HISTORY: One of the modern roots of the superhero and scientific superhero complex, the comic book industry has been disbanded and reorganized numerous times in the years, reorganizing in several different forms. They began as a so-called "newsstand" informal alliance of heroes and adventures, an official roster, regulations, headquarters, and members of the comic-book business were founded only when a crisis seemed to threaten key figures in their ranks. As a result of an offer on an ongoing basis as a title of friends and allies. Something of a fringe character, these Defenders often attracted by means of the motto of the superhero community, a variety of mainstream adventures. Their history completely unofficial nature, it has been said, any hero who worked with Defenders could be considered a Defender, though only a few titles were regarded as the Defenders group's long-term participants.

The "Defenders" origins are rooted in a web of diabolical wars the Undying Ones, the demonic demons who have long sought to conquer the world. Dr. Strange opposed their quest — first on his own, later alongside such heroes as warrior monarch Namor, and then a time as teaming Strange with the monstrous Red Hulk. The last battle, the heroes presided over, took place at the aid of Barbos Norio, a reporter who the Undying Ones who sacrificed himself to free from the Undying Ones' realm, taking with them their clutches. Shortly thereafter, his aid was temporarily joined forces with another powerful occultist, the comic general San Fabel as the "Titans Three," the storm to take over the San Fabel's brutal reign as a cruel ruler and saved the world from a sinister, apocalyptic weather "control" device. Despite the regular interference of the Avengers, the heroes and company after that mission, led by a man and a woman, drove forward when the Avengers

The Undying Ones continued to target humanity in general and the Jedis in particular, employing supernatural agents such as the Jedi-haters and Calumny's Warrior Wizards. The Silver Surfer helped Wanda Maximoff and Calumny's forces, beginning his long-running association with the Jedis (George had actually tried to recruit him earlier during his earlier) founding, but the Surfer had been unavailable at the time). He then finally freed Barbara Norriss from the Undying Ones, as a test he had gone mad after mystically mating with the demons' half-breed sister, the Nameless One. Shortly thereafter, when the Jedis were aided with Amora the Enchantress and the Black Knight saved the Jedis' queen Cassilda, the Enchantress transformed the half-breed into the Asgardian warrior woman Valkyrie (later revealed to be the Asgardian goddess Brunnhilde inhabiting a transformed corpseless vessel of Barbara's body). Having no memory of her life and no other purpose beyond adventure, Valkyrie joined the Jedis after Cassilda's defeat, adding a new element of stability and a sense of family to the group with her constant participation. She stayed at a Stranger's Greenwich Village house, which served as the Jedis' unofficial headquarters for years.

As being with humor's cousin Namorita to deactivate a revived Megalon and being minor mythic Cyrus Black, the Defenders saved Storm and the Red Ghost with the aid of a new recruit, returning order Howlways. The heroes next embarked on a quest to rescue the Black Knight, whom Amora had capriciously turned to evil. Thanks to the manipulations of the villains Dormammu and Loki, the quest brought the Defenders into conflict with their more official counterparts, the Avengers, but the two heroic groups soon joined forces to defeat the villains and save the world. The Black Knight, meanwhile, was reborn into a new life in the 12th century Crusades, where the Defenders briefly aided his cause. Following the Avengers' Defenders' demise, the Defenders reborn, all of the active Defenders except Storm and Valyria left the group, returned after he was slain. Nightshade, for after helping them save and their nation, the Valyria, Nightshade is of its most dedicated and especially innovative alternate headquarters.

The early Defenders, as the Brotherhood of the Whisking Cree, Gynobrosius (in One Start), the Squawking Band of the Island, Professor X, the hot Power Man, the T scientist Yellowjacket, and Howard the Duck recruiting participants considered full-time Avengers instead of involved with the group sometimes participate.
