Modernism On Sea Modernism On Sea:

Modernism on Sea Lara Feigel, Alexandra Harris, 2009 These lively and intelligent essays examine artistic responses to the British seaside from the 1930s onwards including writers and artists such as Virginia Woolf Sylvia Plath and John Piper

Modernity at Sea Cesare Casarino, 2002 At once a literary philosophical meditation on the question of modernity and a manifesto for a new form of literary criticism Modernity at Sea argues that the nineteenth century sea narrative played a crucial role in the emergence of a theory of modernity as permanent crisis In a series of close readings of such works as Herman Melville's White Jacket and Moby Dick Joseph Conrad's The Nigger of the Narcissus and The Secret Sharer and Karl Marx's Grundrisse Cesare Casarino draws upon the thought of twentieth century figures including Giorgio Agamben Louis Althusser Walter Benjamin Leo Bersani Gilles Deleuze Félix Guattari and Antonio Negri to characterize the nineteenth century ship narrative as the epitome of Michel Foucault's heterotopia a special type of space that simultaneously represents inverts and contests all other spaces in culture Elaborating Foucault's claim that the ship has been the heterotopia par excellence of Western civilization since the Renaissance Casarino goes on to argue that the nineteenth century sea narrative froze the world of the ship just before its disappearance thereby capturing at once its apogee and its end and producing the ship as the matrix of modernity

Modernism on the Open Sea Fumihiko Maki, 2013 Ship Style Bruce Peter, 2010 E. E. Cummings' Modernism and the Classics Jennifer Alison Rosenblitt, 2016 This volume is a major groundbreaking study of the modernist E. E. Cummings engagement with the classics It explores the significance of Cummings Harvard training as a classicist to his development as a poet and to his published work and also contains an edition of new previously unpublished material by Cummings himself

Archipelagic Modernism John Brannigan, 2014-12-09 Archipelagic Modernism examines the anglophone literatures of the archipelago from 1890 to 1970 for what they tell us about changing identities geographies and ecologies

Modernism and the Middle Passage Laura Winkiel, 2025-10-14 Modernism is typically thought of as focusing on the new and now not looking backward at historical catastrophes Yet in many surprising often submerged ways the transatlantic slave trade shaped the works of both Black and white writers This book reveals how modernists turned to the Middle Passage and in so doing upended Western ideas about time and space race and gender and the category of the human Bringing together Afro diasporic and Black studies scholarship modernist aesthetics and environmental studies Laura Winkiel presents a new literary history of modernism from the perspective of the Atlantic and its role in slavery and colonization She examines the works of African Caribbean British and US writers including Joseph Conrad William Faulkner Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay Jean Rhys Amos Tutuola and Virginia Woolf as well as later interlocutors such as Marlon James and Jamaica Kincaid Paying particular attention to settings on shorelines deltas archipelagos and the ocean Winkiel argues that allusions to the slave trade make visible the exploitative structural relations between the metropolis and the colonies and between the liberal subject and its others By turning to the ocean and its violent histories this groundbreaking book rethinks the fraught relationship of modernism and race Travel, Modernism and Modernity Robert Burden, 2016-03-09 Focusing on the significance of travel in Joseph Conrad E M Forster D H Lawrence Henry James and Edith Wharton Robert Burden shows how travel enabled a new consciousness of mobility and borders during the modernist period For these authors Burden suggests travel becomes a narrative paradigm and dominant trope by which they explore questions of identity and otherness related to deep seated concerns with the crisis of national cultural identity He pays particular attention to the important distinction between travel and tourism at the same time that he attends to the slippage between seeing and sightseeing between the local character and the stereotype between art and kitsch and between older and newer ways of storytelling in the representational crisis of modernism Burden argues that the greater awareness of cultural difference that characterizes both the travel writing and fiction of these expatriate writers became a defining feature of literary modernism resulting in a consciousness of cultural difference that challenged the ethnographic project of empire Ship Style Philip Dawson, Bruce Peter, 2010 After Modernism Pelagia Goulimari, 2023-03-31 While celebrating the centenary of the annus mirabilis of modernism we now encounter modernism after postmodernist poststructuralist postcolonial critical race feminist queer and trans writing and theory Out of the figures narratives and concepts they have developed a less universal more global decentred context specific interconnected modernism emerges In after modernism the meanings of after include periodisation homage and critique This book attends to neglected genealogies and intertexts high and low yet offering unacknowledged ontological epistemological conceptual and figurative resources How have artists of the Global South negotiated the hierarchical division of art capital into Western high art vs Global South culture Modernity's location has been the Western metropolis but other origin stories have been centring slavery colonialism the nation state If modernity did not originate once why not multiple and still to come modernities Instead of a universalizable Western modernity vs local non Western traditions the contributors to this book discern multiple modern traditions Rather than reifying their heterogeneity the authors tunnel for lost transnational connections The nation state and the citizen have together defined Western modernity and the civilized Yet they have required the gender binary gender and sexual normativity assimilation exclusion forced migration partition segregation In between the public and the private humans and the natural world this book explores a multiple relational modern subjectivity collectivity and cosmic interconnectivity whose space is indivisible entangled ever folding and unfolding It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki Mid-Century Modernism in Turkey Meltem Gürel, 2018-02-05 Mid Century Modernism in Turkey studies the unfolding of modern architecture in Turkey during the 1950s and 1960s The book brings together scholars who have carried out extensive research on post WWII modernism in a global context The authors situate Turkish architectural case studies within an international framework during this period providing a close reading of how architectural culture responded to ubiquitous post war ideas and ideals and how it became intertwined with politics of modernization and urbanization This book contributes to contemporary scholarship to reconsider post war architecture beyond canonical explanations A Fractured Landscape of Modernity J. Wilkes, 2014-01-21 This book uses the contradictions fractures and coincidences of a twentieth century rural landscape to explore new methods of writing place beyond new nature writing In doing so it opens up new ways of reading modernist artists and writers such as Vanessa Bell Mary Butts and Paul Nash

The Cambridge Companion to Modernism Michael Levenson, 1999-02-11 In The Cambridge Companion to Modernism ten eminent scholars from Britain and the United States offer timely new appraisals of the revolutionary cultural transformations of the first decades of the twentieth century Chapters on the major literary genres intellectual political and institutional contexts film and the visual arts provide both close analyses of individual works and a broader set of interpretive narratives A chronology and guide to further reading supply valuable orientation for the study of Modernism Readers will be able to use the book at once as a standard work of reference and as a stimulating source of compelling new readings of works by writers and artists from Joyce and Woolf to Stein Picasso Chaplin H D and Freud and many others Students will find much needed help with the difficulties of approaching Modernism while the essays original contributions will send scholars back to this volume for stimulating re evaluation

Mobile Modernity Todd Samuel Presner, 2007 Treating the German railway as both an iconic symbol of modernity and a crucial social technological and political force Presner advances a groundbreaking interpretation of the ways in which mobility is inextricably linked to German and Jewish visions of modernity Moving beyond the tired model of a failed German Jewish dialogue Presner emphasizes the mutual entanglement of the very categories of German and Jewish and the many sites of contact and exchange that occurred between German and Jewish thinkers Rather than a conventional linear history that culminates in the tragedy of the Holocaust Presner produces a cultural mapping that articulates a much more complex story of the hopes and catastrophes of mobile modernity By focusing on the spaces of encounter emblematically represented by the overdetermined triangulation of Germans Jews and trains he introduces a new genealogy for the study of European and German Jewish modernity Jacket

Still Modernism Louise Hornby, 2017-09-01 Still Modernism offers a critique of the modernist imperative to embrace motion speed and mobility In the context of the rise of kinetic technologies and the invention of motion pictures it claims that stillness is nonetheless an essential tactic of modernist innovation More specifically the book looks at the ways in which photographic stillness emerges as a counterpoint to motion and to film asserting its own clear visibility against the blur of kinesis Photographic stillness becomes a means to resist the ephemerality of motion and to get at and articulate something real or essential by way of its fixed limits Combining art history film studies and literary studies Louise Hornby reveals how photographers filmmakers and writers even at their most kinetic did not surrender attention to points of stillness Rather the still image understood through photography establishes itself as a mode of resistance and provides a formal response to various modernist efforts to see better to attend more closely and to remove the fetters of subjectivity and experience Still Modernism brings together a series of canonical texts films and photographs the selection of which reinforces the central claim that stillness does not lurk at the margins of modernism but was constitutive of its very foundations In a series of comparisons drawing from literary and visual objects Hornby argues that still photography allows film to access its own diffuse images of motion photography's duplicative form provides a serial structure for modernist efforts to represent the face its iterative structure articulates the jerky rhythms of experimental narrative as perambulation and its processes of development allow for the world to emerge independent of the human observer Casting new light on the relationship between photography and film Hornby situates the struggle between the still and the kinetic at the center of modernist culture Wide Sargasso Sea at 50 Elaine Savory, Erica L.

Johnson, 2020-11-03 This book revisits Jean Rhys's ground breaking 1966 novel to explore its cultural and artistic influence in the areas of not only literature and literary criticism but fashion design visual art and the theatre as well Building on symposia that were held in London and New York in 2016 in honour of the novel's half century this collection demonstrates just how timely Rhys's insights into colonial history sexual relations and aesthetics continue to be The chapters include an extensive interview with novelist Caryl Phillips who in 2018 published a novel about Rhys's life an account of how Wide Sargasso Sea can be read through the lens of the MeToo Movement a clothing line inspired by the novel and new critical directions As both a celebration and scholarly evaluation the collection shows how enduring Rhys's novel is in its continuing literary influence and social commentary Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism, 2008-02-14 Henrik Ibsen 1828

1906 is the founder of modern theater and his plays are performed all over the world Yet in spite of his unquestioned status as a classic of the stage Ibsen is often dismissed as a boring old realist whose plays are of interest only because they remain the gateway to modern theater In Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism Toril Moi makes a powerful case not just for Ibsen's modernity but also for his modernism Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism situates Ibsen in his cultural context emphasizes his position as a Norwegian in European culture and shows how important painting and other visual arts were for his aesthetic education The book rewrites literary history reminding modern readers that idealism was the dominant aesthetic paradigm of the nineteenth century Modernism was born in the ruins of idealism Moi argues thus challenging traditional theories of the opposition between realism and modernism By reading Ibsen's modernist plays as investigations of the fate of love in an age of skepticism Moi shows why Ibsen still matters to us In this book Ibsen's plays are showed to be profoundly concerned by theater and theatricality both on stage and in everyday life Ibsen's unsettling explorations of women men and marriage here emerge as chronicles of the tension between skepticism and the everyday and between critique and utopia in modernity This radical new account places Ibsen in his rightful place alongside Baudelaire Flaubert and Manet as a founder of European modernism Modernism's Inhuman Worlds Rasheed Tazudeen, 2024-08-15 Modernism's Inhuman Worlds explores the centrality of ecological precarity species indeterminacy planetary change and the specter of extinction to modernist and contemporary metamodernist literatures Modernist ecologies Rasheed Tazudeen argues emerge in response to the enigma of how to imagine inhuman being including soils forests oceans and the earth itself through languages and epistemologies that have only ever been humanist How might meta modernist aesthetics help us to imagine with inhuman worlds including the worlds still to be made on the other side of mass extinction Through innovative readings of canonical and emergent modernist and metamodernist works Tazudeen theorizes inhuman modernism as a call toward further receptivity to the worlds beings and relations that tend to go unthought within Western humanist epistemologies Modernist engagements with the figures of enigma riddle and metaphor according to the book s central argument offer a means toward what Franz Kafka calls an otherwise speaking based on language s obliqueness to inhuman and planetary being Drawing on ecocriticism decolonial and feminist science studies postcolonial theory inhuman geography and sound studies Tazudeen analyzes an inhuman modernist lineage spanning from Darwin Carroll and Flaubert through Joyce Kafka and Woolf to contemporary poetic works as both part of a collaborative rethinking of modernism s planetary and inhuman aesthetics as well as occasions for imagining new modes of livingness for the extinctions to come

Modernism at the Beach Hannah Freed-Thall, 2023-03-07 Winner 2024 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association At the beach bodies converge with the elements and strange treasures come to light Departing from the conventional association of modernism with the city this book makes a case for the coastal zone as a surprisingly generative setting for twentieth century literature and art An unruly and elusive confluence of human and more than human forces the seashore is also a space of performance a stage for loosely scripted improvisatory forms of embodiment and togetherness The beach Hannah Freed Thall argues was to the modernist imagination what mountains were to Romanticism a space not merely of anthropogenic conquest but of vital elemental and creaturely connection With an eye to the peripheries of capitalist leisure Freed Thall recasts familiar seaside practices including tide pooling beachcombing gambling and sunbathing as radical experiments in perception and sociability Close readings of works by Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf Claude McKay Samuel Beckett Rachel Carson and Gordon Matta Clark among others explore the modernist beach as a queer refuge a precarious commons a scene of collective exhaustion and endurance and a visionary threshold at the end of the world Interweaving environmental humanities queer and feminist theory and cultural history Modernism at the Beach offers new ways of understanding twentieth century literature and its relation to ecological thought

Modernism, Postcolonialism, and Globalism Richard Begam, Michael Valdez Moses, 2019 As England withdrew from its empire after World War II how did writers living outside the United Kingdom respond to the history of colonialism and the aesthetics of modernism within a global context In fourteen original essays edited by Richard Begam and Michael Valdez Moses a distinguished group of scholars considers these questions in relation to novelists playwrights and poets living in English speaking countries around the world Modernism Postcolonialism and Globalism not only examines how modernism and postcolonialism evolved over several generations but also situates the writers analyzed in terms of canonical realignments inspired by the New Modernist Studies and an array of emerging methodologies and approaches While this volume highlights social and political questions connected with the end of empire it also considers the aesthetics of postcolonialism detailing how writers drew upon responded to and sometimes reacted against the formal innovations of modernism Many of the essays consider the influence modernist artists and movements exercised on postcolonial writers from W B Yeats Joseph Conrad Franz Kafka Marcel Proust James Joyce T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to Impressionism Expressionism Surrealism and Abstractionism Modernism Postcolonialism and Globalism is organized around six geographic locales and includes essays on Africa Chinua Achebe Ngugi wa Thiong o Nadine Gordimer J M Coetzee Asia Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy the Caribbean Jean Rhys Derek Walcott V S Naipaul Ireland Samuel Beckett Seamus Heaney Australia New Zealand David Malouf Keri Hulme and Canada Michael Ondaatje Examining how Anglophone writers engaged with the literary intellectual and cultural heritage of modernism this volume offers a vital and distinctive intervention in ongoing discussions of modern and contemporary literature
