated to state standards Essential Library is an imprint of Abdo Publishing a division of ABDO Stolen Dreams Chris Lamb, 2022-04 The story of the Cannon Street YMCA All Stars and the civil rights movement Strategic Sport Communication Paul M. Pedersen, Pamela C. Laucella, Edward Kian, Andrea N. Geurin, 2024-04-29 Strategic Sport Communication explores the multifaceted segment of sport communication This text presents a standard framework that introduces readers to the many ways in which individuals media outlets and sport organizations work to create disseminate and manage messages to their constituents Reimagining the Gendering of Sport Vikki Krane, Tanya Prewitt-White, 2025-09-10 Reimagining the Gendering of Sport highlights the increasing public attention women s sport is receiving whilst examining the challenges that female athletes continue to face The book provides a critical assessment of areas where reform is needed and presents creative reimaginings of a more equitable sporting world Strategic Sport Communication Paul Mark Pedersen, Pamela C. Laucella, Edward Kian, Andrea N. Geurin, 2021 This book explores the multifaceted segment of sport communication This text presents a standard framework that introduces readers to the many ways in which individuals media outlets and sport organizations work to create disseminate and manage messages to their constituents Black Stats Matter Philip Lee, 2023-08-15 For more than half a century Black baseball players barred from the Major Leagues by systemic racism competed in leagues of their own This book re interprets the history of race in baseball from the ground up It tells the story of how the Major Leagues became the Caucasian Leagues and names the person most responsible for their segregation showing how Major League owners and executives tried to delay and even

prevent integration and proving using a broad range of methods that Negro League players were every inch the equals of their Major League counterparts Cherished records held by white players since the days of segregation are shown to belong rightfully to Negro League superstars This book takes a fresh look at a subject that s both straight from today s headlines and as old as baseball itself When the Babe Went Back to Boston Bob LeMoine,2023-03-24 Babe Ruth was 40 and flabby in 1935 His days as a strapping fearsome home run hitter were behind him Baseball had flourished into big business through Ruth s swing and swag and didn t need him anymore His dream was to become a manager but the New York Yankees a dynasty he helped build were not interested But someone wanted him Judge Emil Fuchs luckless president of the Boston Braves had lost a fortune on his perpetually losing team Desperate to save the club from collapse he needed Babe Ruth not the fading slugger but the most famous brand on the planet This book chronicles the Ruth and Fuchs partnership during a perplexing 1935 season with the 38 115 Braves truly one of the worst baseball teams in history along with Ruth s final games back in the city where he debuted Looking at the Stars Carrie Teresa,2019-06-01 As early as 1900 when moving picture and recording technologies began to bolster entertainment based leisure markets journalists catapulted entertainers to godlike status heralding their achievements as paragons of American self determination Not surprisingly mainstream newspapers failed to cover black entertainers whose inherent inferiority precluded them from achieving such high cultural status Yet those same celebrities came alive in the pages of black press publications written by and for members of urban black communities In Looking at the Stars Carrie Teresa explores the meaning of celebrity as expressed by black journalists writing against the backdrop of Jim Crow era segregation Teresa argues that journalists and editors working for these black centered publications rather than simply mimicking the reporting conventions of mainstream journalism instead framed celebrities as collective representations of the race who were then used to symbolize the cultural value of artistic expression influenced by the black diaspora and to promote political activism through entertainment The social conscience that many contemporary entertainers of color exhibit today arguably derives from the way black press journalists once conceptualized the symbolic role of celebrity as a tool in the fight against segregation Based on a discourse analysis of the entertainment content of the period s most widely read black press newspapers Looking at the Stars takes into account both the institutional perspectives and the discursive strategies used in the selection and framing of black celebrities in the context of Jim Crowism Sport Marketing Bernard J. Mullin,Stephen Hardy,William A. Identity and African American Men Kenneth Maurice Tyler,2014-07-16 Kenneth Maurice Tyler identifies and describes the multiple identity components of young African American men using theoretical and empirical literatures from education and the social sciences Identity and African American Men Exploring the Content of Our Characterization provides a comprehensive research based account of the ideologies and mindsets of many young African American men The book critically discusses eight identity components that young African American men begin to negotiate during their adolescent years. These identity components include gender, sexual, racial, ethnic, cultural, socioeconomic, athletic, and academic identity. Identity and African American Men makes a unique contribution to the literature by offering a conceptual framework that identifies the multiple identity components possessed by young African American men. Such a framework expands the conversation about African American men and their behaviors by broadening the understanding of who these individuals are, the identities they possess, and how their identity-based attitudes and orientations may influence the behaviors exhibited by them.

A Locker Room of Her Own David C. Ogden, Joel Nathan Rosen, 2013-06-03 Female athletes are too often perceived as interlopers in the historically male-dominated world of sports. Obstacles specific to women are of particular focus in A Locker Room of Her Own. Race, sexual orientation, and the similar qualities ancillary to gender bear special exploration in how they impact an athlete's story. Central to this volume is the contention that women in their role as inherent outsiders are placed in a unique position even more complicated than the usual experiences of inequality and discord associated with race and sports. The contributors explore and critique the notion that in order to be considered among the pantheon of athletic heroes, one cannot deviate from the traditional demographic profile of the white male. These essays look specifically and critically at the nature of gender and sexuality within the contested nexus of race, reputation, and sport. The collection explores the reputations of iconic and pioneering sports figures and the cultural and social forces that helped to forge their unique and often problematic legacies. Women athletes discussed in this volume include Babe Didrikson Zaharias, the women of the AAGPBL, Billie Jean King, Venus and Serena Williams, Marion Jones, Chris Evert, and Martina Navratilova. Sheryl Swoopes, Florence Griffith Joyner, Roberta Gibb, and Kathrine Switzer, and Danica Patrick.

Communication and Sport Andrew C. Billings, Michael L. Butterworth, Paul D. Turman, 2014-03-24 The Second Edition of Communication and Sport: Surveying the Field offers the most comprehensive and diverse approach to the study of communication and sport available at the undergraduate level.
