Media In Church And Mission Communicating The Gospel:

Media in Church and Mission: Viggo Sogaard, Viggo Sgaard, 2018-10-01 Although written before much of the revolution in digital media this book provides a lot of useful strategic input for those involved in media and Scripture Engagement

Media in Church and Mission Viggo Sogaard, 1998 Media in Church and Mission Viggo Sogaard, 2000

Research in Church and Mission Viggo Sogaard, 1996 Research in Church and Mission is insightful practical and full of examples In the three distinctive sections of the book the author 1 imbeds his explanation of the why and how of research in a model of communication 2 shows us how research is fueled by what we need to know and 3 demands that research be driven by those who manage or carry out the communication process Media Viggo Sogaard, 1992 Media in Church and Mission Viggo Sogaard, Viggo Sogaard, 1993 Summarizing the Dimensions of Christian Communication Too many today are borrowing uncritically from the world of secular marketing and seem to be blithely unaware that the gospel is not a consumer product to be sold persuasively to a waiting world There is a great temptation to be so focused on felt needs that the gospel ceases being the narrow way and becomes instead a broad way to human fulfillment Unless real caution is exercised masses are attracted and churches become filled with those to whom Christianity is only a veneer over an otherwise secular life S gaard succeeds in driving home the sometimes forgotten point that strategies no matter how skillfully they are conceived are destined to failure unless it is fully recognized that the Holy Spirit is the ultimate persuader There is in short a mysterious interworking between strategies and the ministry of the Holy Spirit An imbalance on either side of this equation is untenable The majority of the chapters offer practical insights into how such media as audio cassettes radio film and television can if properly used play an important role in conversion and spiritual growth But the author never loses sight of the fact that the single most important medium is face to face communication in the context of the local Christian fellowship The Church in Poland in the Mirror of the Press , Digital Media and Youth Discipleship Vo Huong Nam, 2023-06-30 Today s youth grow up immersed in digital technology This presents a unique challenge to the church as it seeks to faithfully make disciples of the next generation What does it look like theologically and practically to minister contextually to those whose lives are permeated by social media and digital culture In this in depth study Dr Vo Huong Nam offers both social and theological insight into the task of discipling youth in the digital age He examines the impact of digital media on both society and young people and offers an overview of Christian responses to the changing technological landscape Engaging such authors as John Calvin Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Henri Nouwen he develops a constructive theology of spiritual formation relevant to the context of twenty first century youth He explores the implications of this theology on church practice urging the church to take seriously its call to be all things for all people Drawing specific examples from youth ministry in Vietnam he addresses practical questions of application and contextualization and suggests that silence solitude and prayer are spiritual disciplines uniquely vital for the digital age This book is an important resource for all those involved in discipling young people and longing to see today's youth come to fullness of life in Christ

The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students

The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture

The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024-11-05 Christianity has long been associated with the West often creating a disjunction affecting the understanding of the essence of the gospel The Asianization of Christianity is a clarion call by Asian Christian leaders for the gospel to be indigenized by encouraging practitioners to seriously engage with both the Bible and the cultures of Asia The book demonstrates that both the theology and the presentation of the gospel need to be framed according to the mindset of the respective Asian cultures so that the message of the Bible can be understood and accepted Case studies on evangelism church and training models from several Asian nations are explored Core issues such as culture communication and contextualization underpin the practical cases to give depth and clarity for the effective communication of the gospel

Church Planting in Europe Evert Van de Poll, Joanne Appleton, 2015-05-28 Church leaders and those who endeavor to plant new churches in Europe today face tremendous challenges not least because the church itself is considered by many to be outdated irrelevant or even an abusive sect Drawing on a wealth of experience Church Planting in Europe helps to answer the question of how churches can become more relevant to the societies in which they exist From biblical and missiological reflections to case studies and practical examples the book gives insights into many of the key issues that church planters and those concerned with missionary renewal of existing churches are grappling with Special attention is paid to the sociocultural and religious characteristics of Europe which is marked by secularization new forms of spirituality and a unique Christian heritage asking what are typical barriers and bridges for the communication of the gospel The contributors represent a wide variety of backgrounds and contexts across Europe and this is reflected in the breadth of topics covered The chapters were presented during the Mission in Europe Symposium in Belgium July 2014 and the highlights of the discussions afterwards are also included The result is a valuable resource for church leaders mission practitioners and theologians alike Receptor-Oriented Communication for Hui Muslims in China Enoch Jinsik Kim, 2018-04-18 There are many books that highlight the need and importance of mission toward unreached people Unfortunately few of them deal with the importance of understanding the real life of unreached people and how to analyze them This book identifies conceptual issues for the development of receptor oriented communication strategies among young educated urban Hui YEU Hui Muslims in China s northwestern cities in order to achieve culturally relevant churches in those areas It is written to help not only those who are interested in the unreached but also those who are interested in Muslim evangelism urban sociology biblical exegesis contextual church planting communication and mission strategy Enoch Jinsik Kim utilizes a new approach virtual community mission for planting offline churches that integrates the use of local church driven Internet community traditional media and offline task teams from a multi ethnic local church While the research focuses on the Chinese Muslim context the identification of the young urban and educated as a strategic group for mission can be applied in other Muslim and non Muslim contexts This research is useful to cross cultural communicators church planters and all those interested in interpersonal relationships Introduction to Missiological Research Design Edgar J. Elliston, 2011-06-27 Edgar Elliston s Introduction to Missiological Research Design outlines the basic issues of research design for missiological and church related research This book describes the logic of the research process for a wide range of missiological research Whether this research is from a single academic discipline or a multidisciplinary approach this text will provide relevant guidelines for the design Elliston provides instruction examples and exercises for inexperienced but serious researchers as they seek to design research that will serve the Church in mission Elliston also provides experienced researchers with checklists and easy to review tables to further aid in research design This text raises some of the key issues to designing research in a multicultural or cross cultural context and guides researchers toward ethical and effective study Paul the Missionary Eckhard J. Schnabel, 2010-01-28 Drawing on his monumental scholarly study Early Christian Mission Volume 2 Eckhard J Schnabel s gives us an overview of Paul s missionary practices strategies and methods and then weighs contemporary evangelical missiology and practice in light of Paul Missions amidst Pagodas Peter Thein Nyunt, 2014-05-14 For almost 200 years Protestant missionaries have endeavoured to communicate the gospel to Burmese Buddhists in Myanmar However Christianity among this people group is still regarded as a potted plant with former Buddhists being separated from both their community and culture In this publication Peter Thein Nyunt a former Buddhist monk examines past and current approaches of the Protestant church among Burmese Buddhists Based on his findings the author develops a contextual missiological strategy with a relevant christological message and ecclesiological structure St. Luke's Missiology Harold E. Dollar, 1996-06-01 This book touches on the fundamental contributions of Luke's two volume work revealing how a small Jewish sect became a worldwide movement in one generation. It recognizes the essential unity of Luke's Acts by showing how Luke prepares for the book of Acts. Luke's story of how the gospel moves from the particular to the universal gives insights on the missiological dynamics of early Christianity and provides models for the church and missions today Witnessing to Christ Today Daryl M. Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century. Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh. Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions. These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century. The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010: witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide. Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010. There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world Comprehending Mission: The Questions, Methods, Themes, Problems, and Prospects of Missiology Stanley H. Skreslet (II.), 2012 Stanley H. Skreslet offers an inviting new proposal for conceptualizing the field of missiology. Comprehending Mission includes a concise overview of the development of missiology of the last century, introducing its characteristic methodologies and offering insight into the kinds of questions missiologists typically ask. In the last hundred years, missiology has moved from emphasizing the practical challenges of foreign mission service to highlighting the intercultural aspects of Christian outreach. Today, missiology is less a form of practical theology than a field of study where theological concerns intersect with critical studies undertaken by anthropologists, historians, and other scholars Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience. News travels around the world in a split second, affecting people in other countries in untold ways. Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies, mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof, condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites, and often ignores the essence of an event or story. The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author, title, and subject indexes.
