A Nazi Camp Near Danzig Ruth Schwertfeger,2022-02-24 Within the vast network of Nazi camps Stutthof may be the least known beyond Poland This book is the first scholarly publication in English to break the silence of Stutthof where 120 000 people were interned and at least 65 000 perished A Nazi Camp Near Danzig offers an overview of Stutthof s history It also explores Danzig s significance in promoting the cult of German nationalism which led to Stutthof s establishment and which shaped its subsequent development in 1942 into a Concentration Camp with the full resources of the Nazi Reich The book shows how Danzig Gdansk generally identified as the city where the Second World War started became under Albert Forster Hitler s hand picked Gauleiter the vanguard of Germandom in the east and with its disputed history the poster city for the Third Reich It reflects on the fact that Danzig was close enough to supply Stutthof with both prisoners initially local Poles and Jews as well as local men for its SS workforce Throughout the study Ruth Schwertfeger draws on the stories of Danziger and Nobel Prize winner G nter Grass to consider the darker realities of German nationalism that even Grass s vibrant depictions and wit cannot mask Schwertfeger demonstrates how German nationalism became more lethal for all prisoners especially after the summer of 1944 when thousands of Jewish woman died in the Stutthof camp system or perished in the death marches after January 1945 Schwertfeger uses archival and literary sources as well as memoirs to allow the voices of the victims to speak Their testimonies are juxtaposed with the justifications of perpetrators The book successfully argues that in the end Stutthof was no less lethal than other camps of the Third Reich even if it was and remains less well known

Death Dealer Rudolf Hoss, 2012-08-31 By his own admission SS Kommandant Rudolf Hoss was history's greatest mass murderer having personally supervised the extermination of approximately two million people mostly Jews at the death camp in Auschwitz Poland Death Dealer is the first complete translation of Hoss's memoirs into English These bone chilling memoirs were written between October 1946 and April 1947 At the suggestion of Professor Stanislaw Batavia a psychologist and Professor Jan Shen the prosecuting attorney for the Polish War Crimes Commission in Warsaw Hoss wrote a lengthy and detailed description of how the camp developed his impressions of the various personalities with whom he dealt and even the extermination of millions in the gas chambers This written testimony is perhaps the most important document attesting to the Holocaust because it is the only candid detailed and for the most part honest description of the Final Solution from a high ranking SS officer intimately involved in carrying out the plans of Hitler and Himmler With the cold objectivity of a common hit man Hoss chronicles the discovery of the most effective poison gas and the technical obstacles that often thwarted his aim to kill as efficiently as possible Staring at the horror without reacting Hoss allowed conditions at Auschwitz to reduce human beings to walking skeletons then he labelled them as subhumans fit only to die Readers will witness Hoss's shallow rationalizations as he tries to balance his deeds with his increasingly disturbed yet always ineffectual conscience
