New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay, 2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio cultural conditions of those times The province's literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non central spaces like New Brunswick has also had quite other literary exhalations and which invite far more than mere reception study These are voices from across the Americas of Canada and Mexico the Anglophone world of England Scotland or Australia the Europe of France or Italy and from the Mediterranean of Greece and the Maghreb and from Scandinavia and Russia together with the Asia of Japan and China This anthology of essays maps relevant other kinds of Beat voice names texts The scope is hemispheric Atlantic and Pacific West and East It gives recognition to the Beat inscribed in languages other than English and reflective of different cultural histories Likewise the majority of contributors come from origins or affiliations beyond the US whether in a different English or languages spanning Spanish Danish Turkish Greek or Chinese The aim is to recognize an enlarged Beat literary map its creative internationalism
