Official Virginia Civil War Battlefield Guide:

The Official Virginia Civil War Battlefield Guide John S. Salmon, 2001 142 two color maps vividly depict battlefield action Detailed local driving directions guide visitors to each battlefield site Of the 384 Civil War battlefields cited as critical to preserve by the congressionally appointed Civil War Sites Advisory Commission 123 fully one third are located in Virginia The Official Virginia Civil War Battlefield Guide is the comprehensive guidebook to the most significant battles of the Civil War Reviewed by Edwin C Bearss and other noted Civil War authorities and sanctioned by the National Park Service and the Virginia Department of Historic Resources no other guidebook on the market today rivals it for historical detail accuracy and The Civil War Battlefield Guide Frances H. Kennedy, 1998 Essays maps and illustrations provide credibility information on every major battle and campaign of the Civil War battlefields The "Immortal Six Hundred" and the Failure of the Civil War POW Exchange Process John F. Schmutz, 2024-11-14 Compounding the devastating tragedy of the Civil War was the failure of the warring parties to maintain a system for exchange of prisoners of war rather than imprisoning combatants for the duration This failure added at least 56 000 deaths to those accumulating on the battlefield and caused the untold suffering of many thousands more This book focuses on 600 Confederate officers made prisoners of war who were dispatched to Charleston Harbor to act as human shields and were subsequently imprisoned elsewhere and deliberately starved nearly to death These actions were the result of the breakdown of the exchange cartel as well as the retaliation policies promoted by the Secretary of War and the Lincoln administration Touring the Antebellum South with an English Opera Company Michael Burden, 2020-10-21 The diary of Anton Reiff Jr c 1830 1916 is one of only a handful of primary sources to offer a firsthand account of antebellum riverboat travel in the American South The Pyne and Harrison Opera Troupe a company run by English sisters Susan and Louisa Pyne and their business partner tenor William Harrison hired Reiff then freelancing in New York to serve as musical director and conductor for the company's American itinerary The grueling tour began in November 1855 in Boston and then proceeded to New York Philadelphia Baltimore Pittsburgh and Cincinnati where after a three week engagement the company boarded a paddle steamer bound for New Orleans It was at that point that Reiff started to keep his diary Diligently transcribed and annotated by Michael Burden Reiff s diary presents an extraordinarily rare view of life with a foreign opera company as it traveled the country by river and rail Surprisingly Reiff comments little on the Pyne Harrison performances themselves although he does visit the theaters in the river towns including New Orleans where he spends evenings both at the French Opera and at the Gaiety Instead Reiff focuses his attention on other passengers on the mechanics of the journey on the landscape and on events he encounters including the 1856 Mardi Gras and the unveiling of the statue of Andrew Jackson in New Orleans's Jackson Square Reiff is clearly captivated by the river towns and their residents including the enslaved whom he encountered whenever the boat tied up Running throughout the journal is a thread of anxiety for apart from the typical dangers of a river trip the winter of 1855

1856 was one of the coldest of the century and the steamer had difficulties with river ice Historians have used Reiff's journal as source material but until now the entire text which is archived in Louisiana State University's Special Collections in Hill Memorial Library has only been available in its original state As a primary source the published journal will have broad appeal to historians and other readers interested in antebellum riverboat travel highbrow entertainment and the people and places of the South Theophilus Hunter Holmes Walter C. Hilderman III, 2013-10-25 The son of a North Carolina governor Theophilus Hunter Holmes graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1829 and served on the frontier during the Trail of Tears He fought in the Second Seminole War and in the U S Mexican War In 1859 he became the U S Army's chief recruiting officer and was assigned to Governors Island at New York City Only days before resigning from the U S Army he helped organize the naval expedition sent to relieve Fort Sumter from the Confederacy's blockade But then casting his lot with his native state Holmes led a Confederate brigade at First Manassas and a division during the Peninsular Campaign commanded armies in the Trans Mississippi and organized North Carolina's young boys and old men into the Confederate Reserves Holmes served with some of America's most notable historic figures Zachary Taylor Winfield Scott Robert E Lee and Jefferson Davis In modern times however he is virtually unknown The man and the soldier possessed traits of both triumph and tragedy as demonstrated in this biography Civil War Special Forces Robert P. Broadwater, 2014-08-26 This timely addition to Civil War history shares the stories of 25 unique military organizations showing how past and future collided in the first modern war The Civil War of course pitted North against South It also pitted ancient ways of war against new technology inspired weaponry and tactics In surveying the war s elite fighting units this work covers both The book showcases novel weapons and unorthodox strategies including machine gunners rocket battalions chemical corps the Union balloon corps and the Confederate submarine service all of which harnessed new technologies and were forerunners of the modern military Chapters also cover archaic special forces such as lancers and pikers that had their last hurrah during this transformational conflict Readers will also meet the fighting youth of the North Carolina Junior Reserves the Graybeards of North Carolina and the female combatants of the Nancy Harts Militia of Georgia Going where few other studies have gone the book fills a gap in existing Civil War literature and brings to life the stories of many of the most extraordinary units that ever served in an American army The tales it tells will prove fascinating to Civil War and weapons buffs and to general readers alike A Volunteer in the Regulars Mark A. Smith, 2023-08-18 At the outbreak of the Civil War Massachusetts native Gilbert Thompson joined the regular army which assigned him to the engineer battalion a unit that provided critical support for the Union military effort in building bridges and roads and surveying and producing maps While serving Thompson kept a journal that eventually filled three volumes The author's early education in a utopian community called Hopedale left him well read affording a journal peppered with literary allusions Once the war ended Corporal Thompson added some postwar reflections to create a unified single volume which editor Mark A Smith has carefully arranged so that the reader can clearly distinguish between Thompson's contemporary accounts and his postwar reminiscences An accomplished artist and topographer Thompson illustrated his journals adding depth to his narrative with portraits of key figures drawings of ordinary scenes such as soldiers playing chess and sights of the war Additionally he collected photographs both during and after the war many of which are included Thompson's wartime musings and postwar recollections have much to offer Few diaries contain glimpses into the workings of a highly specialized unit such as the engineer battalion and Thompson's skills in depicting daily camp life in both words and pictures provide a distinctive look at the Union Army during the Civil War as well as an insightful look into the human condition In his 1879 introduction Thompson writes I wonder how I wrote as much and as well and am thankful I was so fortunate as to have the opportunity to do so Students of the Civil War will feel fortunate he did The Eighth Connecticut Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War William A.
