

VITA SACKVILLE-WEST

A woman's face, likely Vita Sackville-West, is the central focus, appearing as if she is part of a landscape. She is looking slightly to the right with a gentle expression. Her hand is visible near her chin. The background is a warm, orange-toned landscape with rolling hills and a single tree in the distance. The overall mood is serene and artistic.

publicadas en lengua inglesa entre 1955 y 2004 Ambientados en las islas atlánticas de Madeira y Canarias estos textos encierran una variedad de discursos que ponen de manifiesto una visión muy anglofona de los lugares visitados por los protagonistas Además del esperado discurso de género en sus páginas se detecta un discurso del paraíso que resalta el exotismo de las islas despertando en ocasiones la concienciación medioambiental aunque también se perciben actitudes lingüísticas e incluso raciales a medida que las autoras indagan en el descubrimiento del Otro Ni los personajes ni los narradores son ajenos al choque de identidades y al contacto lingüístico angloespañol y angloportugués de manera que los conflictos que generan la identidad nacional la identidad de género y la identidad étnica se vislumbran claramente tras la aparente sencillez de la intriga amorosa de este tipo de novelas Disdained by critics for its status as popular and feminine literature romance fiction not only remains unbeatable in the publishing market in terms of sales but has also been the subject of interesting academic studies in recent decades Discourses and Identities in Romance Fiction joins this trend by addressing the interdisciplinary analysis of a corpus of novels published in English between 1955 and 2004 Set on the Atlantic islands of Madeira and the Canaries these texts develop a variety of discourses that reveal a very Anglophone vision of the places visited by their protagonists In addition to the expected gender discourse these romances tend to include a paradise narrative that highlights the exoticism of the islands sometimes awakening environmental awareness Linguistic and even racial attitudes also come to the forefront as the writers explore and describe the features of the Other Neither the characters nor the narrators are oblivious to the clash of identities and the linguistic contact English Spanish and English Portuguese exposed in this type of novels revealing the conflicts generated by national gender and or ethnic identities behind the apparent simplicity of their love plots Publications of the Modern Language Association of America, 2007

Passenger to Teheran Victoria Sackville-West, 2007 Twelve Days in Persia Vita Sackville-West, 2009-10-13 A year after Vita Sackville West first travelled to Iran a journey described in the classic Passenger to Teheran she returned to the land that had so captured her imagination For twelve days with her husband and three friends she embarked on a difficult and often dangerous journey through the rugged and wildly beautiful Bakhtiari Mountains of south western Iran It was a landscape that affected Sackville West profoundly inspiring what is arguably some of her most lyrical prose in the same year she wrote her acclaimed poem The Land Interwoven with her magical descriptions of the landscape she also wrote of her encounters with the Bakhtiari tribe as they embarked on their epic annual migration The way of life of the Bakhtiari a people claiming descent from Fereydun hero of the Shahnameh has now all but disappeared the result of persecution by Reza Shah and the encroachments and temptations of modernity Sackville West's descriptions of their everyday life are thus a valuable and illuminating portrayal a vanished world A book that reveals as much about its author as the country through which she travelled Twelve Days in Persia is a classic of travel writing on Iran and a must have for all Bloomsbury devotees
