

A photograph of a ceramics workshop. In the foreground, there is a workbench covered with various pieces of broken and unfinished ceramic ware, including a large white bowl, a brownish-red bowl, and several smaller fragments. A metal stand with a circular top is visible on the left. In the background, a large, light-colored ceramic wheel is partially visible on the left, and a dark, curved structure, possibly a kiln or a drying rack, is on the right. The overall scene is one of active ceramic production.
