

Off Ramp

The background of the cover is a photograph of a person sitting cross-legged on a concrete ledge under a highway overpass. The person is wearing a brown hoodie and has their hands clasped in their lap. A red rectangular sign is placed in front of their face, with white text on it. The sign reads: "Adventures and Heartache in the American Elsewhere". The overpass is made of concrete and has several support pillars. The ground is paved and there are some white lines. The sky is visible in the background.
