was written and read during a golden age of English preaching The poem describes a world where sermons took many different forms and were delivered in many different contexts from public events in the life of the realm to pastoral instruction in the parish It dramatises preaching as part of its allegorical action showing how sermons shaped their listeners understanding of the world it also includes polemical critique of corrupt self interested preaching and offers radical prescriptions for its reform This book argues that Langland s central insight into the way that sermons moved and engaged their audiences had to do with their characteristic use of narrative Preachers in the poem address listeners who are absorbed in the concerns of their present moment and encourage them to new forms of social and spiritual endeavour by locating that moment in a larger interpreted plot the story of an individual life or an emergent community or of salvation history as a whole The book employs a critical vocabulary derived from Paul Ricoeur to describe the process by which these narratives are composed and to show how they mediate and reconfigure their listeners experiences      PC Mag ,1988-09-13 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology
