Ziglar The Courtesans (Books 1-4): Scandalous Spinsters Emma Locke, 2016-11-17 THE TROUBLE WITH BEING WICKED When Celeste Gray arrives in the sleepy village of Brixcombe on the Bay she thinks she's one step closer to leaving her notorious past behind. She even suspects the deliciously handsome if somewhat stuffy viscount next door is developing a tendre for her. That is until the day Ashlin Lancaster learns she's not the unassuming spinster she's pretending to be. THE PROBLEM WITH SEDUCTION Elizabeth Spencer needs a man. Preferably one who won't be too picky about the morality of her proposition or his reputation. Lord Constantine Alexander can't afford another trip to debtors' prison which makes him the perfect candidate. She doesn't expect him to have a heart of gold or to hold up his end of the bargain particularly when his high in the instep family gets involved. Nor does she expect to find him irresistible because while she needs a man she doesn't particularly want one. A GAME OF PERSUASION Miss Lucy Lancaster has loved her brother's best friend Roman Alexander for as long as she can remember. So devotedly she's vowed never to marry anyone else. But her beloved libertine is hardly aware of her existence and not the least deserving of her affection. Deciding her cause is lost she makes plans to open a girls' school in Bath. There's just one thing she needs to do before she confirms her spinsterhood forever: spend one blissful night in Roman's arms. But her handsome rogue isn't ready to have the tables turned. It will take more than a coquettish smile to turn his head. She must play a game of persuasion. THE ART OF RUINING A RAKE Practiced rake Roman Alexander Lord Montborne never meant to seduce his best friend's sister. He certainly never intends to do it again. The reckless scoundrel has never felt more compelled to be a better man. Nevertheless he can't seem to forget her or her passionate response to his kisses. How much danger can there be in one more try. Revolution in The Valley [Paperback] Andy Hertzfeld, Steve Capps, 2005 Subtitle on spine: The insanely great story of how the Mac was made. The New York Times Book Review, 1989

Talking the Talk Lorraine Merritt, 2003 More often than ever before we are called upon to speak in public. This book explains the very real psychological changes that occur when we are engaged in public speaking and offers practical solutions to enable even the most timid to overcome the jitters and become accomplished public speakers. Applying the Sermon Daniel Overdorf, 2009-08-28 Finally a tool to help pastors shape applications that so many congregations have long desired. Even the most seasoned homileticians balk at sermon application. Why? Because application requires preachers to toss a grenade like this: saith the Lord into people's lives and to do so repeatedly. From the introduction: Despite the concern many pastors feel when it comes to sermon application, most homiletics texts devote little more than a chapter if that to this vital topic. Daniel Overdorf has filled this glaring gap with Applying the Sermon. This book equips preachers to develop sermon application that grows from the biblical text and addresses the needs of contemporary congregations. Each chapter includes snippets of interviews with five of today's most respected homileticians: Haddon Robinson, Will Willimon, Tom Long, Vic Pentz, and Bob Russell. A great addition to any pastoral library and a valuable resource for Bible college and seminary courses. Overdorf's Applying the Sermon also includes an extensive bibliography and a sermon application worksheet to give pastors

The Passion and Persuasion Robert Hach, 2011 Robert Hach is a professor of Rhetoric and Composition at Miami Dade College in Miami Florida His first book Possession and Persuasion: The Rhetoric of Christian Faith is a rhetorical analysis of the development of Christian faith from its associational beginnings as the persuasive power of the spoken message that Jesus passed on to his first century followers to its organizational emergence as the possessive power of the religious institution that eventually became known as the Church In the present volume The Passion and Persuasion: A Biblical Deconstruction of the Evangelical Rhetoric of the Cross the author analyzes the rhetoric of evangelical Christianity regarding the crucifixion of Jesus and shows that the evangelical doctrine of the atonement both misreads the New Testament language about Jesus crucifixion and perverts the biblical portrayal of Jesus God By exposing the logical and theological fallacies of the evangelical doctrine as well as its pernicious rhetorical effects the author clears the way for an understanding of the crucifixion of Jesus that is not only demonstrably truer to the biblical language but also infinitely richer in its effect on believing hearts
