Henry Hock Guan Teh, 2016-02-10 Those who give primacy to evidence in the apologetic task have long maintained that 1 this is exactly the biblical writers approach maintaining as they do that they saw and heard the things of which they speak and 2 such reasoning is fundamental to society in general as exemplified in every civilised legal system

Henry Hock Guan Teh concretises these vital points by way of the Gospel of John where the Apostle consistently marshals eyewitness evidence to show that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God and that believing you might have life through His name

John 20 31 No finer or more scholarly support for a biblically grounded factual juridically sophisticated defence of Christian truth is available Professional and lay evangelists and anyone endeavouring to preach the gospel to every creature simply must obtain and be nefit from this book And sceptical lawyers needless to say owe it to themselves to wrestle with the author

Craig Parton Esq and Prof Dr Ross Clifford As can be seen by the title Dr Teh concentrates on the Gospel of John chapter by the legal historical and rational case for Christianity Dr Henry Teh uniquely focuses on John s gospel and establishes the Case for Jesus Resurrection through the best evidence principle This emphasises on John's gospel establishes that it is a key text for Christian apologetics The book is a compelling read for those who take 1 Peter 3:15 seriously And for those who believe Jesus is a fairy tale it will cause them to reconsider the fact of his Resurrection It is well written and a must addition to one's apologetic armoury Rev Dr Ross Clifford AM Principal of Morling Theological College Sydney Australia Author of John Montgomery's Legal Apologetic Henry Hock Guan Teh obtained his Ph D from Trinity Theological Seminary Indiana USA where he studied apologetics under Prof John Warwick Montgomery and also at International Academy of Apologetics Evangelism Human Rights Strasbourg France With two British law degrees he was also a trial lawyer and chief law examiner Presently Henry Teh is adjunct lecturer in Philosophy Ethics and Law

Athens Vasileios Adamidis, 2016-11-25 There has been much debate in scholarship over the factors determining the outcome of legal hearings in classical Athens. Specifically, there is divergence regarding the extent to which judicial panels were influenced by non-legal considerations in addition to or even instead of questions of law. Ancient rhetorical theory and practice devoted much attention to character, and it is this aspect of Athenian law which forms the focus of this book. Close analysis of the dispute resolution passages in ancient Greek literature reveals striking similarities with the rhetoric of litigants in the Athenian courts and thus helps to shed light on the function of the courts and the fundamental nature of Athenian law. The widespread use of character evidence in every aspect of argumentation can be traced to the Greek ideas of character and personality, the inductive method of reasoning, and the social, political, and institutional structures of the ancient Greek polis. According to the author's proposed method of interpretation, character evidence was not a means of diverting the jury's attention away from the legal issues; instead, it was a constructive and relevant way of developing a legal argument.
