

God of majesty,
you sent the Holy Spirit upon your apostles
as they were joined in prayer with Mary,
the mother of Jesus;
grant through her intercession
that we may serve you faithfully
and, by word and example, spread the glory of your name
throughout the world.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Liturgical Time and Space Anscar J. Chupungco, 2000 The final volume in the Handbook for Liturgical Studies series Volume V Liturgical Time and Space contains the concluding material for an integral study of the liturgy It opens with a preliminary notion of time and space before discussing in detail three types of liturgical celebrations on which time and space have a direct and particular bearing. The first of these is the Liturgy of the Hours. This topic is developed in the light of the early Christian tradition until the fourth century and its subsequent forms in both East and West. The second is the Liturgical Year traditionally called the anni circulas. The development of the Liturgical Year during the first four centuries is reviewed. This is followed by a detailed study of the Byzantine, Roman and non-Roman Western tradition. It concludes with the theology and spirituality of the Liturgical Year wherein the mystery of Christ as a saving event is made present in time so that the faithful may lay hold of it through the Word and the sacraments. The theology of liturgical space is drawn from the mutual interaction between the assembled community which gives meaning to the place of assembly and the place itself which upholds and signifies community.

500 Prayers for the Christian Year David Clowes, 2020-10-01. The third in the series of popular 500 Prayers books with prayers based on the Bible readings for every Sunday plus major holidays such as Christmas, Easter and so forth. 500 Prayers for the Christian Year provides an invaluable resource for Churches and individuals for both corporate and personal worship. Based on the Lectionary, it includes a full set of Scripture readings for each Sunday of all three years. Every Sunday features a prayer of preparation that coincides with the psalm for that day, with prayers of praise, confession and intercession around the other scheduled Bible readings. Designed with flexibility in mind, each prayer can be used individually or as a set for the day.
