Ong,1991 The Non-literate Other Helga Ramsey-Kurz,2007 Public debates on the benefits and dangers of mass literacy prompted nineteenth century British authors to write about illiteracy Since the early twentieth century writers outside Europe have paid increasing attention to the subject as a measure both of cultural dependence and independence So far literary studies has taken little notice of this The Non Literate Other Readings of Illiteracy in Twentieth Century Novels in English offers explanations for this lack of interest in illiteracy amongst scholars of literature and attempts to remedy this neglect by posing the question of how writers use their literacy to write about a condition radically unlike their own Answers to this question are given in the analysis of nineteen works featuring illiterates yet never before studied for doing so The book explores the scriptlessness of Neanderthals in William Golding of barbarians in Angela Carter David Malouf and J M Coetzee of African natives in Joseph Conrad and Chinua Achebe of Maoris in Patricia Grace and Chippewas in Louise Erdrich of fugitive or former slaves and their descendants in Richard Wright Toni Morrison and Ernest Gaines of Untouchables in Mulk Raj Anand and Salman Rushdie and of migrants in Maxine Hong Kingston Joy Kogawa and Amy Tan In so doing it conveys a clear sense of the complexity and variability of the phenomenon of non literacy as well as its fictional resourcefulness

A Companion to Gabriel García Márquez Raymond L. Williams,2010 This book offers discussion and analysis of the subtle writing of Nobel Laureate Gabriel Garc a M rquez a traditionalist who draws from classic Western texts a Modernist committed to modernizing the conservative literary tradition in Colombia and Latin America an internationally recognized major writer of the 1960s Boom the key figure in popularizing what has been called magic realism and finally a Modernist who has occasionally engaged in some of the strategies of the postmodern The author demonstrates that Garc a M rquez is above all a committed and highly accomplished Modernist fiction writer who has successfully synthesized his political vision in his writing and absorbed a vast array of cultural and literary traditions Drawing on Garc a M rquez s interviews with Williams and others over the years the book also explores the importance of the non literary the presence of oral tradition and the visual arts thus providing a more complete insight into Garc a M rquez s strategies as a Modernist with heterogeneous aesthetic interests as well as an understanding of his social and political preoccupations

RAYMOND LESLIE WILLIAMS is Professor of Latin American Literature at the University of California Riverside

The Anecdote in Mark, the Classical World and the Rabbis Marion Moeser,2002-12-15 This major study of a Markan genre represented in the central section 8 27 10 4 ranges through Greek rabbinic and early Christian literature providing detailed comparison with the anecdotes in Lucian s Demonax and the Mishnah Moeser concludes that the Markan anecdotes clearly follow the definition of and typologies for the Greek chreia His analysis indicates that while the content of the three sets of anecdotes is peculiar to its respective cultural setting the Greek Jewish and Christian examples all function according to the purposes of the genre

Pastoral, Identity, and Memory in the Works of John Banville Alexander G.Z. Myers,2018-08-27 John Banville's works waver indecisively between modernism and postmodernism This study offers a hitherto unexplored vista on his works and argues that Banville is a post modern pastoralist The pastoral lens opens new vistas to Banville s central concerns the collusion of ethics and aesthetics self identification in narrative and the topography of the troubled mind Banvilles characters harbour an Arcadia of the unconscious conditioned by a subtext of nostalgia Caught in a crisis his characters explore subvert and transform the pastoral mode into an ambiguous quest for a stable self Visual and Written Culture in Ancient Egypt John Baines,2007-05-17 A generously illustrated selection of John Baines s influential writings on two core areas of ancient Egyptian civilization the role of writing which was very different in antiquity from what is familiar in the modern world and the importance of visual culture These questions are explored through a number of case studies The volume assembles articles that were scattered in publications in a variety of disciplines making available key contributions on core problems of theory comparison and analysis in the study of many civilizations and offering important points of departure for further research Three wholly new essays are included and the overall approach is an interdisciplinary one synthesizing insights from archaeology anthropology and art history as well as Egyptology Translating Scripture for Sound and Performance James A. Maxey,Ernst Wendland,2012-11-01 The various studies presented in this anthology underscore the foundational matter of translation in biblical studies as understood from the specific perspective of Biblical Performance Criticism If the assumption for the biblical messages being received is not individual silent reading then the question becomes how does this public performative mode of communication affect the translation of this biblical material Rather than respond to this in general theoretical terms most in this collection of articles offer specific applications to particular Hebrew and Greek passages of Scripture Almost all the authors have firsthand experience with the translation of biblical materials into non European languages in communities who maintain a vibrant oral tradition The premise is that the original Scriptures which were composed in and for performance are being prepared again for live audiences who will receive these sacred texts not primarily in printed form but first and foremost in community by means of oral and visual media This volume is an invitation for others to join us in researching more intensely this intersection of sound performance and translation in a contemporary communication of the Word Roma Pentecostals Narrating Identity, Trauma, and Renewal in Croatia and Serbia Melody Wachsmuth,2022-10-17 Stories of Pentecostal conversion and church growth in Roma communities are prolific across Europe but how does conversion impact daily lives in the context of economic hardship and social marginalization In fact Roma Pentecostal life stories from Croatia and Serbia reveal both resilience and suffering and consequently reveal the struggle of lived faith amidst formidable challenges In what ways then has a new Pentecostal identity shifted relationships thinking and behaviour This ethnography explores the ways in which these Roma Pentecostals incorporate their faith in their daily lives through analysing their life stories in conjunction with their socio cultural contexts and Pentecostal theology Folk and Songs in Japan and Beyond Matt Gillan,Kiku Day,Patrick Huang,2022-05-10 This volume of essays and research papers is dedicated to David Hughes in honour of his contribution to research teaching and dissemination of the music of Japan South East Asia and other countries over many years Dr Hughes academic output from the 1970s to the present has covered many aspects of Japanese traditional music making in particular the min y folk song genre of which he remains the primary scholar outside Japan His groundbreaking work has also encompassed theories of musical grammars oral notation systems in cross cultural perspective as well as several papers on cultural heritage and preservation societies The contributors to this volume comprise many of David s former students as well as scholars from Japan and elsewhere with whom Dr Hughes has collaborated over the years The papers reflect the depth and breadth of Hughes research output demonstrating his continuing influence over ethnomusicologists around the world

Reading Luke-Acts William S. Kurz, 1993-01-01 This excellent book shows how literary criticism illuminates the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles reclaiming them as Biblical narrative Kurz explores literary aspects such as implied authors or readers plot and assumed information or gaps Finally he traces the implications of reading Luke Acts as canonical Scripture and the merits of literary methods

EBOOK: Developing Writers: Teaching and Learning in the Digital Age Richard Andrews, Anna Smith, 2011-07-16 This book takes a fresh look at what it means to learn and develop as a writer in response to concerns on both sides of the Atlantic and elsewhere in the world about standards in writing In this book the authors seek answers to some perennial questions Why does performance in writing tend to lag behind that in reading Are the productive skills of speaking and writing more difficult because they require the learner to make something new What does it mean to develop as a writer This book provides the foundation for developing the teaching of writing It does so by Reviewing and comparing models of writing pedagogy from the last fifty years Discussing the notion of development in depth Developing a new theory and model for writing in the multimodal and digital age Its basic premise is that writing needs to be re conceived as one crucial component of communication among other modes Andrews and Smith argue that although existing theories have provided insights into the teaching and learning of writing we need to bring such theories up to date in the digital and multimodal age Developing Writers is designed for teachers academics researchers curriculum designers parents and others who are interested in writing development It will also be intended for anyone who is interested in developing their own writing and who wishes to understand the principles on which such development is based Continue the conversation at www.developingwriters.org

A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01 The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts educationalists psychologists sociologists linguists cultural anthropologists and historians The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities

Clash of Realities 2015/16 Clash of Realities, 2017-10-15 Digital games as transmedia works of art Games as social environments The aesthetics of play Digital games in pedagogy Cineludic aesthetics Ethics in games these were some of the important and fascinating topics addressed during the international research conference Clash of Realities in 2015 and 2016 by more than a hundred international speakers academics as well as artists This volume represents the best contributions by inter alia Janet H Murray David O'Reilly Eric Zimmerman Thomas Elsaesser Lorenz Engell Susana Tosca Miguel Sicart Frans M yr and Mark J P Wolf

From Text to Performance Kelly R Iverson, 2015-04-30 For the last two centuries biblical interpretation has been guided by perspectives that have largely ignored the oral context in which the gospels took shape Only recently have scholars begun to explore how ancient media inform the interpretive process and offer an understanding of the Bible The contributors to From Text to Performance recognise that the Jesus tradition was a story heard and performed and seek to re evaluate the constituent elements of narrative including characters structure narrator time and intertextuality within this performative context In dialogue with traditional literary approaches these essays demonstrate that an appreciation of performance yields fresh insights distinguishable in many respects from results of literary or narrative readings of the gospels
