ASRT monitors legislation daily that affects radiologic technologists in North Carolina and across the country. NCSRT was alerted to HB 218, (Save Act) (see link below). This bill, as written would allow registered nurses to order, perform, supervise, and interpret medical imaging and radiation therapy procedures. ASRT sent a letter to the chair of the committee and sponsor requesting the Language is amended (attached). NCSRT need all of our members to contact the chair of the committee, Kristin Baker and the sponsor of this bill, Representative Donna White, to ask them to exclude procedures using medical imaging and radiation therapy. The following links explain the specific concerns we want you to address when email or speaking to the legislators.
