Television Donnetrice C. Allison, 2016-01-14 This book critically analyzes the portrayals of Black women in current reality television Audiences are presented with a multitude of images of Black women fighting arguing and cursing at one another in this manufactured world of reality television This perpetuation of negative insidious racial and gender stereotypes influences how the U S views Black women This stereotyping disrupts the process in which people are able to appreciate cultural and gender difference Instead of celebrating the diverse symbols and meaning making that accompanies Black women's discourse and identities reality television scripts an artificial or plastic image of Black women that reinforces extant stereotypes This collection's contributors seek to uncover examples in reality television shows where instantiations of Black women's gendered racial and cultural difference is signified and made sinister The Quick Fix Kitchen Tia

Passed Down From Mom The Unapologetic Voice House, 2020-05-05 All mothers hear this Tell me a story The greatest stories they have to share are the ones about being mothers Mothers have lessons to share with their children their friends spouses and even strangers This collection of short stories is told from the viewpoint of more than a dozen different mothers from all backgrounds they were born in different countries with different traditions different paths to motherhood and different advice The common theme they all share is their motherhood The stories include Birthing from the Heart the adoption memory of Alison Rand A Love Letter to My Daughter about becoming a mother for the first time by Brita Moe All Little Ants Need Their Mother about Valerie Nifora s Greek immigrant mother and a world of possibilities Creando Una Casa Nancy Brooker s memories of the food and smells of her Italian mother s home Share where a medical diagnosis gifted Cori Edwards with her mother s stories of growing up Motherhood Awakens Divine Power Intuition and Consciousness where Whitney Mullings transforms her family from the rigor of her Chinese roots to something that nurtures them all and more The advice of these authors works for new moms and mothers ready to share their memories alike they cover topics like adoption blended families immigration stories and post partum depression The stories inside touch on acceptance worthiness struggle triumph love family and peace Whether you are a mother yourself or have a strong bond with your own mother the memories within this collection will resonate with you and inspire you One Mom's Journey to Motherhood Ivy Shih Leung, 2011-11-16 Author Ivy Shih Leung shares her not so perfect road to motherhood in this book that is part memoir and part self help guide reflecting lessons learned in the form of helpful tips and information to empower readers on the biological and sociological roots behind postpartum depression PPD She also seeks to raise awareness of the myths of motherhood and the stigma of PPD that contribute to the silent suffering of many mothers as well as the importance of adequate social support in the early postpartum weeks A culmination of Ivys frightening PPD journey and her emergence from it with a passion to learn more about perinatal mood disorders this book is fueled with passion to help other women and their families anger from the unnecessary suffering Ivy went through from the lack of information available to the public about PPD her doctors ignorance and lack of sensitivity and public remarks like There is no such thing as a chemical imbalance all of which shows theres still a long way to go in terms of educating the public about an illness that is suffered by one in eight new mothers With side effects that include shame helplessness and despair at a time that is supposed to be one of the happiest in a womans life Ivy wants to help fellow PPD advocates get the message out that PPD is not a mind over matter thing as those who dont know any better tend to believe PPD is an illness that must be taken seriously We must all remember that the health of the family unit depends on the mothers well being Ivy Shih Leungs voice as a storyteller is strong loud and clear Ivy is a survivor of postpartum depression and through the written words on each page you can hear her roar Jane Honikman Founder of Postpartum Support International Picture Bride Stories Barbara F. Kawakami, 2016-06-30 During the 1885 to 1924 immigration period of plantation laborers from Japan to Hawaii more than 200 000 Japanese mostly single men made the long journey by ship to the Hawaiian Islands As it became apparent that they would never return to Japan many of the men sent for brides to join them in their adopted home More than 20 000 of these picture brides immigrated from Japan and Okinawa to Hawaii to marry husbands whom they knew only through photographs exchanged between them or their families Based on Barbara Kawakami s first hand interviews with sixteen of these women Picture Bride Stories is a poignant collection that recounts the diverse circumstances that led them to marry strangers their voyages to Hawaii the surprises and trials that they encountered upon arriving and the lives they led upon settling in a strange new land Many found hardship yet persevered and endured the difficult conditions of the sugarcane and pineapple plantations for the sake of their children As they acclimated to a foreign place and forged new relationships they overcame challenges and eventually prospered in a better life The stories of the issei women exemplify the importance of friendships and familial networks in coping with poverty and economic security Although these remarkable women are gone their legacy lives on in their children grandchildren and succeeding generations In addition to the oral histories the result of forty years of interviews the author provides substantial background on marriage customs and labor practices on the plantations

The Sacred Gem Within Michael Parlee, 2019-04-06 Rob stood by the cross at the spot where the grizzly killed his dad Please forgive for what I have to do Dad he moaned God only knows how much I m suffering I just can t stand this horrible pain anymore I ve got to end it all The 44 Colt felt cold and awkward in his hand The gun barrel glistened from the drizzle It took every ounce of strength he had to place the end of the barrel against his chest With his eyes firmly closed he cocked the 44 with his thumb and tried to squeeze the trigger His forefinger froze refusing to pull the trigger Damn it anyway Why won t my finger pull the trigger Rob cried out Rob made several more attempts but no matter how hard he tried he couldn t get his finger to squeeze the trigger He quickly changed hands but his left forefinger would not squeeze the trigger either In disgust Rob aimed the 44 at the base of the cross and pulled the trigger The gun fired blowing a hole in the base of the cross He stood there in mental anguish God Almighty he called out what a loser you are You screw up anything you try And then it happened Just as he put the barrel of the gun against his chest for another try a vision briefly flashed before his eyes He saw Ada his old girlfriend on her knees tears streaming down her cheeks He heard her pleading Oh dear God don t let Rob kill himself Will Rob end his life or will Ada s prayers be answered

In Her Own Voice Katherine Martens, Heidi Harms, 1997-05-06 Winnipeg writer Katherine Martens interviewed 26 women from the Mennonite community in southern Manitoba ranging in age from 22 to 88 years old They had many different backgrounds but they all had one important characteristic all were mothers In the course of these interviews Martens was searching for answers to questions that affected her both as a Mennonite and as a woman How did they feel when they learned of the pregnancy How did they choose home or hospital birth How did the traditions of the Mennonite culture affect them as wives and mothers As they talked many spoke about the joys and trials of giving birth and they also told Martens stories about other parts of their lives

Some had escaped the Russian Revolution to emigrate to Canada others spent their entire lives in rural Manitoba part of the close knit Mennonite community running farms and bearing as many as 15 children Younger women who had formally left the Mennonite church were still conscious of the impact of the beliefs and customs on their lives Many women were surprised to be approached for an interview insisting that they had no stories to tell One was visited in a dream by her dead husband who told her to leave that alone Yet in the privacy of their kitchens and parlours over sociable cups of tea many did share with Martens their private fears and joys about what was often seen as a rite of passage into responsible adulthood and they recalled that childbirth could be a difficult and at times traumatic event but it could also be a radiant and spiritual experience

Do It Scared Ruth Soukup,2019-05-21 Equal parts encouragement and tough love Do It Scared combines easy to implement tips with the motivation to help you stare down your fears and start making real changes that lead to big results What would you do if fear no longer stood in your way What would happen if you were no longer afraid to dive in headfirst and go after your dreams instead of sitting on the sidelines of your own life We tell ourselves we re too busy to pursue our dreams but what if the real reason we re putting off our goals is fear It s the fear that we re not good smart talented or capable enough It s the fear that others might laugh at us or that we ll get hurt or be rejected It s the fear that pursuing our true potential will simply be too hard And most of all it s the fear that we ll fail But having courage doesn t mean we re never afraid True courage means taking action despite fear True courage means doing it scared The question is how How do we face those fears and take that first step in the right direction How do we overcome the obstacles that stand in our way and sometimes feel insurmountable In Do It Scared popular blogger and podcast host Ruth Soukup will help you Identify your own unique Fear Archetype the specific type of fear that keeps you stuck and learn how to conquer it Dare to start thinking bigger about your life and your goals Learn how to seek out honest feedback to accomplish big things Embrace the core beliefs you need to overcome different types of fears Discover why our magical idea of balance is totally overrated Let go of the guilt once and for all Get ready to get off the sidelines and jump into your own life as you dare to Do It Scared Praise for Do It Scared If you re tired of playing small and are ready to embrace your future Ruth Soukup offers the actionable steps you need to get started Do It Scared is a practical guide to identifying your limiting beliefs overcoming your fears and creating the life you ve dreamed of Michael Hyatt New York Times bestselling author

Your Second Pregnancy Katie Tamony, Barbara Canida, 1995-05-01 Every pregnancy is different This is the only book available that discusses what is different about your second pregnancy and why

Forgotten Bodies Sarah A. Smith, 2023-11-10 Women from Chuuk Federated States of Micronesia who migrate to Guam a U S territory suffer disproportionately poor reproductive health outcomes Though their access to the United States is unusually easy through a unique migration agreement it keeps them in a perpetual liminal state as nonimmigrants who never fully belong as part of the United States Chuukese women move to Guam sometimes with their families but sometimes alone in search of a better life for jobs for the education system or to access safe health care Yet the imperial system they encounter creates underlying conditions that greatly and disproportionately impact their ability to succeed and thrive negatively impacting their reproductive health Through clinical and community ethnography Sarah A Smith illuminates the way this system stratifies women s reproduction at structural social and individual levels Readers can visualize how U S imperialist policies of benign neglect control the body politic change the social body and render individual bodies vulnerable in the twenty first century but also how people resist
