Miegunyah Bequests Russell Mab Grimwade:

Miegunyah John Poynter, Benjamin Thomas, 2015 Annotation Russell Grimwade had a clear and concise vision for his philanthropy which balanced a strongly held sense of place and tradition with enlightened scientific innovation Some recipients of the Grimwades largesse had been pre determined in establishing the bequests building upon Russell s earlier commitment to biochemical research for instance while seeking to realise his long held desire to fund the birth of an antipodean Clarendon Press at Melbourne University Press With the establishment of the Miegunyah Fund Committee in 1991 the Grimwades philanthropy has enabled an exciting range of initiatives and programs For more than two decades Australia has benefited from the visits of almost a hundred international academics and thought leaders under the auspices of the Miegunyah Distinguished Visiting Fellows program The University s cultural collections have been enriched by the extraordinary treasures of the Grimwade collections encompassing significant works of art as well as rare books and items of Australiana Russell Grimwade s passion for chemistry appreciation of art and sense of obligation to preserve the past for future generations is given tangible form through the Miegunyah Fund Committee s long standing support of the University s Centre for Cultural Materials Conservation Almost forty years later the vision and generosity of the Grimwade philanthropy remains one of the University of Melbourne s most significant gifts

MUP Stuart Kells, 2023-02-07 Australia s oldest university press is also one of our best known and most trusted publishers Founded in 1921 as a bookshop for students at the University of Melbourne Melbourne University Press was soon publishing important works that contained the best of national scholarship Landmark MUP books and series include The Australian Dictionary of Biography Manning Clark s History of Australia The Encyclopaedia of New Guinea and the journal Meanjin These and other MUP publications helped shape how Australians perceived themselves and how they talked about literature politics race the Pacific the world wars and public policy From its inception MUP grappled with hard questions How should a university press be governed To what extent should such a press be concerned with political polemical and radical works And can a university press be financially self sustaining if it focuses on books that commercial publishers overlook The respective leaders of MUP answered these questions in ways that regularly led the press into controversy Using a century of MUP publications and archives Stuart Kells has written a rich and fascinating history of an invaluable Australian institution one that is widely seen as public property and whose ups and downs have always been news

Transforming Biology Juliet Flesch, 2015-04-01 Transforming Biology opens a window on the lives and work of the scientists teachers and students who have contributed to the achievements of the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at the University of Melbourne Established in 1938 the department teaches and undertakes research in a discipline that links chemistry physiology genetics microbiology virology and physics and has championed new techniques and biotechnology innovations that reverberate around the world Highlighting the successful careers of many of its alumni and staff including the influential Victor Trikojus and the impact of benefactors such as Russell Grimwade Juliet Flesch tells the story of the evolution of a department engaged in fundamental biomolecular science as well as the translation of discoveries to industry and the clinic It has been one of the most important national and international bodies engaged in transforming biology

Strangers in a Foreign Land Neil Black, Maggie MacKellar, 2008-01-01 When Niel Black one of the most influential settlers of the Western District of Victoria stepped onto the sand at Port Phillip Bay in 1839 and declared Melbourne to be almost altogether a Scotch settlement he was paying the newly created outpost of the British Empire his highest compliment His journal reproduced here in its entirety provides rare insight into the realities of early settlement in Victoria detailing experiences of personal hardship and physical danger as well as the potential for accumulating great wealth and success Drawing on the extensive collections of the State Library of Victoria Strangers in a Foreign Land also includes glimpses into the lives of other settlers and the indigenous people of the area It evokes the sense of place and dislocation that the early settlers encountered and the hopes and anxieties they carried with them as they created new homes in Australia

Henry Handel Richardson Vol 2 Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-17 The publication of Henry Handel Richardson's correspondence will be a major event in Australian scholarly publishing It will be the first time any Australian literary writer has had his/her correspondence published in its entirety The letters of Henry Handel Richardson deposited in the National Library of Australia in Canberra and in the Mitchell Library in Sydney were opened in March 1996 to unrestricted access after a fifty year period of closed access The executrix of the HHR estate has determined however that none of the letters may be published in whole or in part until after Probyn and Steele's edition of the complete correspondence has been released At present there are approximately 1800 unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which at least 1000 are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA for the period 1874 to 1946 Within the total number there are two quite distinct and major sub groups the first 1910-14 being a collection of both sides of the correspondence between HHR and the French translator of Maurice Guest Paul Solanges the second 1911-46 letters between HHR and Mary A Kernot of Melbourne As well as the letters held in the National and Mitchell libraries the editors possess an entire sequence of letters from William Heinemann to HHR and her husband John George Robertson detailing the publication history of Ultima Thule the final volume of The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney the trilogy which cemented her international reputation They are adding to the collection almost monthly but have reason to believe that about 90% of the extant letters are now in their possession The letters as might be expected shed much new light on HHR's biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The series includes HHR's earliest letter her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahoney The End of a Childhood and The Young Cosima and her experience of life in wartime England Some of the most vivid letters describe her schooldays the biographical context for

The Getting of Wisdom her memories of the Australian bush her relationship with Vance and Nettie Palmer her meetings with Miles Franklin her views on contemporary writing and life in wartime England In particular the letters to and from Solanges are packed with information about the writing the autobiographical roots and the meaning of Maurice Guest The letters to Kernot provide constant linkages between life in England and Australia during the most formative period for modern Australian literature including the negotiations for HHR s Nobel Prize nomination Eye for Eternity Mark

McKenna,2020-11-03 Manning Clark was a complex demanding and brilliant man Mark McKenna s compelling biography of this giant of Australia s cultural landscape is informed by his reading of Clark s extensive private letters journals and diaries many that have never been read before An Eye for Eternity paints a sweeping portrait of the man who gave Australians the signature account of their own history It tells of his friendships with Patrick White and Sidney Nolan It details an urgent and dynamic marriage ripped apart at times by Clark s constant need for extramarital romantic love A son who wrote letters to his dead parents A historian who placed narrative ahead of facts A doubter who flirted with Catholicism A controversial public figure who marked slights and criticisms with deeply held grudges To understand Clark s life is to understand twentieth century Australia And it raises fundamental questions about the craft of biography When are letters too personal comments too hurtful and insights too private to publish Clark incessantly documented his life leaving notes to the biographers he knew would pursue his story He had a deep need to be remembered and this book means he will now be understood in an unforgettable way

A Hostile Beauty Alistair Dermer,Danielle Wood,2011-09 There are few places today that are truly wild Macquarie Island is still one such place a small wind blasted rocky outcrop between Tasmania and Antarctica In exquisite pictures and words A Hostile Beauty tells the story of this extraordinary Australian outpost teeming with life Alistair Dermer s stunning photography gives us an up close look at the lives of the inhabitants gentle gentoo penguins engorged elephant seal bulls and scavenging skuas and takes us deep into a landscape that is as beautiful and life giving as it is hostile and pitiless Let these superb images from the fury of the squalling Southern Ocean to the warm trusting eyes of a seal pup transport you to one of the most remote and spectacular places on Earth

Shooting the Picture Sally Young,Fay Anderson,2016-08-01 Shooting The Picture is the story of Australian press photography from 1888 to today the power of the medium seismic changes in the newspaper industry and photographers who were often more colourful than their subjects This groundbreaking book explores our political leaders and campaigns crime war and censorship international events disasters and trauma sport celebrity gender race and migration It maps the technological evolution in the industry from the dark room to digital from picturegram machines to iPhones and from the death knock to the ascendancy of social media It raises the question whether these changes will spell the end of traditional press photography as we know it

Permanent Revolution Richard Haese,2012-02-01 In 1961 the 22 year old Mike Brown joined the New Zealand artist Ross Crothall in an old terrace house in inner Sydney s Annandale Over the following two years the artists filled the house with a remarkable body of work Launched with an equally extraordinary exhibition the movement they called Imitation Realism introduced collage assemblage and installation to Australian art for the first time Laying the groundwork for a distinctive Australian postmodernism Imitation Realism was also the first Australian art movement to respond in a profound way to Aboriginal art and to the tribal art of New Guinea and the Pacific region By the mid 1960s Brown was already the most controversial figure in Australian art In 1963 a key work was thrown out of a major travelling exhibition for being overtly sexual a year later he publicly attacked Sydney artists and critics for having failed the test of integrity Finally in 1966 67 Brown became the only Australian artist to have been successfully prosecuted for obscenity Brown spent the last 28 years of his life in Melbourne where his reputation for radicalism and nonconformity was cemented with his multiplicity of styles exploration of themes of sexuality and transgressive commitment to the ideal of street art and graffiti Against a background of the counter culture and the social and political upheavals of the 1960s and 1970s Brown s art and remarkable life of personal and creative struggle is without parallel in Australian art

B.A. Santamaria Bartholomew Augustine Santamaria,2008 B A Santamaria was a political activist and traditionalist Catholic layman prominent in public affairs in 20th century Australia He was a key figure in the disastrous split in the Australian Labor Party in 1954 one of the key events in Australian polit

Possession Bain Attwood,2015-02-04 It contemplates why these agreements were forged how the Aboriginal people understood their terms why government repudiated them and how settlers claimed to be the rightful owners of the land Bain Attwood also reveals the ways in which the settler society has endeavoured to make good its act of possession by repeatedly creating histories that have recalled or repressed the memory of Batman the treaties and the Aborigines destruction and dispossession and charts how Aboriginal people have unsettled this matter of history through their remembering

The Memoirs of a Young Bastard Tim Burstall, 2012 Tim Burstall the celebrated director of Stork Alvin Purple and numerous other definitive ocker comedies is credited with shaking the moribund Australian film industry out of its torpor But long before that in the early 1950s he began keeping a diary to record the world of the group of arties and intellectuals he was living among in Eltham then a rural area outside Melbourne where cheap land was available for mudbrick houses and studios and where suburban rigidities could be mercilessly flouted Burstall was in his mid twenties with two young sons and an open marriage with his wife Betty Eager to become a writer to go against the grain he kept a record almost daily of the parties and the talk in pubs and studios about art and politics and sex of Communist Party branch meetings and film societies of political rallies and the first Herald Outdoor Art Show Somehow while holding down a public relations job in the Antarctic Division and juggling his love affairs and obsession with the beautiful brainy Fay he wrote 500 words almost every day Betty according to the diaries kept the show on the road feeding friends after the pub milking goats and working in her pottery making bowls and mugs which Tim sometimes decorated at weekends These Memoirs of a Young Bastard as Burstall dubbed himself and them are among the most evocative Australian diaries of modern times Burstall can write He has an eye for the telling detail an unerring ear for cant and pomposity and most endearingly an ability to mock himself always from the perspective of a bloke of his generation

Margaret Preston Lesley Harding, 2016-10-03 Celebrated for her vibrant and distinctive pictures of indigenous flowers artist Margaret Preston was an equally colourful and outspoken personality Less well known is her legacy as a generous and insightful teacher and keen cook and her deep sense of civic duty She was passionate about the need for a modern national culture that reflected everyday life For Preston the building blocks of such a culture were not to be found in the Australian pastoral landscape tradition but in the home and garden Maintaining that art should be within everyone's reach she published widely on the methods and techniques of a host of creative pursuits from pottery printmaking and basket weaving to the gentle art of flower arranging She devoted much of her career to the genre of still life depicting humble domestic objects and flowers from her garden and often painting in the kitchen while keeping one eye on the stew Drawing on recipes from handwritten books found in the National Gallery of Australia and richly illustrated with Preston's paintings prints and photographs this book sheds new light on the fascinating private life of a much loved Australian artist

Blood & Tinsel Jim Sharman, 2008 Jim Sharman is one of Australia's visionary greats low brow high brow pop yet classical fearless and fun Baz Luhrmann Blood and Tinsel is a stunning self portrait lyrical wry smart and uncompromising of one of the most daring Australian directors Jim has perched ringside at the carnival of his own times and it's a hot ticket The Sharman Shaman Showman firmament twinkles with galaxies as diverse as Rocky Horror Hair discovering Kubrick Lou Reed Weimar cabaret He made Australian creativity hip and original and international when it really mattered Geoffrey Rush In Blood and Tinsel Jim Sharman takes us on an epic personal journey from his colourful childhood in his father's boxing troupe to Tokyo London Berlin and Sydney via the international successes of The Rocky Horror Picture Show Hair and Jesus Christ Superstar Whether recounting conversations with Lou Reed giving us the inside story about Rocky Horror or describing a fateful meeting with Patrick White Jim Sharman casts a brilliant story of the people and events that have shaped the times Blood and Tinsel ranges from the rough and ready world of outback Australia in the fifties where boxers and panto dames shared the stage to the cultural explosions in which Sharman played a part Blood and Tinsel is a remarkable story about Australia It is also a moving tribute to a family legendary in the entertainment stakes

Peter Thomson Five Tony Walker, 2016-08-01 Peter Thomson won five golf Open Championships He is only the third golfer to have won five or more behind the great Harry Vardon who won six It is a feat unlikely to be repeated in the modern era and puts him in the legendary league of sports players like Don Bradman Rod Laver Margaret Court and Dawn Fraser

Committed to Learning Juliet Flesch, 2017-11-27 Consistently ranking in the top five educational faculties in the world the Melbourne Graduate School of Education has achieved a status few would have predicted This history of the first hundred and ten years of the discipline of Education at the University of Melbourne reflects the extraordinary change in the esteem in which it has been held in the university Australia and the world The very idea of Education as a suitable course of study at a university was initially opposed and until recently the standing of this faculty compared to other professional faculties such as Law or Medicine has been less than equal But since the University was revitalised and reorganised under the Melbourne Model in 2008 its reputation has risen steadily Committed to Learning brings to life those whose vision and hard work since its early beginning have brought such success to this faculty

Notebooks Betty Churcher, 2011 In this gorgeously illustrated book join Betty Churcher on a personal tour of her most beloved works including masterpieces by Rembrandt Goya Manet Velázquez Courbet Vermeer and Cézanne A trained artist Betty's sketches reveal the secrets within the artworks and the processes of their creation With the gift for making art accessible that characterised her popular television series she gently leads your eye to these paintings intimate details describing their kinship with other masterpieces and their place in the history of art Betty Churcher's deeply held belief that art has the power to transport the viewer to another place and time is evident in this delightful book Here there is no doubting the magic of great art

The Garden of Ideas Richard Aitken, 2010 The Garden of Ideas tells an inspiring and engaging story of Australian garden design From the imaginings of emigrant garden makers of the late eighteenth century to the concerns of twenty first century gardeners this book charts its way across four centuries through a handsome and satisfying fusion of images and text The Garden of Ideas is embellished with an unparalleled array of images paintings drawings prints plans and photographs each richly evocative of their time and most never previously published Unearthed from around Australia and many from overseas these images carry the story of Australian garden style down the years in the process criss crossing social and cultural history across the wide extremes of our continent Richard Aitken whose book Botanical Riches was published in 2006 to popular and critical acclaim brings a lifetime of experience to The Garden of Ideas He achieves fresh insights and presents our passion for garden making with wit and flair The Garden of Ideas is a valuable source book for the sophisticated gardener and an indispensable companion for the garden lover
