Times Magazine ,1906 Dying Embers and Shooting Stars Maggi Sale,2013-04 A chance remark by a sensitive daughter to her depressed mother sparks off this fulsome story Unresolved issues that have been haunting Margo for most of her adult life are vividly recalled as she is catapulted into an intense psychological journey over a period of five days Her re awakening mind becomes increasingly aware that it has been set on automatic pilot for some years and little further purpose is served by her accrued defences In the process of review she begins to recognize the psychic supports that have been with her all along and is somewhat surprised as was the writer at their identity Internal landscapes range from a childhood in Scotland to adulthood in Central Africa from a stable village home to a precarious city flat from the wild West Coast of Scotland where gulls fly to the wild streets of Glasgow where gangs rule The personal issues are explored with candour and pathos but there is just as much genuine humour shared in the unfolding of these very human and universally recognized life situations With its graphic imagery and flesh and blood characters the story draws the reader into mystic worlds The Author shines a light on the inner life and perpetual interconnectedness of all things and all beings Ultimately it is a tale of resilience and growth insight and healing
