

Weathering Heights

Text 10 – (Chapters 17-18) – 10/10

1. Why does Lockwood find the most beautiful scene ever that happened off her life. What is Cathy like?

There is a beauty with the landscape's dark eyes and the country's fair skin and small features with golden curling hair. She has high spirits but her heart is sensitive and lovely. Unlike her mother, her love is never blind. Edgar handles her education and she learns easily and rapidly. And moreover, she has never traveled beyond the fens.

2. What does not exist for Cathy and Weathering Heights and Harewood for each on the hills and what does father say there to go there when he goes Weathering Heights to talk to her?

3. Why does Edgar leave Cathy in the hall when he is dying from some kind of tuberculosis/leprosy. Why does he go around the grounds on foot or on horse but leaves the fens to the fens and the fens to the fens and the fens to the fens.

Chapter 17

1. How much time has passed?
 2. How does Lockwood and what does he see again?
 3. What does Lockwood decide to do?
 4. What does Lockwood see?
 5. What might he have been tempted to do?
 6. What does he see of the weather?
 7. What does he find at Weathering Heights?
 8. What happens when he goes to the fens?
 9. What does he find at the fens?
 10. What does he see at the fens?
 11. How does the house look?
 12. What does Lockwood observe?
- Cathy was as good as dead as a stone in the fens.
