Modern Hatreds The Symbolic Politics Of Ethnic War:

Modern Hatreds Stuart J. Kaufman, 2001-05-31 Ethnic conflict has been the driving force of wars all over the world yet it remains an enigma What is it about ethnicity that breaks countries apart and drives people to acts of savage violence against their lifelong neighbors Stuart Kaufman rejects the notion of permanent ancient hatreds as the answer Dissatisfied as well with a purely rationalist explanation he finds the roots of ethnic violence in myths and symbols the stories ethnic groups tell about who they are Ethnic wars Kaufman argues result from the politics of these myths and symbols appeals to flags and faded glories that aim to stir emotions rather than to address interests Popular hostility based on these myths impels groups to follow extremist leaders invoking such emotion laden ethnic symbols If ethnic domination becomes their goal ethnic war is the likely result Kaufman examines contemporary ethnic wars in the Caucasus and southeastern Europe Drawing on information from a variety of sources including visits to the regions and dozens of personal interviews he demonstrates that diplomacy and economic incentives are not enough to prevent or end ethnic wars The key to real conflict resolution is peacebuilding the often overlooked effort by nongovernmental organizations to change hostile attitudes at both the elite and the grassroots levels Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2010-10-18 A definitive global survey of the interaction of race ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends theoretically grounded rigorous analysis with empirical illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today The contributors to this volume offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a specific place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed the Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain better insights into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegrations of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences and the genocide in Rwanda as well as the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland Macedonia and Aceh By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of its prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses Theories of Violent Conflict Jolle

Demmers, 2012-07-26 This textbook introduces students of violent conflict to a variety of prominent theoretical approaches and examines the ontological stances and epistemological traditions underlying these approaches Theories of Violent Conflict takes the centrality of the group as an actor in contemporary conflict as a point of departure leaving us with three main questions What makes a group Why and how does a group resort to violence Why and how do or don t they stop The book examines and compares the ways by which these questions are addressed from a number of perspectives constructivism social identity theory structuralism political economy human needs theory relative deprivation theory collective action theory and rational choice theory The final chapter aims to synthesise structure and agency based theories by proposing a critical discourse analysis of violent conflict This book will be essential reading for students of war and conflict studies peace studies conflict analysis and conflict resolution and ethnic conflict as well as security studies and IR in general Nationalist Passions Stuart J. Kaufman, 2015-11-06 Nationalist and ethnic conflict can take many forms from genocidal violence and civil war to protest movements and peaceful squabbles in democracies Nationalist Passions poses a stark challenge to extreme rationalist understandings of political conflict Stuart J Kaufman elaborates a compelling theory of ethnic politics to explain why ethnic violence erupts in some contexts and how peace is maintained in others At the core of Kaufman's theory is an assertion that conflicts are initiated due to popular symbolic predispositions biases of all kinds and perceptions of threat Kaufman puts his theory to the test in a range of conflicts He examines some highly violent episodes among them the Muslim rebellion in the southern Philippines beginning in the 1970s the civil war in southern Sudan that began in the 1980s and the Rwanda genocide of 1994 Kaufman also analyzes other situations in which leaders attempted to tame the violence that nationalist passions can generate In India Mahatma Gandhi mobilized an overtly nonviolent movement but failed in his efforts to prevent the rise of Muslim Hindu communal violence In South Africa Nelson Mandela and F W de Klerk ended apartheid but not without terrible cost more than fifteen thousand people died while the negotiations were under way In Tanzania however Julius Nyerere led one of the few ethnically diverse countries in the world with almost no ethnic violence Nationalist Passions is essential reading for policymakers international aid workers and all others who seek to find the best possible outcomes for future internal and interstate clashes Your Country, Our War Katherine A. Brown, 2019-02-01 Based on extensive fieldwork in Afghanistan and eight years of interviews this book reviews the dynamics between Afghan and U S journalists and the global diplomatic power of the American press within the context of the post 9 11 era Introducing Comparative Politics Stephen Orvis, Carol Ann Drogus, 2017-01-19 Organized thematically around important questions in comparative politics Introducing Comparative Politics Fourth Edition by Stephen Orvis and Carol Ann Drogus integrates a set of extended case studies of 11 core countries into the narrative Serving as touchstones the cases are set in chapters where they make the most sense topically not separated from theory or in a separate volume and vividly illustrate issues in cross national context The book's organization allows instructors flexibility and gives students a more accurate sense of comparative study In this edition a brand new chapter on Contentious Politics covers ethnic fragmentation social movements civil war revolutions and political violence New case studies on this topic include the Occupy and Tea Party movements in the US Zapatista rebellion in Mexico Boko Haram in Nigeria and revolutions in China and Iran The chapter on States and Identity has been substantially revised to better introduce students to the concept of identity and how countries handle identity based demands Case studies include nationalism in Germany ethnicity in Nigeria religion in India race in the US

The Politics of Nation-Building Harris Mylonas, 2013-02-18 What drives a state's choice to assimilate accommodate or exclude ethnic groups within its territory In this innovative work on the international politics of nation building Harris Mylonas argues that a state's nation building policies toward non core groups individuals perceived as an ethnic group by the ruling elite of a state are influenced by both its foreign policy goals and its relations with the external patrons of these groups Through a detailed study of the Balkans Mylonas shows that how a state treats a non core group within its own borders is determined largely by whether the state's foreign policy is revisionist or cleaves to the international status quo and whether it is allied or in rivalry with that group's external patrons Mylonas injects international politics into the study of nation building building a bridge between international relations and the comparative politics of ethnicity and nationalism
