Revolutionary Tunisia Stefano Pontiggia, 2021-10-18 In Revolutionary Tunisia Inequality Marginality and Power Stefano Pontiggia examines marginality and inequality in Tunisia through the stories of people living in Redeyef a mining town in the Tunisian south that is well known for its militant past Considering the ongoing formation of the post revolutionary Tunisian state Pontiggia explores the extent to which state led institutions local power relations the social structure and the dynamics of space production coincide to perpetuate inequality Far from being a process of exclusion from wealth and development Pontiggia asserts marginality is instead synonymous with a gradual integration of territories and populations into a socio territorial hierarchy that is rooted in the colonial experience What emerges is a country whose revolution is characterized by change as much as continuity with the past

Workers and Thieves Joel Beinin, 2015-11-11 Since the 1990s the Middle East has experienced an upsurge of wildcat strikes sit ins and workers demonstrations Well before people gathered in Tahrir Square to demand the ouster of Hosni Mubarak workers had formed one of the largest oppositional movements to authoritarian rule in Egypt In Tunisia years prior to the 2011 Arab uprisings the unemployed chanted in protest A job is a right you pack of thieves Despite this history most observers have failed to acknowledge the importance of workers in the social ferment preceding the removal of Egyptian and Tunisian autocrats and in the political realignments after their demise In Workers and Thieves Joel Beinin corrects this by surveying the efforts and impacts of the workers movements in Egypt and Tunisia since the 1970s He argues that the 2011 uprisings in these countries and importantly their vastly different outcomes are best understood within the context of these repeated mobilizations of workers and the unemployed over recent decades

Socioeconomic Protests in MENA and Latin America Irene Weipert-Fenner, Jonas Wolff, 2019-07-05 This edited volume presents a detailed account of the dynamics of socioeconomic contention in Egypt and Tunisia since 2011 Combining quantitative and qualitative methods it analyses what has happened to the socioeconomic grievances that played a key role in the mass mobilizations of 2010 and 2011 The book is based on an original data set of socioeconomic protests in the two countries and on in depth case studies that cover the two most important types of socioeconomic contention labor protests and protests by socioeconomically disadvantaged people outside the formal economy Drawing on a systematic review of comparative research on Latin America the authors argue that the dynamics of socioeconomic contention in contemporary Egypt and Tunisia reflect a deep seated crisis of popular sector incorporation This work promises to enrich the scholarly and the political debates on Egypt and Tunisia the MENA region and on contentious politics in times of political change Chapter 10 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com

Assessing Constitutional Performance Tom Ginsburg, Aziz Huq, 2016-08-30 From London to Libya from Istanbul to Iceland there is great interest among comparative constitutional scholars and practitioners about when a proposed constitution is likely to succeed But what does it mean for a constitution to succeed Are there universal criteria of success and which apply across the board Or is the choice of criteria entirely idiosyncratic This edited volume takes on the idea of constitutional success and shows the manifold ways in which it can be understood It collects essays from philosophers political scientists empiricists and legal scholars that approach the definition of constitutional success from many different angles It also brings together case studies from Africa Europe Latin America the Middle East and Asia By exploring a varied array of constitutional histories this book shows how complex ideas of constitutional success play out differently in different contexts and provides examples of how success can be differently defined under different circumstances

The Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World, 2017-04-24 The Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World argues that the present crisis of the Arab world has its origins in the historical legal and political development of state citizen relations since the beginning of modern history in the Middle East and North Africa The anthology covers three main topics Part I focuses on the crisis of the social pact in different Arab countries as it became manifest during the Arab Uprisings Part II concentrates on concepts of citizenship in Islamic doctrine Islamic movements Muslim Brotherhood and Salafism secular political movements and Arab thinkers Part III looks into the practices that support the claims to equal rights as well as the factors that have obstructed full citizen rights such as patronage and clientelism Contributors are Ida Almestad Claire Beaugrand Assia Boutaleb Michaëlle Browers Nils Butenschøn Anthony Gorman Raymond Hinnebusch Engin F Isin Rania Maktabi Roel Meijer Emin Poljarevic Ola Rifai James Sater Rachel Scott Jakob Skovgaard Petersen Robert Springborg Stig Stenslie Morten Valbjørn Knut S Vikør and Sami Zemni

Externalising Migration Governance Through Civil Society Sabine Dini, Caterina Giusa, 2020-05-29 This book investigates how the externalisation of EU migration policies is implemented in Tunisia after the fall of the Ben Ali regime in 2011 through the involvement of civil society organisations The democratic transition initiated by the Tunisian Revolution led to the emergence of a vibrant civil society as a new actor in the implementation of migration policies In a country where migration issues are highly politicised and have strongly entered the public space civil society is now included in the EU Tunisia negotiation process and is assigned the role of an intermediary for the implementation of controversial European policies related to sedentarisation of the Tunisian population and to the construction of Tunisia as a country of destination The volume concludes by suggesting an alternative way of thinking about migrant struggles challenging the European border regime as uncivil society struggles

A Fledgling Democracy Mohamed Zayani, 2022-10-13 In the tumultuous aftermath of the Arab uprisings Tunisia charted a unique path that has earned it praise as a beacon of hope in a troubled region Since the 2011 revolution it has embraced a new culture of democracy based on pluralism civilian rule and the peaceful transfer of power Equally noteworthy are the country's burgeoning civil society its various institutional reforms and its progressive new constitution which upholds individual freedoms and champions women's rights But in spite of these achievements daunting challenges remain Although Tunisia has succeeded in defusing many crises its transition has been uneasy its democracy is fragile and its future continues to be uncertain As the country emerges from decades of authoritarian rule it faces enormous political social economic and security challenges which are undermining its peaceful evolution It is this state of fragility that A Fledgling Democracy seeks to capture Focusing on the socio political dynamics that have unfolded in this North African nation since the revolution the contributors to this volume shed light on how Tunisia has navigated its first decade of democratic transition and reflect on what the ongoing changes and challenges mean for the country today

Turner, 2017-03-16 This volume Struggle Resistance and Violence examines the fact that all over the world the rights of citizens have come under enormous pressure and addresses the many ways in which people are making claims against both autocratic and democratic authority Without any doubt rule breaking riots and violent upheavals have become an aspect of political struggles for citizenship The book takes up a conflict perspective that directs attention to these recent phenomena It stresses the necessity of a careful analysis of resistance and violence as critical factors for coming to terms with social conflicts for citizenship from Europe to South America as well as the Near East the Far East and the Arab World
