Hello Fish. "You might as well get used to that name. It's a great name. You should use it. A great big welcome to you. The help staff is in your corner. We would like to make you aware of the student government, the code of ethics, traditions, and other things you need to know."

The student body is the heart of all student government. Its formation and membership is explained in the handbook and will also be made in your orientation lectures. Its purpose and function is very important because it is your voice. The student body also coordinates all student activities in an educational and cultural capacity. It is in charge of all student activities which are also very important because these activities affect you personally. We urge you to get involved in the governing student affairs in the future.

Our code of ethics, which is also in the handbook, has as its primary purpose to insure in you greater spiritual growth, a sense of personal and social integrity, and a sense of responsibility. We urge you to have a high regard for property—your own, other students' and your college's.

We of TLC, now your TLC, have certain traditions with which we wish you to become acquainted. One is the playing of the "Victory Bell" in front of Old Main for our athletic victories and other similar occasions. The College Bell is rung for morning convocations and evening chapel services which are held for your spiritual edification.

We want to impress upon you the importance of your class attendance, punctuality, and rules of the college. They are for your benefit and will be explained at greater length when I talk to you personally.

Here's wishing you a very happy and beneficial year with us at TLC. We look forward to meeting you personally.

Augie Wainwright
Student Body President

3 NEW COURSES ADDED THIS FALL

Three new courses have been added to the curriculum. Introduction to the Bible, by Mr. Christopher, Introduction to the Bible, by Mr. Shaw, and Introduction to Art, to be taught by Mr. Barker.

In addition, Saperstein's Latin, which has not been taught for several years, will again be offered. Mr. Lindsay will teach it.

Tryouts Progress For Band, Choir

Tryouts for the TLC choir and band will continue through Friday, September 26.

Interest in auditioning for either should make an appointment with Bill Spindel, choir director, or Francis Barker, band director.

Plans are also being made to organize a golf marching corps to perform with the band.

Welcome, Freshmen, to our campus, or I should say, to your campus. Welcome to TLC, to your school. Therefore, I feel it is very important that you, incoming Freshmen, know something about and take a deep interest in the organization and activities which exist here on the campus. These organizations and activities are for your benefit, and are for your social, cultural, and spiritual education.

All student activities function in cooperation with the Student Activities Council. This council is composed of three committees: Social Activities Committee, Cultural Activities Committee, and Religious Activities Committee. They are responsible for such functions as all-school, picnic, dance, etc., and Tuesday convocations, religious services, and many others. This council is made up of students who are elected to represent the student body from each constituency.

The Dean of Students and Student Body Vice-president, Arthur Schaefer, is in charge of the Student Activities Council. He can be found in the Student Handbook.

I know that all of you will want to take an active part in student activities. So, I want to again impress upon you the importance of knowing your student government and having an interest in student activities and how they function. Arrangements in the Student Handbook and in the Student Handbook are good and beneficial activities.
