Open Secrets A Poor Persons Life In Higher Education:

Black Women's Mental Health Stephanie Y. Evans, Kanika Bell, Nsenga K. Burton, 2017-06-01 Creates a new framework for approaching Black women's wellness by merging theory and practice with both personal narratives and public policy. This book offers a unique interdisciplinary and thoughtful look at the challenges and potency of Black women's struggle for inner peace and mental stability. It brings together contributors from psychology, sociology, law, and medicine, as well as the humanities, to discuss issues ranging from stress, sexual assault, healing, self-care, and contemplative practice to health policy considerations and parenting. Merging theory and practice with personal narratives and public policy, the book develops a new framework for approaching Black women's wellness in order to provide tangible solutions. The collection reflects feminist praxis and defines womanist peace in terms that reject both superwoman stereotypes and victim caricatures. Also included for health professionals are concrete recommendations for understanding and treating Black women. This book speaks not only to Black women but also educates a broader audience of policymakers and therapists about the complex and multilayered realities that we must navigate and the protests we must mount on our journey to find inner peace and optimal health. Foreword by Linda Goler Blount.

Black Women's Yoga History Stephanie Y. Evans, 2021-03-01 How have Black women elders managed stress? In Black Women's Yoga History, Stephanie Y. Evans uses primary sources to answer that question and to show how meditation and yoga from eras of enslavement, segregation, and migration to the Civil Rights, Black Power, and New Age movements have been in existence all along. Life writings by Harriet Jacobs, Sadie and Bessie Delany, Eartha Kitt, Rosa Parks, Jan Willis, and Tina Turner are only a few examples of personal case studies that are included here, illustrating how these women managed traumatic stress, anxiety, and depression. In more than fifty yoga memoirs, Black women discuss practices of reflection, exercise, movement, stretching, visualization, and chanting for self-care. By unveiling the depth of a struggle for wellness, memoirs offer lessons for those who also struggle to heal from personal, cultural, and structural violence. This intellectual history expands conceptions of yoga and defines inner peace as mental health, healing, and wellness that is both compassionate and political.

powerful transformation and help you achieve personal and business success European Higher Education Area: The Impact of Past and Future Policies Adrian Curaj, Ligia Deca, Remus Pricopie, 2018-07-03 This volume presents the major outcomes of the third edition of the Future of Higher Education Bologna Process Researchers Conference FOHE BPRC 3 which was held on 27-29 November 2017. It acknowledges the importance of a continued dialogue between researchers and decision makers and benefits from the experience already acquired this way enabling the higher education community to bring its input into the 2018-2020 European Higher Education Area EHEA priorities. The Future of Higher Education Bologna Process Researchers Conference FOHE BPRC has already established itself as a landmark in the European higher education environment. The two previous editions 17-19 October 2011 24-26 November 2014 with approximately 200 European and international participants each covering more than 50 countries each were organized prior to the Ministerial Conferences thus encouraging a consistent dialogue between researchers and policy makers. The main conclusions of the FOHE Conferences were presented at the EHEA Ministerial Conferences 2012 and 2015 in order to make the voice of researchers better heard by European policy and decision makers. This volume is dedicated to continuing the collection of evidence and research based policymaking and further narrowing the gap between policy and research within the EHEA and broader global contexts. It aims to identify the research areas that require more attention prior to the anniversary 2020 EHEA Ministerial Conference with an emphasis on the new issues on rise in the academic and educational community. This book gives a platform for discussion on key issues between researchers various direct higher education actors decision makers and the wider public. Cone, 2018-02-22 This textbook provides complete and comprehensive coverage of the theological tradition of Aquinas Maximus Luther Irenaeus Lonergan von Balthasar Schmemmann Meyendorf and Barth. Each section of this textbook explores a wide variety of questions who are we? Is there a God and if so what is his nature? Who is Jesus? What does it mean that we live both in sin and righteousness? It consists of 15 modules that are comprised of 46 chapters. Each module has two parts: there are systematic chapters that discuss and explain each module's topic and the final chapter of each module examines 4 to 6 primary sources that are important for each topic. This textbook includes an extensive range of pedagogical features: Sample tests in which each objective question has been quality tested by classroom use with a discrimination index. A discussion guide for each chapter. Learning objectives linked to each chapter. The text includes bold faced terms boxed text sections that identify central figures and points of debate study question chapter summaries glossary The Congregationalist, 1919 Crash Course H. Bruce Franklin, 2018-09-03 Growing up during the Second World War H. Bruce Franklin believed what he was told that America's victory would lead to a new era of world peace. Like most Americans he was soon led to believe in a world wide Communist conspiracy that menaced the United States forcing the nation into a disastrous war in Korea But once he joined the U S Air Force and began flying top secret missions as a navigator and intelligence officer what he learned was eye opening He saw that even as the U S preached about peace and freedom it was engaging in an endless cycle of warfare bringing devastation and oppression to fledgling democracies across the globe Now after fifty years as a renowned cultural historian Franklin offers a set of hard learned lessons about modern American history Crash Course is essential reading for anyone who wonders how America ended up where it is today with a deeply divided and disillusioned populace led by a dysfunctional government and mired in unwinnable wars It also finds startling parallels between America s foreign military exploits and the equally brutal tactics used on the home front to crush organized labor antiwar and civil rights movements More than just a memoir or a history book Crash Course gives readers a unique firsthand look at the building of the American empire and the damage it has wrought Shocking and gripping as any thriller it exposes the endless deception of the American public and reveals from inside how and why many millions of Americans have been struggling for decades against our own government in a fight for peace and justice

The Social Construction of Educational Leadership Anna Hicks McFadden,Penny Smith,2004 Most historical and theoretical work on school administration choice has focused on the importance of race and class with increased attention to gender during the past two decades Rarely has geography been a consideration and when it appears at all it is used only to distinguish the unique conditions of urban school settings The Social Construction of Educational Leadership Southern Appalachian Ceilings addresses decisions about who is chosen to lead public schools and how they do it Using their research on senior level public school leaders in the southern mountains of North Carolina as a representative case study the authors construct an argument for a reconsideration of the role of place both in decisions about who becomes a school leader and in how those leaders behave professionally The authors describe the changes in a leadership system grounded in race class geographic and gender preferences that dating back to colonial systems of deference describing the pattern of those changes and exploring their implications for school leadership and the preparation of prospective leaders in the region and elsewhere

Inherited Inequality Christina J. Cross,2025-09-16 Christina Cross decisively refutes culture of poverty narratives blaming family structure for persistent racial inequality Marshaling extensive longitudinal data Cross shows that Black kids raised in two parent homes still fare worse than white counterparts inviting a wholesale rethinking of the logics underlying US social welfare policy
