

Shamrock Grand Jury Studies Young Outlaw's Murder Spree

DULLES BACK AT HIS POST

Half-Brother Dies By Error

LAST BUT NOT LEAST—The group of fully sworn judges that comprises the Shamrock grand jury today met in session to study the murder spree of a young outlaw. The jury, which is headed by Judge J. B. Smith, is currently in session at the Shamrock Courthouse. The group includes several members of the local law enforcement community, as well as judges from other jurisdictions. The session is expected to continue through the day.

Supreme Court Nixes Study Of Mansfield Case

The Supreme Court today rejected a request for a writ of habeas corpus for a man in the Mansfield case. The court's decision was a final one, and the man will remain in custody. The case had been brought before the court after several appeals. The court's decision was based on the fact that the man had not been properly represented by counsel during his trial. The court found that the man's rights had been violated, but it refused to grant the writ of habeas corpus. The man's lawyers have indicated that they will appeal the decision to the U.S. Supreme Court.

U. S., Britain Plan To Firm Up Baghdad Pact

The United States and Britain today announced plans to firm up the Baghdad Pact. The pact, which was signed in 1955, is a defense agreement between the United States, Britain, France, and several Middle Eastern countries. The pact is designed to deter Soviet expansion in the Middle East. The United States and Britain have been working to strengthen the pact since it was signed. They have been providing military aid to the member countries and have been holding regular consultations. The new plan calls for a more formalized structure for the pact, with a permanent committee to oversee its implementation. The committee will be composed of representatives from the United States, Britain, and the member countries. The plan also calls for a more active role for the United States and Britain in the pact. They will be providing more military aid and will be holding more frequent consultations. The plan is expected to be signed by the end of the year.

Hungary Will Get Last Call On UN Demand

Hungary will get its last chance to meet the demands of the United Nations today. The UN has issued a demand that Hungary withdraw its troops from Czechoslovakia. Hungary has refused to comply with the demand. The UN has threatened to take action against Hungary if it does not comply. The UN has also threatened to suspend Hungary from the organization. Hungary has said that it will comply with the demand if the UN agrees to withdraw its troops from Hungary. The UN has refused to do so. The situation in Hungary remains tense. The UN is expected to take action against Hungary soon.

Local Red Cross Will Raise Funds For Hungarians

The local Red Cross chapter today announced that it will raise funds for the Hungarian people. The chapter is planning a series of fund-raising events, including a bazaar and a concert. The funds raised will be used to provide food and clothing for the Hungarian people. The chapter is also planning to send a delegation to Hungary to provide medical aid. The chapter is expected to raise several thousand dollars for the Hungarian people.

Continue Questioning Wife Who Slew Spouse

The questioning of the wife of a man who was killed by her today continued. The woman, who is accused of murdering her husband, is being held in custody. She is being questioned by police officers. The questioning is expected to continue for several more days. The police are looking for evidence that will help them determine whether the woman is guilty of the murder. The woman has denied the charges. She has said that she did not kill her husband. The police are not convinced by her story. They believe that she is guilty of the murder. The questioning is expected to continue for several more days.

State Moves To Block NAACP Bid For Injunction

The state today moved to block the NAACP's bid for an injunction. The NAACP is seeking an injunction to prevent the state from enforcing a law that bans the NAACP from operating in the state. The state has argued that the law is constitutional and that the NAACP is not entitled to an injunction. The state is expected to win the case. The NAACP has said that it will appeal the decision to the U.S. Supreme Court. The case is expected to be heard by the Supreme Court in the near future.

Death of Woman Hanged in Effigy

The death of a woman today was commemorated by a hanging in effigy. The woman, who was killed in a fire, was the subject of a public demonstration. A group of people gathered in front of a building and hung a effigy of the woman. The effigy was made of straw and was dressed in the woman's clothing. The group of people then set the effigy on fire. The fire burned for several minutes before it was extinguished. The group of people then dispersed. The demonstration was a protest against the fire that killed the woman. The group of people said that they were angry about the fire and that they wanted to see justice done.

Three Are Fined In Cooperation Case

Three people today were fined for their role in a cooperation case. The people, who were identified as being involved in the case, were each fined $100. The fine was imposed by a judge. The judge said that the people had violated the law by cooperating with the police. The people have said that they are innocent and that they will appeal the fine. The case is expected to continue in court.
