

SHORT OPENING PRAYER FOR FUNERAL

“Dear God,

Thank You for putting Your Son as an everlasting example of eternal life even after death. As we gather here today to celebrate the life of our deceased dear one, (say their name), we welcome Your Holy Spirit to walk with us and strengthen our hearts.

Even as we mourn, may You cover our entire family with the blood of Jesus Christ and grant us the courage to face life after loss.

Thank You, Father, for hearing us.

Amen”

Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P.J. Sheppy, 2017-07-05 Death Liturgy and Ritual is a two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice presenting an invaluable account of funeral rites and the central issues involved for compilers and users Paul Sheppy writes from direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume II A Commentary on Liturgical Texts reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church's concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased The companion volume Volume I A Pastoral and Liturgical Theology proposes that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study Sheppy argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus' death descent to the dead and resurrection Using the three phases of van Gennep's theory of rites of passage the author shows how the Easter triduum may be seen as normative for Christian liturgies of death

Finding Your Niche & Maintaining Your Pastoral Poise Rev. RK Shorter, 2020-12-21 In any new journey there is always the unknown factor and one can never be completely prepared for every situation There are however some shortcuts and advantages that are available if a person knows where to look One of the greatest places to find those precious gold nuggets and priceless tidbits of treasure is in the knowledge offered by an experienced friend or colleague This goes double for ministers and pastors that are involved in ministry in today's environment Every day there are many men and women answering God's call to ministry without a clear and established pathway that will direct them after they have stepped into their calling or into their churches They may undergo a formal and organized process but still may not have or be given the necessary tools to handle many of the situations that will be facing them in real life ministry Any pastor or minister should be willing to concede that finding their way by the seat of their pants was very uncomfortable and should be avoided by any means if possible The best advice comes from a trusted friend or colleague that is willing to share from their own experiences and include the good and the not so good There is no better classroom found that beats experienced and wise counsel This work is designed to offer some helpful insight to those brave men and women known as ministers and pastors This work may benefit any church or church member that is interested in better understanding the daily life of that individual they call their pastor This work is intended to positively impact the lives of those who will follow in ministry and help them to have a better perspective of what they may face as they fulfill the call
