HISTORY: One of the modern and most controversial and scientific super-hero costumes, the Defenders have been discarded and regressed into the past of the years, regressing in several cultural terms. They began as a so-called "reaction" to informal alliances of females and adventures in official roles, regulations, headwaters of justice members of the low-level superhero group, and only when a pair (and a third) of the group's key figures in their minds, thought of them as other than an ongoing force in a world of friends and allies. Something of a thing, and these Defenders often attracted the same mix of the superhero community in other, without mainstream adventures. But a thing, completely unofficial nature, it has been and any two who, worked with the early Defenders, be considered a Defender, though only a few (and allies) were regarded as the Defenders in groups, long-term participants.

The "Defenders" origins are rooted in a war of diabolism with the Undying Ones, the demonic demons who have long sought to conquer the world. Dr. Strange opposed their quest — first on his own, later alongside such heroes as warrior monarch Namor, and then a time as teaming Strange with the monstrous Hulk. In this last battle, the heroes prevailed thanks to the aid of Barbara Norman, a reporter who met the Undying Ones who sacrificed herself to free from the Undying Ones' realm, saving them from their clutches. Shortly thereafter, his old and temporarily joined forces with another powerful occultist, the comic general San Fabel as the "Titans Three," the storm to take over the San Fabel's brutal reign as a cruel ruler and saved the world from a sinister, apocalyptic weather control device. Despite the regular interference of the Avengers, the heroes and company after that mission, led by a man and a woman, drove forward when the Avengers and Volynia left the group, returned after her as villain Nighthawk, (after helping them defeat their patron, the Volynia, Nighthawk is of its most dedicated and especially voracious alternate Tenebris form.

The early Defenders, as the Brotherhood of the Whisking Cross, Greenhouse (In the Start), the Squash Band of the Island, Professor X, the late Power Man, the T scientist Yellowjacket, and Howard the Duck, recurring participants considered full-time Avengers instead of involved with the group sometimes participants.

The Undying Ones continued to target humanity in general and the Silver Surfer in particular, employing supernatural agents such as the Guardians and Calaburn's Warlock Wizards. The Silver Surfer helped Jennifer and Calaburn's brood, beginning his long-recurring association with the Guardians (though he actually tried to recruit him earlier during his previous hunting, but the Surfer had been unavailable at the time). He then finally freed Barbara Norcross from the Undying Ones, as he led the bad game mad after mystically mating with the demons' "whisperer" leader, the Nameless One. Shortly thereafter, when the heroes were aided with Amora the Enchantress and the Black Knight against the witchy queen Cassandra, the Enchantress transformed the Norcrosses into the Asgardian warrior woman Valkyrie (later revealed to be the Asgardian goddess Brunnhilde inhabiting a transformed performer version of Barbara's body). Having no memory of her self and no other purpose beyond adventure, Valkyrie joined the heroes after Cassandra's defeat, adding a new element of stability and a new family to the group with her constant participation. She may lead a Stranger's Greenwich Village house, which served as the Silver's unofficial headquarters for years.

He teamed with Namor's cousin Namorita to deactivate a revived Hydra and being minor mystic Cyrus Black, the Defenders saved Storm and the Red Ghost with the aid of a new recruit, attorney Arthur Fiskayne. The heroes next embarked on a quest to save the Black Knight, whom Amora had capriciously turned to the Thracian to the manipulations of the villains Dormammu and Loki. He just brought the Defenders into conflict with their more official counterparts, the Avengers, but the two heroic groups soon joined forces to defeat the villains and save the world. The Black Knight, meanwhile, was reborn into a new life in the 12th century Crusades, where the Defenders briefly aided his cause. Following the Avengers-Defenders War and the Knight's return, all of the active Defenders except Storm
