Red Fear Iqbal Chand Malhotra,2020-11-01 What was the reason for the first real armed encounter between Indian and Chinese troops on Chinese soil in the town of Dinghai on Chusan Island in July 1840 Were the orders for the invasion of Aksai Chin issued by Mao from Moscow in December 1949 at Stalin s behest Was the pluck and raw courage of Lt Gen Sagat Singh to hold Nathu La first in 1965 and then again in 1967 the basis for General K Sundarji s bold moves at Sumdorong Chu in 1986 and 1987 Red Fear The China Threat catalogues evaluates and infers the consequences of the political and military confrontations between India and China from the 15th to the 21st century Contrary to the glowing accounts in popular imagination of a congruence of values and interests between these two nations the relationship has been confrontational and antagonistic at many levels throughout these last six centuries The lessons of history are hard to learn Nevertheless China seems to have learnt them better than India It bided its time well and positioned itself to humiliate and denigrate India whenever possible as retribution for the perceived harm India and Indians did to its society and economy during the infamous Chinese century of humiliation between 1839 to 1940 For India today s post Galwan situation is reminiscent of the challenge India s first Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru faced in 1962 and the identical challenge India's 14th Prime Minister Narendra Modi faces in 2020 Vedic philosophy argues that time is cyclical and not linear and by this argument the year 2020 completes a 60 year cycle that began in 1960 How Modi responds to this challenge will define India's relationship with China as well as its position in the world through the rest of the 21st century

East and South Asia as well as Europe and the Americas Patterns of World History, with Sources Peter Von Sivers, Charles Desnoyers, George B. Stow, Jonathan Scott Perry, 2017 A History of Preaching Volume 1 O.C. Edwards, Jr., 2010-09-01

A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation. Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures, Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel. Pastors, scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching. Volume 1, appearing in the print edition, contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative. Along the way, the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Bernard, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Edwards, Rauschenbusch, Barth—all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention. Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear: from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching; to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands, preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival; to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew. Volume 2, contained on the enclosed CD-ROM, contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection, placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair-minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop, deliver and listen to a sermon, A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs, who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-moderator of the commission, which studies church uniting and church dividing issues. A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches, we all participate in this field, says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65, Winter 2004/2005, published by the National Council of Churches.
