Offender Rehabilitation In Practice Implementing And Evaluating Effective Programs:

Offender Rehabilitation in Practice Gary A. Bernfeld, David P. Farrington, Alan W. Leschied, 2003-01-10 Documented evidence suggests that community safety is best achieved through policies promoting human services rather than relying totally on prisons and that promoting intervention in an individual's own environment known as ecological integrity is closely associated with effective intervention This is the first book to focus on the transfer of knowledge of worldwide effective offender rehabilitation programs Prominent researchers and practitioners in the criminal justice field have contributed their extensive knowledge of what it takes to implement effective correctional practices with ecological integrity Reviews real world challenges of program effectiveness and survival Offers effective evidence based innovative alternatives to imprisonment of offenders Offers a common multi level systems perspective as a framework for the international case studies featured The first book to focus on the transfer of knowledge and best practice through the concept of technology transfer

Social Learning Theory and the Explanation of Crime Ronald L. Akers, Gary F. Jensen, 2017-07-28 Social learning theory has been called the dominant theory of crime and delinquency in the United States yet it is often misrepresented This latest volume in the distinguished Advances in Criminological Theory series explores the impact of this theory Some equate it with differential association theory Others depict it as little more than a micro level appendage to cultural deviance theories There have been earlier attempts to clarify the theory's unique features in comparison to other theories and others have applied it to broader issues These efforts are extended in this volume which focuses on developing applying and testing the theory on a variety of criminal and delinquent behavior It applies the theory to treatment and prevention moving social learning into a global context for the twenty first century This comprehensive volume includes the latest work tests and theoretical advances in social learning theory and will be particularly helpful to criminologists sociologists and psychologists It may also be of interest to those concerned with current issues relating to delinquency drug use abuse and drinking alcohol abuse
