anglais Judith Andreyev, 2016-09-15 Un récit d'aventures linguistiques Laure Anselme psychologue française apprend avec plaisir qu'elle est invitée à présenter son travail dans une conférence New York. Seulement la conférence se déroulera en anglais et elle est saisie de panique. L'idée de parler anglais en public elle ne se souvient plus d'aucune règle de grammaire elle prononce mal elle a peur de se rendre ridicule donc elle hésite. Mais plutôt que d'y renoncer elle décide de reprendre l'anglais zéro passant d'abord par des lectures la bibliothèque où elle se demande si la grammaire n'est peut-être qu'un roman ensuite par une école de langues bien sympathique mais dont le résultat laisse d'iriser et se confie la fin aux soins d'un professeur privé qui malgré sa manière farouche finit par l'aider surmonter ses angoisses et parler correctement. Cette fiction se déroule dans un contexte familial et social où chacun des personnages vit sa manière les conséquences souvent intimes de la migration anglaise. EXTRAIT Pour revenir l'anglais mais sans approfondir les raisons pour lesquelles d'ailleurs vous pouvez les deviner malgré des années d'analyse j'ai appelé ma mère en premier pour une grammaire anglaise ce que je voudrais souligner en premier lieu c'est que c'est tout de moi mon travail de psychothérapeute qui m'a permis de dire oui l'expérience redoutable d'affronter un public dans une langue que je ne parlais pas enfin que je ne parlais pas encore. C'est que les patients selon les cas et l'humour du moment je les appelle patients malades familles et moi-même mes fous ce dernier tant le plus gai surtout le plus universel et innocent constituent un tremplin formidable pour aller de l'avant to move on comme j'ai souvent entendu dire par les psychos américains. La preuve c'est que ce fut suite mes trois entretiens du matin le premier avec Anna 14 ans double sa sœur me fait des fugues parents alcooliques puis avec Frédéric 11 ans mère abusive père absent persécute son petit frère de 9 ans ne travaille pas l'école et pour finir la famille Denis couple insatisfait n'ont pas pu avoir d'autres enfants espèrent tout de leur fils Pascal 8 ans asthmatique comportement antisocial l'école que j'ai pris spontanément la décision d'accepter l'invitation de New York et c'est que c'est de reprendre l'anglais zéro. PROPOS DE L'AUTEUR Judith Andreyev n'est pas New York mais ayant fait de Paris sa ville adoptive est bien connue des élèves et étudiants comme l'auteure des ouvrages d'anglais devenus des classiques Journal ease et Say it with Style. Avec une carrière de trente ans dans l'enseignement tous les niveaux et pour tous les publics elle nous livre ici un mélange de faits et de fiction le tout parsemé de réflexions diverses et d'une transformation savoureuse des fautes d'anglais en fautes de français et vice versa Hommes et mondes, 1950
