Undoing Things Gavin Lucas,Shannon Lee Dawdy,2025-05-26 Undoing Things explores all the ways in which things become undone be they objects bodies places or worlds Although archaeologists have long attended to the productive dimensions of materiality and material culture as a coherent phenomenon making objects building things constructing identities the discourse around undoing is more fragmented Topics such as ruination death decay demolition and collapse are usually examined separately Undoing Things asks what connections or continuities can be discerned in a diverse range of practices both intentional and taphonomic both destructive and healing Is there a creative component to undoing How visible are different processes of undoing How is time implicated Is undoing reversible Who has the power to undo and when is undoing empowering What does it take to undo knowledge These and other questions are examined through archaeological studies ranging from classical Maya and colonial Caribbean examples to present day Liberia historical and ethnographic approaches to present day Argentina and the contemporary art world In the first quarter of the 21st century human worlds have experienced a series of ruptures from climate related disasters political violence and the Covid 19 pandemic Undoing Things helps move us beyond a cloud of chaos with a deeper understanding of how and why things fall apart and is vital reading for archaeologists and those in related disciplines While the Eyes of the Great Are Elsewhere William L.

Biersach,2000-09 In the words of Mr Biersach This little tome or collection thereof is intended as a word of encouragement for those Catholics who against all odds are attempting to hold on to their Faith for dear life or perhaps trying to rediscover it in the midst of the rumbling chaos And in the words of his good friend Charles Coulombe Our fate begins with our reply to that question asked of His disciples by Jesus Christ and continually referred to by Mr Biersach in this book Who do you say that I am Mr Biersach not only shows us in many ways how we must answer that question but why we must Moreover he does so joyfully The message he brings us is good news there is a way out of this world of sin and shadows and our eternity can be unparalleled bliss That being so Mr Biersach bids us as would his patron St Phillip Neri to begin the quest for Paradise with hope with happiness and with humor Never in this writer s admittedly short experience a mere four decades has his message been so timely and so needed Amazon com Gestalt Therapy Integrated Erving Polster,Miriam Polster,1974-07-12 Explains the fundamentals of the behavioral theory that is based on an integrated view of the personality For the student and the professional Intelligence and the National Security Process ,1985 The Household and the Making of History Mary S. Hartman,2004-04-12 This book argues that a unique late marriage pattern discovered in the 1960s but originating in the Middle Ages explains the continuing puzzle of why western Europe was the site of changes that from about 1500 gave rise to the modern world Contrary to views that credit upheavals from the late eighteenth century were responsible for ushering in the contemporary global era it contends that the roots of modern developments themselves are located in an event more than a millennium earlier when the peasants in northwestern Europe began to marry their daughters almost as late as their sons The appearance of this late marriage system with its unstable nuclear household form will also be shown to have exposed for the first time the common ingredients whose presence has perpetuated beliefs in the importance of gender difference and of a sexual hierarchy favoring males Word of God Hidden in Mary Anthony Mary Mofunanya,2007 The word has the power to become incarnate without Mary Why then did God incorporate Mary into the economy of our salvation to become the Mother of the Incarnate Word If God out of love cannot but incarnate himself through Mary for our salvation what does this suggest for all the graces that come to us through Jesus Christ our sole Mediator Is the incarnation of the Word and the Divine Motherhood of Mary and their unfathomable humility not a challenge to the pomposity of any social political and religious status Pride being fed by hatred has blinded many humans not to see the incomprehensible love of God and the dignity of human person made manifest in the incarnation of the Word and in particular the dignity of womanhood restored and revealed in Mary What has love to do with all these Reconstructing the story of the Virgin Mary's life through passages in Scripture poetry prayers and inspirational narrative Anthony Mary Mofunanya addresses her often undervalued importance in God's incarnation and redemption of Man As the woman chosen by God to be the mother of his son Mary not only raised Jesus for thirty years before he began his ministry but was also his comfort and refuge during the turbulent three years before his death and resurrection Most importantly Mary was the new Eve immaculately conceived to atone for Adam and Eve's fall from grace in the Garden of Eden and predestined to be the masterpiece of God's creation and the vessel for Man's salvation The story of a campaign estate Robert Thynne,1899

Saints: 12 Heroes for All Times Special Collector's Edition Joseph J. Randazzo,2024-01-30 Special Collector's Edition Grandpa had a vast collection of many books about Saints He gathered from Italy written in Italian where he then spent much time each evening reading stories before bedtime to Joseph about Saints that Grandpa had collected As it was told in amazement to little Joseph very specific without missing details Joseph then told his mother and father the Saint's life stories step by step The parents were impressed as to the detail in storytelling by Joseph of such amazing content However mother was not happy with her father Joseph's grandfather speaking and telling the stories to young Joseph and Italian Mother's fear was that little Joseph would go into first grade speaking broken English and mother's intuition was correct For the young boy did have a challenging time in first grade understanding the Irish nun's English and thus he could not grasp reading or writing and was held back in the first grade The relationship between Grandpa and the little boy just became stronger The more mother complained and protested Joseph looked up to his Grandpa As he called him his Knight his hero and Grandpa in turn would tell the little boy over and over the real heroes are these incredibly special Saints they are heroes for God and little Joseph believed his Grandpa Grandfather would say the Saints have a secret code They wake up each day and knowing they are born again to do honorable deeds and give service working for God They are true heroes they pray each day and attend church and communion where they understand fasting and listening to the Holy Spirit who helps them grow their faith Thus giving them special abilities to conduct miracles and many powerful and unexplainable things Now over a half of a century later Joseph gives an impressive tribute to his grandfather for making his way as a 9 year old little boy from a small boat from Italy to America without a passport and leaving his loving parents behind Science, Gender and History Suparna Banerjee,2015-01-12 The first substantial study comparing Mary Shelley and Margaret Atwood this book examines a selection of the speculative fantastic novels of these two influential writers from the perspectives of contemporary feminist postcolonial and science studies Situating her readings at the troubled intersections of science gender and history making Banerjee juxtaposes Shelley's Frankenstein and The Last Man with Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale and

Oryx and Crake in a way that respects historical difference while convincingly suggesting a tradition of ongoing socio political critique in the work of women writers of the fantastic over the past two centuries She offers insightful fresh readings of Shelley and Atwood bringing out how the cognate values of technoscience and capitalistic imperialism work in tandem to foster oppressive gender ideologies social inequity and environmental ruin Banerjee explores how Shelley and Atwood levy powerful critiques of both positivist masculinist science and the politico economic proclivities of their respective times engaging in the process with the meaning of the post human the cultural impact of male Romantic egotism and the public private division the colonial impulse and its modern day counterpart the patriarchal ideologies of love and motherhood and the sexual politics of official historiography Combining lively creative scholarship with theoretical rigour the book offers a nuanced study of the ways in which Shelley s and Atwood s novels each take critical aim at some of the conventional oppositions nature culture masculine feminine reason emotion art science that have since long defined our lives in western technoculture The book re opens the two cultures debate suggesting that Shelley s and Atwood s futuristic visions posit humanistic education and art as the saving graces that might counter the schisms and reductionism innate to the technocapitalistic world view One highlight of the book is the way the author goes beyond a strong critical consensus on Frankenstein and reads the novel not as a denunciation of technological violation of nature but as a subversion of the thematic itself of Nature versus Culture Similar innovative interpretations are offered on the gender question in The Last Man and on Atwood s engagement with feminist mothering in Oryx and Crake
