Oecumene Als Leerproces Inleidend In De Oecumenica:

Oecumene als leerproces Bert Hoedemaker, L. A. Hoedemaker, Anton W. J. Houtepen, Theo Witvliet, 1993 Oecumene als leerproces Libertus Arend Hoedemaker, Anton Willem Joseph Houtepen, Jasper Theodoor Witvliet, 2005 Theology of Ministry Borght, 2007-06-30 Theology of ministry has always been a controversial issue in the relation between churches especially with its juridical approach that concentrated on authority In recent decades the secularization and individualization in the Western world have intensified the challenge to reformulate the mission of the church and its ministries Building on the Reformed theology of the 16th century Zwingli Calvin and confessions and on the results of the ecumenical convergence on ministry BEM in the 20th century this study presents building blocks for a renewed theology of ministry in the 21st century A Reformed Voice in the Ecumenical Discussion Martien Brinkman, 2016-04-26 In A Reformed Voice in the Ecumenical Discussion Martien E Brinkman offers a critical account of the main international ecumenical developments of the last three decades He delivers a sketch of the Reformed contribution to the ecumenical dialogues dealing with issues like contextuality state church relations the ethical implications of baptism the church as sacrament of the kingdom and apostolic tradition He pleads for a stronger non Western input in the ecumenical discussions and emphasizes that in many contexts Indonesia India China the interreligious dialogue has become part of the inner Christian dialogue This study can be considered as a constructive contribution to the development of a hermeneutics of tradition and puts itself the critical question what is lost and found in translation From Canonical Criticism to Ecumenical Exegesis? Peter-Ben Smit, 2015-07-14 This study explores and compares the role of the canon in the work of Brevard S Childs James A Sanders Peter Stuhlmacher Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI and the Amsterdam School of exegesis thus offering a broad overview of approaches and perspectives within the spectrum covered by canonical criticism In doing so both the theory of canonical criticism offered by each of the five is analysed and a sample of an actual exegesis is discussed Observing that the interplay between text reader and community of interpretation is key to all of these approaches the study proceeds to create a dialogue between canonical criticism and ecumenical hermeneutics which leads to a proposal for an approach to exegesis that integrates elements of canonical hermeneutics ecumenical hermeneutics and intercultural perspectives

Visser 't Hooft, 1900-1985 Jurjen Zeilstra, 2025-10-01 God's diplomat the pope of the ecumenical movement but also an acerbic theologian and a difficult person this is how journalists characterised Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft 1900 1985 He was one of the best known Dutch theologians outside the Netherlands and he left his mark on the world church Even at an early age he made profound efforts in support of international ecumenical youth and student organisations Dutch Student Christian Movement YMCA and World Student Christian Federation He led the World Council of Churches during its formative stages from 1938 and after its formal establishment in 1948 became its first general secretary serving until 1966 To Visser 't Hooft the unity of the church was both an article of faith and a pragmatic organisation of church influence in a disunited world Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways

The Church in Relation to the World Ch. Albert Jan Stam, 2008 Progress in Unity? Martien E. Brinkman, 1995 As an expert and lively tour guide Brinkman takes the reader through the breathtaking landscape of a half century of ecumenical dialogue The author makes an invaluable contribution by his deft selection of documents his thought provoking commentary on key issues and his keen discernment of the missionary challenge that faces the church of Christ as it travels on the road to greater visible unity the work is equally suitable for personal reading and for the college or seminary classroom A veritable feast for ecumenical and evangelical readers This work is a refreshing stimulus to reflection prayer and action for the unity and mission of the church in a troubled world George Vandervelde President of the North American Academy of Ecumenists Professor of Systematic Theology Institute for Christian Studies Toronto Canada One thing becomes clear from Martien Brinkman's book those who claim that the ecumenical movement went into a deadlock have not studied its results Most people suffer from a lack of memory when it comes to the history of ecumenical theology during the past 70 years This book provides medicine for ecumenical amnesia It deals especially with the Faith and Order Movement and Commission within the World Council of Churches There flows from Brinkman's book a whole new stream of an ecumenical theological tradition which is scarcely known even to academic theologians This tradition treats of such matters as Scripture and Tradition Faith and Sacraments Church World and Kingdom of God This book provides an excellent overview and in depth evaluation of the major currents in this developing ecumenical tradition It will certainly promote its reception in the churches and its study in the academy At the same time however it keeps an eye open for the difficulties and tensions of the dialogue between ecumenical and evangelical Christians and between the theological methods of the North and the South It will be difficult to find any more reliable study guide to the results of the multilateral ecumenical dialogues of the twentieth century Anton Houtepen Professor of Ecumenism University of Utrecht The Netherlands This book conceived as a study guide to the Faith and Order Movement does precisely what it sets out to do and does it well It brings the reader into close contact with the documents and studies published by this influential section of the World Council of Churches Such an inventory comes at the right time just as the Commission on Faith and Order takes stock after the World Conference of Santiago and under the guidance of a new director It is no secret that Faith and Order has been invited to reflect upon its future orientation The well documented and orderly survey which Prof Brinkman offers us here will certainly be of help in such a process Jos Vercruyssen S J Professor of Church History and Ecumenism Pontifical Gregorian University Rome

World Christianity Reconsidered Anton Houtepen, 2001 Praxis, Probleme und Perspektiven ökumenischer Prozesse Maria Wernsmann, 2016-11-01 Practice Problems and Prospects of Ecumenical Processes A Contribution to Theory Building Why is ecumenism in need of a theory The monograph investigates this topical question by seizing on the barely received thesis of the ecumenicist Peter Lengsfeld Ecumenical processes are determined by an interaction of non theological and theological factors Central categories within his theory are truth social structure and identity of the churches which have a mutual influence on each other in ecumenism The monograph contributes to the construction of an ecumenical theory by critically reflecting on Lengsfeld s approach For this purpose the author analyses histories of denominational separations and the practice of ecumenical processes identifies problems in ecumenism and in theory building and develops prospects for their understanding and possibilities for action Missiology Laurent W. Ramambason, 1999 Missiology is the study of mission does the persons who are active in Christianisation with attention to the dialectic of personhood Mission is what a mission doer thinks it is The understanding of missiology is illustrated with reference to the Church of Jesus Christ in Madagascar under the impact of the Gorbachev transition 1985 93 Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft Jurjen Albert Zeilstra, 2020-11-01 Er gehörte zu den bekanntesten Protestanten seiner Zeit und wurde sogar als Diplomat Gottes oder auch als Papst der kumene bezeichnet der niederländische Theologe Willem Adolf Visser t Hooft 1900 1985 der von 1948 bis 1966 der erste Generalsekretär des ökumenischen Rates der Kirchen war Erstmals wird sein Leben hier in einer wissenschaftlichen Biografie vorgestellt Eng verwoben mit den großen Herausforderungen des 20. Jahrhunderts wie dem Aufstieg Hitlers und des Nationalsozialismus des Zweiten Weltkrieges der Nachkriegszeit der Entkolonialisierung und dem Kalten Krieg zeichnet Jurjen Zeilstra ein vielschichtiges Bild des Menschenfischers Visser t Hooft der immer wieder junge Menschen für die kumene zu begeistern wusste Tabellenboek wetenschappelijk onderwijs en onderzoek Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, 1993 Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1996 The Writers Directory ,2013 Boekblad ,1996 Tijdschrift voor theologie ,1995 Meroitica ,1973
