Offerings At The Wall Artifacts From The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Collection:

Offerings at the Wall Thomas B. Allen, 1999-07 On Veterans Day 1982 a unique monument was dedicated in Wash DC with 140 black panels engraved with the names of the more than 58 000 Americans who died in Vietnam Now as much a shrine as a monument the Vietnam Wall has become a pilgrimage site a place where people leave votive offerings in a variety too wide to categorize All of them have been collected preserved cataloged by the National Park Service This volume presents a selection of the mementos left at the wall ranging from combat boots weapons to baseballs bubble gum wrappers to a family photograph taken from the body of a dead Vietnamese soldier Offerings at the Wall Thomas B. Allen, 1995 Shows artifacts left at the memorial including medals letters crosses combat paraphernalia and flags Carried to the Wall Kristin Ann Hass, 2023-04-28 On May 9 1990 a bottle of Jack Daniels a ring with letter a Purple Heart and Bronze Star a baseball a photo album an ace of spades and a pie were some of the objects left at the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial For Kristin Hass this eclectic sampling represents an attempt by ordinary Americans to come to terms with a multitude of unnamed losses as well as to take part in the ongoing debate of how this war should be remembered Hass explores the restless memory of the Vietnam War and an American public still grappling with its commemoration In doing so it considers the ways Americans have struggled to renegotiate the meanings of national identity patriotism community and the place of the soldier in the aftermath of a war that ruptured the ways in which all of these things have been traditionally defined Hass contextualizes her study of this phenomenon within the history of American funerary traditions in particular non Anglo traditions in which material offerings are common the history of war memorials and the changing symbolic meaning of war Her evocative analysis of the site itself illustrates and enriches her larger theses regarding the creation of public memory and the problem of remembering war and the resulting causalities in this case not only 58 000 soldiers but also conceptions of masculinity patriotism and working class pride and idealism On May 9 1990 a bottle of Jack Daniels a ring with letter a Purple Heart and Bronze Star a baseball a photo album an ace of spades and a pie were some of the objects left at the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial For Kristin Hass this eclectic sampli Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 On American cultural memory The Vietnam War in American Memory Christian Goodwillie, Jane F. Crosthwaite, 2009 From the very beginning in the 1770s singing was an important part of the worship services of the Shakers formally known as the United Society of Believers in Christ s Second Appearing Yet until the early nineteenth century nearly all Shaker songs were wordless expressed in unknown tongues or as enthusiastic vocalizations Only when Shaker missionaries moved west into Ohio and Kentucky did they begin composing hymn texts chiefly as a means of conveying the sect s unconventional religious ideas to new converts In 1812 13 the Shakers published their first hymnal This venture titled Millennial Praises included the texts without music for one hundred and forty hymns and elucidated the radical and feminist theology of the Shakers neatly distilled in verse This scholarly edition of the hymnal joins the texts to original Shaker tunes for the first time

One hundred and twenty six of the tunes preserved in the Society's manuscript hymnals have been transcribed from Shaker musical notation into modern standard notation thus opening this important religious and folk repertoire to modern scholars. Many texts are presented with a wide range of variant tunes from Shaker communities in New England, New York, Ohio, and Kentucky. Introductory essays by volume editors Christian Goodwillie and Jane F. Crosthwaite place Millennial Praises in the context of Shaker history and offer a thorough explication of the Society's theology. They track the use of the hymnal from the point of publication up to the present day beginning with the use of the hymns by both Shaker missionaries and anti-Shaker apostates and ending with the current use of the hymns by the last remaining Shaker family at Sabbathday Lake, Maine. The volume includes a CD of historical recordings of six Shaker songs by Brother Ricardo Belden, the last member of the Society at Hancock Shaker Village.

Documents That Changed the Way We Live Joseph Janes, 2017-05-26 Documents are milestones and markers of human activity, part of who and what we are. Our story can be told through the objects profound and trivial, famous and forgotten, by which we remember and are remembered. Documents That Changed the Way We Live examines dozens of compelling stories that describe these documents, their creation, motivation, influence, importance, historical and social context, provenance, and their connections to contemporary information, objects, technologies, and trends. These documents include the following: Exaltation of Inanna, a Sumerian hymn composed c. 2300 BCE by the high priestess Enheduanna, likely the first known author of anything; The We Can Do It poster; everybody knows it; Rosie the Riveter calling women to work in the factories in World War II; Except it's not, and she isn't; Joseph McCarthy's list of Communists that ruined lives and careers because it was believed even though it never existed; The He has waged cruel war passage on slavery deleted from the Declaration of Independence; The poorly designed Palm Beach County butterfly ballot on which the 2000 U.S. presidential election may have hinged; And the lesser-known stories behind the Zapruder Film, the Watergate tapes, the Obama birth certificate, airplane black boxes, Thanksgiving IQ tests, the Star Spangled Banner, why Americans spell the way they do, Nobel Prizes, Wikipedia, and how you're cooking dinner tonight.

American Studies Janice A. Radway, Kevin Gaines, Barry Shank, Penny Von Eschen, 2009-03-09 American Studies is a vigorous, bold account of the changes in the field of American Studies over the last thirty-five years. Through this set of carefully selected key essays by an editorial board of expert scholars, the book demonstrates how changes in the field have produced new genealogies that tell different histories of both America and the study of America. Charts the evolution of American Studies from the end of World War II to the present day by showcasing the best scholarship in this field. An introductory essay by the distinguished editorial board highlights developments in the field and places each essay in its historical and theoretical context. Explores topics such as American politics, history, culture, race, gender, and working life. Shows how changing perspectives have enabled older concepts to emerge in a different context.

Memorials to Shattered Myths Harriet Senie, 2016 Memorials to the Vietnam War veterans, Oklahoma City bombing, Columbine school shooting, and 9/11 terrorist attacks commemorate events that shattered myths of Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley,2014-12-18 This comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion offers a unique look at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century Previous scholarship has largely focused on traditional beliefs and paid little attention to how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social context Employing a sociological approach Death and Religion in a Changing World describes how people from a wide variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies The book includes coverage of newly emerging social and religious phenomena that are only just beginning to be analyzed by religion scholars such as public shrines the role of the media spiritual bereavement groups and the use of the Internet in death practices

Textures of Place Paul C. Adams,Steven D. Hoelscher,Karen E. Till,2001 Annotation A fresh and far ranging interpretation of the concept of place this volume begins with a fundamental tension of our day as communications technologies help create a truly global economy the very political economic processes that would seem to homogenize place actually increase the importance of individual localities which are exposed to global flows of investment population goods and pollution Place no less today than in the past is fundamental to how the world works The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations Their essays draw from a wide array of methodologies and perspectives including feminism ethnography poststructuralism ecocriticism and landscape ichnography to examine themes as diverse as morality and imagination attention and absence personal and group identity social structure home nature and cosmos

Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens, Karen A. Franck, 2015-08-11 Memorials are more diverse in design and subject matter than ever before No longer limited to statues of heroes placed high on pedestals contemporary memorials engage visitors in new often surprising ways contributing to the liveliness of public space In Memorials as Spaces of Engagement Quentin Stevens and Karen A Franck explore how changes in memorial design and use have helped forge closer richer relationships between commemorative sites and their visitors The authors combine first hand analysis of key examples with material drawn from existing scholarship Examples from the US Canada Australia and Europe include official formally designed memorials and informal ones those created by the public without official sanction Memorials as Spaces of Engagement discusses important issues for the design management and planning of memorials and public space in general The book is organized around three topics how the physical design of memorial objects and spaces has evolved since the 19th century how people experience and understand memorials through the activities of commemorating occupying and interpreting and the issues memorials raise for management and planning Memorials as Spaces of Engagement will be of interest to architects landscape architects and artists historians of art architecture and culture urban sociologists and geographers planners policymakers and memorial sponsors and all those concerned with the design and use of public space
