A History of the United States from the Discovery of the American Continent to the Present Time. With a Full Account of the National Centennial Celebration Benson John Lossing, 1875      Shadowlands: A Journey Through Britain's Lost Cities and Vanished Villages Matthew Green, 2022-07-19 Beguiling Elizabeth Lowry Wall Street Journal A brilliant London historian BBC Radio tells the story of Britain as never before through its abandoned villages and towns Drowned Buried by sand Decimated by plague Plunged off a cliff This is the extraordinary tale of Britain's eerie and remarkable ghost towns and villages shadowlands that once hummed with life Peering through the cracks of history we find Dunwich a medieval city plunged off a cliff by sea storms the abandoned village of Wharram Percy wiped out by the Black Death the lost city of Trellech unearthed by moles in 2002 and a Norfolk village zombified by the military and turned into a Nazi Soviet and Afghan village for training Matthew Green a British historian and broadcaster tells the astonishing tales of the rise and demise of these places animating the people who lived worked dreamed and died there Traveling across Britain to explore their haunting and often beautiful remains Green transports the reader to these lost towns and cities as they teeter on the brink of oblivion vividly capturing the sounds of the sea clawing away row upon row of houses the taste of medieval wine or the sights of puffin hunting on the tallest cliffs in the country We experience them in their prime look on at their destruction and revisit their lingering remains as they are mourned by evictees and reimagined by artists writers and mavericks A stunning and original excavation of Britain's untold history Shadowlands gives us a truer sense of the progress and ravages of time in a moment when many of our own settlements are threatened as never before      Unwanted Christina Keim, 2025-06-10 Any horse but for a change of circumstances can become unwanted The unwanted are racetrack rejects excess ranch stock foals that did not live up to their breeder's expectations They are aged Amish cart horses horses with chronic lameness issues the pony a child outgrew They are show horses pleasure horses the pretty horses and the plain They come in all colors sizes and shapes The US equine industry consistently produces more horses each year than the number of appropriate homes leaving thousands of animals with nowhere to go Recently as many as 150 000 of these horses have shipped annually to equine slaughterhouses in Canada Mexico and abroad Others are sold at auction given away starved abused and abandoned Just over 1 000 rescues and municipal organizations across the country equipped to handle horses at risk report they are consistently close to or at capacity Most are stretched to the breaking point when it comes to finances material resources and human power Horsewoman and journalist Christina Keim a veteran of the equine industry believes the unwanted horse crisis urgently needs our collective voice and attention Solving it she suggests requires a sea change in the face of not just fundamental values and beliefs but also hard economic realities and deeply held cultural attitudes In her meticulously researched study of this devastatingly real and present problem so many choose to ignore she travels the country bringing readers to livestock auctions rescues and therapy centers describing work and life behind the scenes and the animals who find themselves there Keim interviews industry experts including veterinarians lawmakers welfare advocates and shelter workers and reviews published data to help separate unwanted horse facts from fantasy She works to dispel common myths and misconceptions surrounding the slaughter pipeline without taking away from the harsh reality horses face once in it And perhaps most importantly she showcases the work of many dedicated individuals and groups who are collectively helping to carve out a new niche for the horse that both honors his heritage and can help to preserve his future
