Memoirs of Nahum N. Glatzer Michael Fishbane, Judith Glatzer Wechsler, 1997-12-31 The geographic spiritual and intellectual journeys of Nahum N Glatzer 1903 1990 prolific scholar Brandeis University professor and editor of the Schocken publishing house reveal a rich cultural ambiance that no longer exists as well as a breadth of perspective and learning that remains enviable in our time This collection of 78 memoir entries written as a document for his family offers personal glimpses of Nahum Glatzer which complement his scholarship Episodes and vignettes in chronological sequence recount the decisive events of his travels from Bodenbach to Boston and from strict Orthodoxy to a more historical cultural and aesthetic understanding of Judaism Anecdotal and at times humorous accounts of some of the many outstanding personalities Glatzer knew and interacted with including Martin Buber and Franz Rosenzweig two of the leading German Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century Glatzer also relates a variety of his experiences and expressions of faith both personal and social The events themselves become moments of religious psychology or theological insight For Glatzer as for Rosenzweig the world was transformed by speech and the realities brought into existence through it Michael Fishbane's detailed introduction sets

these memoirs from the final decades of Glatzer's life in the context of his life and work. A preface by Judith Glatzer Wechsler offers personal reflections on the character of her father and his work. Memoir Ben Yagoda, 2009-11-12. From a critically acclaimed cultural and literary critic, a definitive history and analysis of the memoir. From Saint Augustine's Confessions to Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors, from Julius Caesar to Ulysses Grant, from Mark Twain to David Sedaris, the art of memoir has had a fascinating life and deserves its own biography. Cultural and literary critic Ben Yagoda traces the memoir from its birth in early Christian writings and Roman generals' journals all the way up to the banner year of 2007, which saw memoirs from and about dogs, rock stars, bad dads, good dads, alternadads, waitresses, George Foreman, Iranian women, and a slew of other illustrious persons and animals. In a time when memoir seems ubiquitous and is still highly controversial, Yagoda tackles the autobiography and memoir in all its forms and iterations. He discusses the fraudulent memoir and provides many examples from the past and addresses the ramifications and consequences of these books. Spanning decades and nations, styles and subjects, he analyzes the hallmark memoirs of the Western tradition: Rousseau, Ben Franklin, Henry Adams, Gertrude Stein, Edward Gibbon, among others. Yagoda also describes historical trends such as Native American captive memoirs, slave narratives, courtier dramas where one had to pay to NOT be included in a courtesan's memoir. Throughout, the idea of memory and truth, how we remember and how well we remember, lives is intimately explored. Yagoda's elegant examination of memoir is at once a history of literature and taste and an absorbing glimpse into what humans find interesting one another.
