Key elements of storytelling in "Monkey Beach". Oral tradition turned into literature Sina Laura Rautmann, 2017-07-10 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 2 0 Leuphana Universität Lüneburg Institute of English Studies language English abstract Only very few people are used to storytelling for even fairy tales are written down and read out loud to children the same way over and over again without alteration Changing perspective to first nation tribes one can easily discover the importance that oral tradition and storytelling has to these people It existed long before literature was introduced by the settlers in the post colonial era While contemporary Canadian fiction and short story writing developed in the middle of the nineteenth century Native Canadian Writing was forced to create their own distinctive style of writing By combining storytelling with literature the new genre of storywriting was created In this paper I will analyze the key features of storywriting and will exemplify them with quotes from the book Monkey Beach by Eden Robinson 2000 First I will present a short overview over the author and the book in general Then I will give a brief overview about the main motifs symbols and topics that the book deals with In the main part of this paper I will present different quotes and show typical aspects for oral tradition that can be found within them

Unsettled Remains Cynthia Sugars, Gerry Turcotte, 2010-08-27 Unsettled Remains Canadian Literature and the Postcolonial Gothic examines how Canadian writers have combined a postcolonial awareness with gothic metaphors of monstrosity and haunting in their response to Canadian history The essays gathered here range from treatments of early postcolonial gothic expression in Canadian literature to attempts to define a Canadian postcolonial gothic mode Many of these texts wrestle with Canada's colonial past and with the voices and histories that were repressed in the push for national consolidation but emerge now as uncanny reminders of that contentious history The haunting effect can be unsettling and enabling at the same time In recent years many Canadian authors have turned to the gothic to challenge dominant literary political and social narratives In Canadian literature the postcolonial gothic has been put to multiple uses above all to figure experiences of ambivalence that have emerged from a colonial context and persisted into the present As these essays demonstrate formulations of a Canadian postcolonial gothic differ radically from one another depending on the social and cultural positioning of who is positing it Given the preponderance in colonial discourse of accounts that demonize otherness it is not surprising that many minority writers have avoided gothic metaphors In recent years however minority authors have shown an interest in the gothic signalling an emerging critical discourse This spectral turn sees minority writers reversing long standing characterizations of their identity as monstrous or invisible in order to show their connections to and disconnection from stories of the nation

REVIEW OF MONKEY BEACH. ,2003 This Elusive Land Melody Hessing, Rebecca Raglon, Catriona Sandilands, 2005 This Elusive Land provides an introduction to the literature about women and the environment in Canada It looks at the ways in which women integrate the social and biophysical settings of their lives and features a range of contexts in which gender mediates inspires and informs a sense of belonging to and in this land Drawing from geographical historical and cultural perspectives the volume reveals the significance of women's experiences in various landscapes Jacket The Testimonial Uncanny Julia V. Emberley, 2014-09-30 Examines how colonial and postcolonial violence is understood and conceptualized through Indigenous storytelling Through the study of Indigenous literary and artistic practices from Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States Julia V Emberley examines the ways Indigenous storytelling discloses and repairs the traumatic impact of social violence in settler colonial nations She focuses on Indigenous storytelling in a range of cultural practices including novels plays performances media reports Internet museum exhibits and graphic novels In response to historical trauma such as that experienced at Indian residential schools as well as present day violence against Indigenous bodies and land Indigenous storytellers make use of Indigenous spirituality and the sacred to inform an ethics of hospitality They provide uncanny configurations of political and social kinships between people between the past and the present and between the animate and inanimate This book introduces readers to cultural practices and theoretical texts concerned with bringing Indigenous epistemologies to the discussion of trauma and colonial violence

Gothic Mash-Ups Natalie Neill, 2022-03-14 Gothic Mash Ups explores the role of intertextuality in Gothic storytelling through the analysis of texts from diverse periods and media Drawing on recent scholarship on Gothic remix and adaptation the contributors examine crossover fictions multi source film and comic book adaptations neo Victorian pastiches performance magic monster mashups and intertextual Gothic works of various kinds Their chapters investigate many critical issues related to Gothic mash up including authorship originality intellectual property fandom commercialization and canonicity Although varied in approach the chapters all explore how Gothic storytellers make new stories out of older ones relying on a mix of appropriation and innovation Covering many examples of mash up from nineteenth century Gothic novels to twenty first century video games and interactive fiction this collection builds from the premise that the Gothic is a fundamentally hybrid genre Canadian Cultural Exchange / Échanges culturels au Canada Norman Cheadle, Lucien Pelletier, 2011-04-07 The essays in Canadian Cultural Exchange changes culturels au Canada provide a nuanced view of Canadian transcultural experience Rather than considering Canada as a bicultural dichotomy of colonizer colonized this book examines a field of many cultures and the creative interactions among them This study discusses from various perspectives Canadian cultural space as being in process of continual translation of both the other and oneself Les articles réunis dans Canadian Cultural Exchange changes culturels au Canada donnent de l'expérience transculturelle canadienne une image nuancée Plutôt que dans les termes d'une dichotomie biculturelle entre colonisateur et colonisé le Canada y est vu comme un champ où plusieurs cultures interagissent de manière créative Cette étude présente sous de multiples aspects le processus continu de traduction d'autrui et de soi-même auquel l'espace culturel canadien sert de théâtre Dangerous Spirits

Shawn Smallman, 2015 An examination of the role of windigo narratives among the Algonquian peoples of North America and how those narratives were influenced through colonialism Graphic Indigeneity Frederick Luis Aldama, 2020-06-04 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Comics Studies Society Prize for Edited Book Collection Contributions by Joshua T Anderson Chad A Barbour Susan Bernardin Mike Borkent Jeremy M Carnes Philip Cass Jordan Clapper James J Donahue Dennin Ellis Jessica Fontaine Jonathan Ford Lee Francis IV Enrique García Javier García Liendo Brenna Clarke Gray Brian Montes Arij Ouweneel Kevin Patrick Candida Rifkind Jessica Rutherford and Jorge Santos Cultural works by and about Indigenous identities histories and experiences circulate far and wide However not all films animation television shows and comic books lead to a nuanced understanding of Indigenous realities Acclaimed comics scholar Frederick Luis Aldama shines light on how mainstream comics have clumsily distilled and reconstructed Indigenous identities and experiences He and contributors emphasize how Indigenous comic artists are themselves clearing new visual verbal narrative spaces for articulating more complex histories cultures experiences and narratives of self To that end Aldama brings together scholarship that explores both the representation and misrepresentation of Indigenous subjects and experiences as well as research that analyzes and highlights the extraordinary work of Indigenous comic artists Among others the book examines Daniel Parada s Zotz Puerto Rican comics Turey el Ta no and La Borinque a and Moonshot The Indigenous Comics Collection This volume s wide armed embrace of comics by and about Indigenous peoples of the Americas and Australasia is a first step to understanding how the histories of colonial and imperial domination connect the violent wounds that still haunt across continents Aldama and contributors resound this message Indigeneity in comics is an important powerful force within our visual verbal narrative arts writ large

Gothic Metaphysics Jodey Castricano, 2021-11-15 We live in the time of the Anthropocene which calls for a paradigm shift in our relation to this planet One of the themes of this book is to call attention to the shift This book is a challenge to Literary Gothic and Cultural Studies The case for rethinking approaches to gothic fiction is built on an extended critique of Freudian assumptions and antinomies of the occult associated with mechanism materialism and classical physics a critique informed by Jung and an engaging re evaluation of mystical animist and alchemical modes of thought linked to quantum physics new materialism along with curiously but effectively Derridean deconstruction and cryptonymy Readers will benefit from the depth and breadth of the research in this book that draws upon philosophical anthropological psychoanalytic and scientific thought to engage with a literary genre in a way that changes how we think about Gothic Studies

Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre, 2016-01-01 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism

Contemporary Canadian Women's Fiction C. Howells, 2003-08-22 This book charts the significant changes in contemporary Canada's literary profile since the mid 1990s within a context of the new national rhetoric of multiculturalism By looking closely at a representative range of fictions in English by women from a variety of ethnocultural backgrounds Howells examines the complexities embedded within Canadian identity What does Refiguring Identities mean for these writers given their individual agendas and the multiple affiliation of any woman's identity construction All these writers are engaged in rewriting history across generation and Howells argues that woman's fiction negotiates new possibilities for cultural change introducing more heterogeneous narratives of identity in multi cultural Canada

Orality and Literacy Keith Thor Carlson, Kristina Fagan, Natalia Khanenko-Friesen, 2011-04-30 Orality and Literacy investigates the interactions of the oral and the literate through close studies of particular cultures at specific historical moments Rejecting the great divide theory of orality and literacy as separate and opposite to one another the contributors posit that whatever meanings the two concepts have are products of their ever changing relationships to one another Through topics as diverse as Aboriginal Canadian societies Ukrainian Canadian narratives and communities in ancient Greece Medieval Europe and twentieth century Asia these cross disciplinary essays reveal the powerful ways in which cultural assumptions such as those about truth disclosure performance privacy and ethics can affect a society s uses of and approaches to both the written and the oral The fresh perspectives in Orality and Literacy reinvigorate the subject illuminating complex interrelationships rather than relying on universal generalizations about how literacy and orality function
