Moderne Kunst In Afrika:

Moderne Kunst aus Afrika Sabine Hollburg, 1979 A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami, Monica Blackmun Visona, 2013-10-22 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art The Idea of Africa V. Y. Mudimbe, 1994-11-22 this is a remarkable book It will occupy a significant place in the critical literature of African Studies International Journal of African Historical Studies To read Mudimbe is to walk through a museum of many exhibits in the company of an erudite companion who explains with much learned commentary what you are seeing American Anthropologist Mudimbe s sympathetic yet rigorous accounts of such diverse Africanist discourses as Herskovits s cultural relativism and contemporary Afrocentricity bring to the surface the underlying goals and contexts in which these were produced Ivan Karp A sequel to his highly acclaimed The Invention of Africa this is V Y Mudimbe s exploration of how the idea of Africa was constructed by the Western world Irma Stern and the Racial Paradox of South African Modern Art LaNitra M. Berger, 2020-11-12 South African artist Irma Stern 1894 1966 is one of the nation s most enigmatic modern figures Stern held conservative political positions on race even as her subjects openly challenged racism and later the apartheid regime Using paintings archival research and new interviews this book explores how Stern became South Africa s most prolific painter of Black Jewish and Colored mixed race life while maintaining controversial positions on race Through her art Stern played a crucial role in both the development of modernism in South Africa and in defining modernism as a global movement Spanning the Boer War to Nazi Germany to apartheid South Africa and into the contemporary RhodesMustFall movement Irma Stern s work documents important twentieth century cultural and political moments More than fifty years after her death Stern s legacy challenges assumptions about race gender roles and religious identity and how they are represented in art history Africa Since 1935 Unesco. International Scientific Committee for the Drafting of a General History of Africa, 1999 The hardcover edition of volume 8 was published in 1994 This paperback edition is the eighth and final volume to be published in the UNESCO General History of Africa Volume 8 examines the period from 1935 to the present and details the role of African states in the Second World War and the rise of postwar Africa This is one of the most important books in the entire series and as such it is an unabridged paperback Africa Remix Simon Njami, 2007 Africa remix Contemporary art of a continent features the work of more than 85 artists from 25 countries on the African continent and the Diaspora Catalog of the Library of the National Museum of African Art Branch of the Smithsonian wide range of ethnographic studies on local spiritual and media practices Recognizing that processes of globalization are shaped by mass mediation the volume raises questions such as How are media like photography cinema video the telephone or television integrated in seances and healing rituals How do spirit mediums connect with these media Why are certain technical media shunned in these contexts The Routledge Companion to Expressionism in a Transnational Context Isabel Wünsche, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Companion to Expressionism in a Transnational Context is a challenging exploration of the transnational formation dissemination and transformation of expressionism outside of the German speaking world in regions such as Central and Eastern Europe the Baltics and Scandinavia Western and Southern Europe North and Latin America and South Africa in the first half of the twentieth century Comprising a series of essays by an international group of scholars in the fields of art history and literary and cultural studies the volume addresses the intellectual discussions and artistic developments arising in the context of the expressionist movement in the various art centers and cultural regions The authors also examine the implications of expressionism in artistic practice and its influence on modern and contemporary cultural production Essential for an in depth understanding and discussion of expressionism this volume opens up new perspectives on developments in the visual arts of this period and challenges the traditional narratives that have predominantly focused on artistic styles and national movements Opera and Music Theatre Christine Matzke, Lena van der Hoven, Christopher Odhiambo, Hilde Roos, 2020 Compelling inside views of what characterises opera and music theatre in African and African diasporic contexts Living the City in Africa Brigit Obrist, Veit Arlt, Elisio Macamo, 2013 Research on cities worldwide still takes its cue from cities in Europe and the US which are seen as the standard model However cities in the global South are undergoing a much more rapid transformation including multiple interlinked transitions with Africa featuring the highest urbanization rates world wide Scholars therefore call for a new approach to urban studies which examines cities from a more global comparative perspective This book discusses the new approach which pays added attention to the role that societal creativity plays in processes of urbanization instead of concentrating exclusively on expert driven planning and intervention Especially in fast growing cities with weaker institutional capacity for interventions the interplay between intervention and invention between expert and societal agency becomes more tangible and all the more significant Series Swiss African Studies Schweizerische Afrikastudien Etudes africaines suisses Vol 10 Nigerian Artists Janet L. Stanley, 1993 From Bayreuth to Burkina Faso Sarah Hegenbart, 2022-11-30 Opera Village Africa a participatory art experiment by the late German multimedia artist Christoph Schlingensiefel serves as a testing ground for a critical interrogation of Richard Wagner's notion of the Gesamtkunstwerk Sarah Hegenbart traces the path from Wagner's introduction of the Gesamtkunstwerk in Bayreuth to Schlingensiefel's attempt to charge the idea of the total artwork with new meaning by transposing it to the West African country Burkina Faso Schlingensiefel developed Opera Village in collaboration with the world renowned architect Francis K r This final project of Schlingensiefel is inspired by and illuminates the diverse themes that informed his artistic practice including coming to terms with the German past anti-Semitism critical race theory and questions of postcolonial self criticism From Bayreuth to Burkina Faso introduces the notion of the postcolonial Gesamtkunstwerk to disrupt the Eurocentric perspective on art history exploring how the socio political force of a postcolonial Gesamtkunstwerk could affect processes of transcultural identity construction It reveals how Schlingensiefel translocated the Wagnerian concept to Burkina Faso to address German colonial history and engage with it from the perspective of multidirectional memory cultures

African Sculpture Speaks Ladislav Segy, 2018-12-05 PABLO PICASSO when the form is realized it is there to live its own life HENRY MOORE The sculpture which moves me most is full bodied and self supporting fully in the round giving out something of an energy and power of great mountains it has a life of its own independent of the object it represents African Art Speaks the first full appraisal of African art published in the United States describes and illustrates the sculpted works of more than 150 West African tribes Ladislav Segy approaches African art from several different but interrelated perspectives considering the sculptures first as products of a distinct African culture then as high quality works of art Seeking to bring the African carver's work within the scope of the Western observer Segy stresses the need for appraising African art within its own context suspending established procedures for art appreciation and viewing the object as it actually is not as we think it is or should be Bringing to bear the disciplines of aesthetics anthropology psychology and phenomenology Segy shows how the deep seated magico religious beliefs of the tribal carver creates such powerful emotional tension in his work that the viewer can recapture this emotion and identify it as part of his own experience This present edition is the Third Printing originally published in 1961 and provides a systematic Style Guide analyzing the characteristic features of the different styles of tribal sculpture A special chapter for the collector tells how to buy and care for African art Segy also discusses the styles of the main sculpture producing tribes in East and South Africa Included are maps a bibliography and a list of illustrations While much has been written about African sculpture within recent years Mr Segy's book is undoubtedly among the finest published in this country The San Francisco Chronicle

The 1972 Munich Olympics and the Making of Modern Germany Kay Schiller, Chris Young, 2010-08-03 The 1972 Munich Olympics were intended to showcase the New Germany and replace lingering memories of the Third Reich In this cultural and political history of the Munich Olympics the authors set these games into both the context of 1972 and the history of the modern Olympiad
