Over Researched Places Cat Button, Gerald Taylor Aiken, 2022-05-30 The book explores the implications that research density has on the people and places researched on the researchers on the data collected and knowledge produced and on the theories that are developed It examines the effects that research density has on the people and places researched on the researchers on the data collected and knowledge produced and on the theories that are developed By weaving together experiences from a variety of countries and across disciplinary boundaries and research methods the volume outlines the roots of over research where it comes from and what can be done about it The book will be useful for social science students and researchers working in ethnographic disciplines such as Human Geography Anthropology Urban Planning and Sociology and seeking to navigate the tricky absent present of already existing research on their fields of exploration

Reason in the City of Difference Gary Bridge, 2005 This book re-establishes a notion of conscious agency in our understanding of urban life Using empirical examples and drawing on pragmatist ideas of experience and rationality this text offers a new alternative reading of the city Subaltern Urbanisation in India Eric Denis, Marie-Hélène Zérah, 2017-03-01 This volume decentres the view of urbanisation in India from large agglomerations towards smaller urban settlements It presents the outcomes of original research conducted over three years on subaltern processes of urbanization The volume is organised in four sections A first one deals with urbanisation dynamics and systems of cities with chapters on the new census towns demographic and economic trajectories of cities and employment transformation The interrelations of land transformation social and cultural changes form the topic of the land society belonging section based on ethnographic work in various parts of India Karnataka Himachal Pradesh Arunachal Pradesh and Tamil Nadu A third section focuses on public policies governance and urban services with a set of macro analysis based papers and specific case studies Understanding the nature of production and innovation in non metropolitan contexts closes this volume Finally though focused on India this research raises larger questions with regard to the study of urbanisation and development worldwide Producing and living the high-rise:

New contexts, old questions? Manoel Rodrigues Alves, Manuel Appert, Christian Montès, 2024-05-14 The purpose of the book is to assess the process of urban verticalization in different contexts through time to provide insight into the relationships between highrise design and the way inhabitants negotiate them in their everyday lives to assess how planners politicians and designers negotiate residential highrises in the strategies they develop for building the city and to introduce urban narratives and cartographies Verticalization although not new currently takes place in a very different context than post 1945 Today highrise residential buildings are more than architectural solutions they are commodities in a global market where capital flows are fixed by developers and municipalities Our exploration of residential verticalization is anchored in case studies revealing different types of local global negotiations in the design of the city and has been framed by three interrelated dynamics first the complex relationships within the financialization of real estate markets revealing differences in the types of local global negotiations in the construction of the neo liberal city secondly the most developed anchors residential verticalization in the processes of socio spatial differentiation within cities mostly identified as gentrification associated to processes of urban renewal and densification the third related to readings and interpretations of the urban landscape and social spatial practices and its iconographic and cartographic representations This book is of interest to academics students planners architects and urban studies professionals It shows that the chosen research object is an increasingly relevant angle of analysis of the contemporary city It also provides a better knowledge of the processes of residential verticalization their impact on the privatization of the urban space and on urban segregation or fragmentation

Urban Histories of Science Oliver Hochadel, Agustí Nieto-Galan, 2018-09-20 This book tells ten urban histories of science from nine cities Athens Barcelona Budapest Buenos Aires Dublin 2 articles Glasgow Helsinki Lisbon and Naples situated on the geographical margins of Europe and beyond Ranging from the mid nineteenth to the early twentieth centuries the contents of this volume debate why and how we should study the scientific culture of cities often considered peripheral in terms of their production of knowledge How were scientific practices debates and innovations intertwined with the highly dynamic urban space around 1900 The authors analyze zoological gardens research stations observatories and international exhibitions along with hospitals newspapers backstreets and private homes while also stressing the importance of concrete urban spaces for the production and appropriation of knowledge They uncover the diversity of actors and urban publics ranging from engineers scientists architects and physicians to journalists tuberculosis patients and fishermen Looking at these nine cities around 1900 is like glancing at a prism that produces different and even conflicting notions of modernity In their totality the ten case studies help to overcome an outdated centre periphery model This volume is thus able to address far more intriguing historiographical questions How do science technology and medicine shape the debates about modernity and national identity in the urban space To what degree do cities and the heterogeneous elements they contain have agency These urban histories show that science and the city are consistently and continuously co constructing each other

State of Slum Paul Stacey, 2019-04-15 Home to eighty thousand people Accra's Old Fadama neighbourhood is the largest illegal slum in Ghana Though almost all its inhabitants are Ghanaian born their status as illegal squatters means that they live a precarious existence marginalised within Ghanaian society and denied many of the rights to which they are entitled as citizens The case of Old Fadama is far from unique Across Africa over half the population now lives in cities and a lack of affordable housing means that growing numbers live in similar illegal slum communities often in appalling conditions Drawing on rich ethnographic fieldwork the book takes as its point of departure the narratives that emerge from the everyday lives and struggles of these people using the perspective offered by Old Fadama as a means of identifying wider trends and dynamics across African slums Central to Stacey's argument is the idea that such slums possess their own structures of governance grounded in processes of negotiation between slum residents and external actors In the process Stacey transforms our understanding not only of slums but of governance itself moving us beyond prevailing state centric approaches to consider how even a society's most marginal members can play a key role in shaping and contesting state power

Addressing the Climate Crisis Candice Howarth, Matthew Lane, Amanda Slevin, 2021-10-04 This open access book brings together a collection of cutting edge insights into how action can and is already being taken against climate change at multiple levels of our societies amidst growing calls for transformative and inclusive climate action In an era of increasing recognition regarding climate and ecological breakdown this book offers hope inspiration and analyses for multi level climate action spanning varied communities places spaces agents and disciplines demonstrating how the energy and dynamism of local scales are a powerful resource in turning the tide Interconnected yet conceptually distinct the book's three sections span multiple levels of analysis interrogating diverse perspectives and practices inherent to the vivid tapestry of climate action emerging locally nationally and internationally Delivered in collaboration with the UK's Place Based Climate Action Network chapters are drawn from a wide range of authors with varying backgrounds spread across academia policy and practice European Planning History in the 20th Century Max Welch Guerra, Abdellah Abarkan, María A. Castrillo Romón, Martin Pekár, 2022-08-11 The history of Europe in the 20th century is closely tied to the history of urban planning. Social and economic progress but also the brute treatment of people and nature throughout Europe were possible due to the use of urban planning and the other levels of spatial planning. Thereby planning has constituted itself in Europe as an international subject. Since its emergence through intense exchange but also competition despite country differences, planning has developed as a European field of practice and scientific discipline. Planning is here much more than the addition of individual histories; however, historiography has treated this history very selectively regarding geography and content. This book searches for an understanding of the historiography of planning in a European dimension. Scholars from Eastern and Western Southern and Northern Europe address the issues of the public led production of city and the social functions of urban planning in capitalist and state socialist countries. The examined examples include Poland and USSR, Czech Republic and Slovakia, UK, Netherlands, Germany, France, Portugal and Spain, Italy and Sweden. The book will be of interest to students and scholars for Urbanism, Urban Town Planning, Spatial Planning, Spatial Politics, Urban Development, Urban Policies, Planning History and European History of the 20th Century. The Open Access version of this book is available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license.

Cities in Globalization Peter Taylor, Ben Derudder, Pieter Saey, Frank Witlox, 2006-11-20 Despite traditionally being a strong research topic in urban studies, inter-city relations had become grossly neglected until recently when it was placed back on the research agenda with the advent of studies of world global cities. More recently the external relations of cities have taken their place alongside internal relations within cities to constitute the full nature of cities. This collection of essays on how and why cities are connecting to each other in a globalizing world provides evidence for a new city-centered geography that is emerging in the twenty-first century. Cities in Globalization covers four key themes beginning with the different ways of measuring a world city network ranging from analyses of corporate structures to airline passenger flows. Second is the recent European advances in studying urban systems which are compared to the Anglo-American city networks approach. These chapters add conceptual vigour to traditional themes and provide findings on European cities in globalization. Thirdly the political implications of these new geographies of flows are considered in a variety of contexts: the localism of city planning, specialist political world cities and the war on terror. Finally there are a series of chapters that critically review the state of our knowledge on contemporary relations between cities in globalization. Cities in Globalization provides an up-to-date assembly of leading American and European researchers reporting their ideas on the critical issue of how cities are faring in contemporary globalization and is highly illustrated throughout with over forty figures and tables.

Cities, Nationalism and Democratization Scott A. Bollens, 2007-04-11 Filling a gap in the peacemaking and conflict literatures market and including a set of over 100 interviews with local political and community leaders, this book will be helpful to scholars international organizations and grassroots organizations Spatialities of Urban Change Lochner Marais, Gustav Visser, 2008-07-01 It is against a post colonial backdrop that the collection of essays assembled in this book aims to make a contribution to understanding the realities of urban centres which feature less frequently in the academic press The research reported in this collection echoes and highlights many of the themes found in both urban theory derived from the realities of many world cities and the challenges remarked upon in development theory seen in much of the work focused on South Africa's main metropolitan regions Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman, Richard R. Bohannon II, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue Rethinking Global Urbanism Xiangming Chen, Ahmed Kanna, 2012-05-31 Arguing that the focus in global urban studies on cities such as New York London Tokyo in the global North Mexico City and Shanghai in the developing world and other major nodes of the world economy has skewed the concept of the global city toward economics this volume gathers a diverse group of contributors to focus on smaller and less economically dominant cities It highlights other important and relatively ignored themes such as cultural globalization alternative geographies of the global and the influence of deeper urban histories particularly those relating to colonialism in order to advance an alternative view of the global city Globalization, Violence and the Visual Culture of Cities Christoph Lindner, 2009-09-10 This book is the first interdisciplinary volume to examine the complex relationship between globalization violence and the visual culture of cities Translating the City Hossam Aldy, Yves Pedrazzini, Stéphanie Vincent-Geslin, Yafiza Zorro, 2016-12-05 The city is a highly fragmented heterogeneous subject those who study analyze and question it make a use of a variety of disciplines and methods and have different areas of expertise How is a dialogue built between heterogeneous urban contexts and urban researchers architects developers anthropologists sociologists and political scientists What capacity do concepts and methods have to travel from one context to another How can they be transferred The strength of

Urban Translations lies in its disciplinary and geographical comparison and dialogue on a global scale It openly targets an international audience bringing together leading researchers from a variety of disciplines urban planning sociology architecture and anthropology and presenting case studies from highly contrasting urban settings including Rio de Janeiro Mumbai Cape Town Dubai Montreal Geneva Lisbon Ljubljana and Berlin Park, Tenement, Slaughterhouse Antonio Carbone, 2022-04-13 Welche Wahrnehmungen und Vorstellungen von ihrer Stadt hatte die Oberschicht im späten 19. Jahrhundert Antonio Carbone zeigt dies exemplarisch am Beispiel von Buenos Aires wo sich an einem Wendepunkt der Geschichte des modernen Argentinien und der globalen Stadtgeschichte nach dramatischen Cholera und Gelbfieberepidemien eine breite Diskussion um die Krise des Urbanen entzündete die zu einer partiellen Umgestaltung der Stadt führte In seiner Kultur Sozial Global und Umweltgeschichte nimmt er besonders drei urbane Brennpunkte in den Blick die industriellen Schlachthöfe die von Migrant_innen bewohnten Mietshäuser und einen Park im Stadtteil Palermo The Heritage Turn in China Carol Ludwig, Linda Walton, Yi-Wen Wang, 2025-10-01 The Heritage Turn in China The Reinvention Dissemination and Consumption of Heritage focuses on heritage discourse and practice in China today as it has evolved from the heritage turn that can be dated to the 1990s Using a variety of disciplinary approaches to regionally and topically diverse case studies the contributors to this edited volume show how particular versions of the past are selected reinvented disseminated and consumed for contemporary purposes These studies explore how the Chinese state utilises heritage not only for tourism entertainment educational and commercial purposes but also as part of broader political strategies on both the national and international stage Together they argue that the Chinese state deploys modes of heritage governance to construct new modernities while strengthening collective national identity in support of both its political legitimacy and its claim to status as an international superpower The authors also consider ways in which state management of heritage is contested by some stakeholders whose embrace of heritage has a different purpose and meaning
