Styling South Asian Youth Cultures Lipi Begum, Rohit K. Dasgupta, Reina Lewis, 2018-07-30 For South Asia fashion and consumption have come to play an increasingly important role in the lives of young people and in the formation of youth cultures Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka have all in related and distinctive ways been producing confident young fashion

consumers who are proving to be an important market for fashion This book explores South Asian youth cultures and fashion across the countries of this region and their diasporas from a transnational perspective Through visual and textual analysis of film photography and digital cultures as well as ethnographic fieldwork the expert contributors look at how gender sexuality class the media and faith intersect with and style youth cultures By establishing the heterogeneous nature of South Asia and its youth cultures they also dismantle grand western narratives that tend to understand the region s diverse cultural modernity through the lens of homogeneity Reading Marie al-Khazen's Photographs Yasmine Nachabe Taan,2020-11-26

The Lebanese photographer Marie al Khazen seized every opportunity to use her camera during the years that she was active between 1920 and 1940 She not only documented her travels around tourist sites in Lebanon but also sought creative experimentation with her camera by staging scenes manipulating shadows and superimposing negatives to produce different effects in her prints Within her photographs bedouins and European friends peasants and landlords men and women comfortably share the same space Her photographs include an intriguing collection portraying her family and friends living their everyday lives in 1920s and 30s Zgharta a village in the north of Lebanon Yasmine Nachabe Taan explores these photographs emphasizing the ways in which notions of gender and class are inscribed within them and revealing how they are charged with symbols of women s emancipation to today s viewers through women s presence as individuals separate from family restrictions of that time Images in which women are depicted smoking cigarettes driving cars riding horses and accompanying men on hunting trips counteract the common ways in which women were portrayed in contemporary Lebanon

Wearing the Niqab Anna Piela,2021-01-14 Bringing niqab wearers voices to the fore discussing their narratives on religious agency identity social interaction community and urban spaces Anna Piela situates women s accounts firmly within UK and US socio political contexts as well as within media discourses on Islam The niqab has recently emerged as one of the most ubiquitous symbols of everything that is perceived to be wrong with Islam barbarity backwardness exploitation of women and political radicalization Yet all these notions are assigned to women who wear the niqab without their consultation niqab debates are held without their voices being heard and when they do speak their views are dismissed However the picture painted by the stories told here demonstrates that for these women religious symbols such as the niqab are deeply personal freely chosen multilayered and socially situated Wearing the Niqab gives voice to these women and their stories and sets the record straight enhancing understanding of the complex picture around niqab and religious identity and agency veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity

totemic symbols of post war ambition that impelled new strategies of state control and consumer agency The book examines the immediate post war period its politics its fashions and its people in new ways and on its own terms as a critical tipping point in the making of modern Britain Modern Egyptian Women, Fashion and Faith Amany
