Subcommittee on Homeland Security, 2016 Indonesia's Failure in Papua Emir Chairullah, 2021-12-28 Chairullah investigates how the political social and economic interests of national and local elites were negotiated in the formulation and early stages of Special Autonomy in Papua Province Indonesia The Papuan case lends support to the current conception of elite theory which considers the influence of actors and dynamics beyond power elites in the decision making process The failure of the policy implementation as a conflict reduction strategy in the Papuan case can be attributed to the dynamics of elite configurations during the negotiation and early implementation stages Chairullah presents two significant new findings for research on Papuan Special Autonomy Firstly that secret negotiations were held between Papuan and national elites during Abdurrahman Wahid's presidency and these were crucial in reducing separatist sentiment in Papua Secondly that the United States through Freeport McMoRan strongly influenced the Special Autonomy negotiation process The actions of national elites in Jakarta led to widespread disappointment about the policy at all levels in Papua and the subsequent escalation of separatist sentiment based on Papuan ethnic identity An important book for scholars of Indonesian politics and society and especially those with a particular interest in the Papuan conflict
