scholars and practitioners face when studying this topic      Criminological Theory J. Robert Lilly, Francis T. Cullen, Richard A. Ball, 2014-10-21 Offering a rich introduction to how scholars analyze crime Criminological Theory Context and Consequences moves readers beyond a commonsense knowledge of crime to a deeper understanding of the importance of theory in shaping crime control policies The Sixth Edition of the authors clear accessible and thoroughly revised text covers traditional and contemporary theory within a larger sociological and historical context J Robert Lilly Francis T Cullen and Richard A Ball include new sources that assess the empirical status of the major theories as well as updated coverage of crime control policies and their connection to criminological theory      Key Perspectives In Criminology Tierney, John, 2009-05-01 This book introduces the important words and themes which students need to know in order to succeed at criminology It doesn't aim to be a dictionary rather it brings together a comprehensive list of those essential words that students need It has the advantage of being able to offer longer definitions of terms as well as suggesting terms which are new to the subject area and which are helping change the discipline eg green criminology The book is a proactive intervention in the development of criminology and includes cross referencing throughout relevant sources cited annotated guide to further reading and an overview of critiques of each concept      Key Perspectives in Criminology John Tierney, 2009-05-16 This book is an invaluable reference for those new to the field of criminology who are looking for a clear outline of the major perspectives and traditions found in criminology The author has outlined the ideas concepts and traditions of the key theoretical perspectives that drive contemporary debate Topics discussed include Anomie theory Classical criminology Critical criminology Labelling theory Positivism Post modernism Subcultural theory Key Perspectives in Criminology is not simply a dictionary of criminology but a welcome introduction for those with a genuine interest in the terms concepts themes and debates in the field      Place Matters David Weisburd, 2016-04-04 The book summarizes what we know about crime and place and provides an agenda for future research in this area      Emotions, Decision-Making and Mass Atrocities Olaoluwa Olusanya, 2016-05-06 This book rehumanizes perpetrators of mass atrocities At present a victim perpetrator dichotomy appears to be the dominant paradigm perpetrators have either been mechanistically dehumanized that is perceived as unemotional hard hearted and conforming and thereby lacking the core features of human nature or alternatively they have been animalistically dehumanized In other words they are seen as immoral unintelligent lacking self control and likened to animals Within sociology and criminology the dominant view is that genocide and other mass atrocities are committed by technologically lobotomized perpetrators Somehow the process of rationalization is believed to have transformed these people from emotionally healthy people into hollow soulless shells of human beings or zombies devoid of a full range of normal emotions These people are considered bereft of any ability to reason think or feel yet ambulant and able to respond to surrounding stimuli However it is difficult to imagine crime especially those involving a group of people working together for the duration of a particular criminal activity without emotions For instance there is ample evidence suggesting that both crimes of passion and pre meditated crimes involve emotional arousal Furthermore research in fields such as evolutionary biology psychology and sociology of work and organizations suggest that emotions are essential for human progress and survival In addition emotions help us make the right call in risky and uncertain situations in other words the majority of real life situations There is therefore a need to revisit existing assumptions around the role of emotions in mass atrocities
