Memory, Mobility, and Material Culture Chiara Giuliani, Kate Hodgson, 2022-11-18 With a focus on the object and where it is situated in time memory and space mobility Memory Mobility and Material Culture embodies a multidisciplinary and cross disciplinary approach The chapters track the movement of the objects and their owner s within and between continents countries cities and families Objects have always been considered with an eye to their worth economic aesthetic and or functional If that worth is diminished their meaning and value disappear they are just things Yet things can still fulfil functions in our daily lives they hold symbolic potential from personal memory triggers to focal points of public ritual and religion from collectors obsession to symbols of loss displacement and violence By bringing into dialogue the work of specialists in ethnology art history architecture and design literature languages cultures and heritage studies this volume considers how displaced memory the memory of refugees migrants and their descendants of those who have moved from the countryside to the city of those who have faced personal upheaval and profound social change those who have been forced into exile or experienced major personal or collective loss can become embodied in material culture This book is important reading to those interested in cultural and social history and cultural studies Cultural Memories of Nonviolent Struggles A. Reading, T. Katriel, 2015-06-09 If societies have only memories of war of cruelty of violence then why are we called humankind This book marks a new trajectory in Memory Studies by examining cultural memories of nonviolent struggles from ten countries The book reminds us of the enduring cultural scripts for human agency solidarity resilience and human kindness Journalism and Memory B. Zelizer, K. Tenenboim-Weinblatt, 2014-02-20 Tracking the ways in which journalism and memory mutually support undermine repair and challenge each other this fascinating collection brings together leading scholars in journalism and memory studies to investigate the complicated role that journalism plays in Memory from the Margins Bridget Conley, 2019-03-13 This book asks the guestion what is the role of memory during a political transition Drawing on Ethiopian history transitional justice and scholarly fields concerned with memory museums and trauma the author reveals a complex picture of global transnational national and local forces as they converge in the story of the creation and continued life of one modest museum in the Ethiopian capital Addis Ababa the Red Terror Martyrs Memorial Museum It is a study from multiple margins neither the case of Ethiopia nor memorialization is central to transitional justice discourse and within Ethiopia the history of the Red Terror is sidelined in contemporary politics From these nested margins traumatic memory emerges as an ambiguous social and political force The contributions meaning and limitations of memory emerge at the point of discrete interactions between memory advocates survivor docents and visitors Memory from the margins is revealed as powerful for how it disrupts not builds new forms of community Cultural Politics of Austerity R. Bramall, 2013-10-31 This timely book examines austerity s conflicted meanings from austerity chic and anti austerity protest to economic and eco austerity Bramall's compelling text explores the presence and persuasiveness of the past developing a new approach to the historical in contemporary cultural politics Feeling in Cultures of Memory B. Trezise, 2014-06-27 Performing Feeling in Cultures of Memory brings memory studies into conversation with a focus on feelings as cultural actors It charts a series of memory sites that range from canonical museums and memorials to practices enabled by the virtual terrain of Second Life popular trauma TV programs and radical theatre practice The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory Sharon Deane-Cox, Anneleen Spiessens, 2022-05-29 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory serves as a timely and unique resource for the current boom in thinking around translation and memory The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of a contemporary and as yet unconsolidated research landscape with a four section structure which encompasses both current debate and future trajectories Twenty four chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars provide a cross sectional snapshot of the diverse angles of approach and case studies that have thus far driven research into translation and memory A valuable far reaching range of theoretical empirical reflective comparative and archival approaches are brought to bear on translational sites of memory and mnemonic sites of translation through the examination of topics such as traumatic postcolonial cultural literary and translator memory This Handbook is key reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in translation studies memory studies and related areas Photography, Music and Memory Michael Pickering, Emily Keightley, 2015-10-12 This book explores how photography and recorded music act as vehicles or catalysts in processes of remembering and how they are regarded treated valued and drawn upon as resources connecting past and present in everyday life It does so via two key concepts vernacular memory and the mnemonic imagination Memory Matters in Transitional Peru M. Saona,2014-09-04 Commemorating traumatic events means attempting to activate collective memory By examining images metonymic invocations built environments and digital outreach interventions this book establishes some of the cognitive and emotional responses that make us incorporate the past suffering of others as a painful legacy of our own

Communicating Awe O. Meyers, M. Neiger, E. Zandberg, 2014-08-12 Offering a cross media exploration of Israeli media on Holocaust Remembrance Day one of Israel s most sacred national rituals over the past six decades this fascinating book investigates the way in which variables such as medium structure of ownership genre and targeted audiences shape the collective recollection of traumatic memories The Ethics of Collecting Trauma Alexandra Bounia, Andrea Witcomb, 2024-10-31 The Ethics of Collecting Trauma offers an interdisciplinary dialogue on the ethics of contemporary museums that are involved in collecting moments of collective trauma Including a range of international contributions the volume explores the ethics of collecting material that documents contemporary traumatic events. The case studies focus on four categories of such events forced migration terrorism attacks major natural disasters and cultural traumas such as the ongoing legacy of colonization Contributors consider whether cultural institutions have a right to collect materials about these events and what kind of materials they should focus on if so who is being memorialized who should hold the power to decide what is collected and what the critical timeline for such initiatives is The volume also considers what the larger purpose of such collecting is and how to deal with past collecting practices arguing that museums need to consider in a careful and deliberate way their ethical responsibilities as cultural institutions. The Ethics of Collecting Trauma will be of interest to academics and students working in the areas of museum and heritage studies cultural studies trauma studies memory studies and migration studies. The book will also appeal to museum professionals working around the globe The Politics of War Commemoration in the UK and Russia Nataliya Danilova, 2016-01-13 This book analyses contemporary war commemoration in Britain and Russia Focusing on the political aspects of remembrance it explores the instrumentalisation of memory for managing civil military relations and garnering public support for conflicts It explains the nexus between remembrance militarisation and nationalism in modern societies The Labour of Memory M. Allen, 2014-12-02 This book presents a study of remembrance practices emerging after the 2005 London bombings Matthew Allen explores a range of cases that not only illustrate the effects of the organisation of remembrance on its participants but reveal how people engaged in memorial culture to address difficult and unbearable conditions in the wake of 7 7 Beyond Memory Alexandre Dessingué, Jay Winter, 2015-08-14 Beyond Memory Silence and the Aesthetics of Remembrance analyses the intricate connections between silence acts of remembrance and acts of forgetting and relates the topic of silence to the international research field of Cultural Memory Studies It engages with the most recent work in the field by viewing silence as a remedy to the traditionally binary approach to our understanding of remembering and forgetting The international team of contributors examine case studies from colonialism war politics and slavery from across the globe as well as drawing examples from literature philosophy and sites of memory to draw three main conclusions Firstly that the relationship between remembering and forgetting is relational rather than hermetic and the space between the two is often occupied by silence Secondly silence is a force in itself capable of stimulating more or less remembrance Finally that silence is a necessary and key element in the interaction between the human mind and the outer world and enables people to challenge their understanding of art music literature history and memory With an introduction by the editors discussing Memory Studies and concluding remarks by Astrid Erll this collection demonstrates that acceptance and consideration of silence as having both a performative and aesthetic dimension is an essential component of history and memory studies Twentieth Century in European Memory, 2017-09-04 The Twentieth Century in European Memory investigates contested and divisive memories of conflicts world wars dictatorship genocide and mass killing Focusing on the questions of transculturality and reception the book looks at the ways in which such memories are being shared debated and received by museum workers artists politicians and general audiences Due to amplified mobility and communication as well as Europe s changing institutional structure such memories become increasingly transcultural crossing cultural and political borders This book brings together in depth researched case studies of memory transmission and reception in different types of media including films literature museums political debate printed and digital media as well as studies of personal and public reactions Contributors are Ismar Dedovi Astrid Erll Rosanna Farb l Magdalena G ra Gunnthorunn Gudmundsdottir Anne Heimo Sara Jones Wulf Kansteiner Slawomir Kapralski Zo de Kerangat Zdzis aw Mach Natalija Majsova Inge Melchior Daisy Neijmann Vjeran Pavlakovi Benedikt Perak Tea Sindb k Andersen and Barbara T rnguist Plewa Traces and Memories of Slavery in the Atlantic World Lawrence Aje, Nicolas Gachon, 2019-06-28 Traces and Memories deals with the foundation mechanisms and scope of slavery related memorial processes interrogating how descendants of enslaved populations reconstruct the history of their ancestors when transatlantic slavery is one of the variables of the memorial process While memory studies mark a shift from concern with historical knowledge of events to that of memory the book seeks to bridge the memorial representations of historical events with the production and knowledge of those events. The book offers a methodological and epistemological reflection on the challenges that are raised by archival limitations in relation to slavery and how they can be overcome It covers topics such as the historical and memorial legacy ies of slavery the memorialization of slavery the canonization and patrimonialization of the memory of slavery the places and conditions of the production of knowledge on slavery and its circulation the heritage of slavery and the re construction of collective identity By offering fresh perspectives on how slavery related sites of memory have been retrospectively re framed or re shaped the book probes the constraints which determine the inscription of this contentious memory in the public sphere The volume will serve as a valuable resource in the area of slavery memory and Atlantic studies Negotiating Memories of Protest in Western Europe

A. Hajek,2013-08-30 Negotiating Memories of Protest in Western Europe explores the transmission of memories of 1970s protest movements in Italy Germany France and Great Britain Focusing on Italy it analyzes commemorative rituals memory sites and other forms of memory work performed by social groups in a city where a protester was killed by police in 1977

The Top Books of the Year Mediating Memory In The Museum Trauma Empathy Nostalgia Palgrave Macmillan Memory Studies The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read: Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best: Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and selfdiscovery. Discover the Magic: Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
